I, MATTIE SCOTT MONTGOMERY, an adult resident citizen of Madison, Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, and I do hereby revoke any and all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM I.

I hereby appoint my son, HUGH C. MONTGOMERY, JR., of Jackson, Mississippi, Executor of this my Last Will and Testament. In the event my said son shall be or become unable or unwilling to serve as Executor then I appoint the DEPOSIT GUARANTY NATIONAL BANK, Jackson, Mississippi, as successor Executor. I expressly direct that neither my son as Executor nor the said Deposit Guaranty National Bank as successor Executor shall be required to make any bond and I further waive the necessity of either of them making a formal appraisal of my estate.

ITEM II.

I direct my Executor to pay all my just debts which may be probated, registered and allowed against my estate as soon as may be conveniently done.

ITEM III.

To my son, HUGH C. MONTGOMERY, JR., if he be living at my death, I devise and bequeath my entire estate in fee.

M. S. M

ITEM IV.

In the event my son does not survive me, I give, devise and bequeath my entire estate to the DEPOSIT GUARANTY NATIONAL BANK, Jackson, Mississippi, as Trustee, under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, for the benefit of my granddaughter, MARY CAMERON MONTGOMERY, and any other children hereafter born of the marriage of Faye H. Montgomery and Hugh C. Montgomery, Jr.

A. From the net income of this trust the Trustee shall pay, in convenient installments but no less frequently than annually, to and among my grandchildren, all or any part of such income as the Trustee shall in its sole discretion deem necessary or desirable for the comfort, support, maintenance, health, education or welfare of my grandchildren. Such distributions of income shall be made in such proportions, amounts and at such intervals as the Trustee shall determine. Any income of this trust not distributed by the Trustee shall be retained in the trust for future distribution.

B. In addition to the income, the Trustee in its sole discretion shall pay over to or apply for the benefit of my grandchildren, or any of them, so much of the principal of this trust as the Trustee deems needful or desirable to provide for the comfort, support, education, maintenance and welfare of my grandchildren, any and all medical, nursing, hospital or other related expenses, or any other expenses of an emergency nature incurred by my grandchildren. In making such distributions the Trustee shall consider the reasonable needs of my grandchildren and the funds available to them from other sources.

C. As and when my youngest living grandchild attains the age of twenty-one (21) years the Trustee shall divide this trust into as many equal shares as there are grandchildren of mine then living and grandchildren of mine who are deceased leaving issue surviving, and shall pay over to the beneficiaries thereof his or her share. Upon distribution of the entire trust estate to the beneficiaries thereof this trust shall terminate.

D. In making payments for beneficiaries as required herein, and especially where such beneficiaries may be minors, or by reason of illness be incapable of transacting business, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may make such payments either (a) directly to such beneficiary, (b) to the legal or natural guardian of such beneficiary, (c) to any relative or guardian of the person of such beneficiary who shall have custody and care of the person of such beneficiary, or (d) by applying such payments for the benefit of such beneficiary by paying his or her expenses directly. In any event the Trustee shall require such reports and take such steps as it may deem requisite to assure and enforce the due application of such payments for the exclusive benefit of the said beneficiary.

E. Neither the principal nor the income of these trusts, nor any part of same, shall be liable for the debts of any of the beneficiaries hereof, nor shall the same be subject to seizure by any creditors of said beneficiaries. The said beneficiaries shall not have any power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber or in any manner to anticipate or dispose of their interests in the trust funds, or any part of same, or the income produced from said funds or any part of same.

F. This trust shall be designated and known as the "Mattie S. Montgomery Family Trust."

ITEM V.

Except as otherwise herein expressly provided, the administration and management of the trust herein created, the sale and conveyance of the trust assets, the investment and reinvestment of trust assets and the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Trustee shall be in accordance with and governed by the terms and provisions of the Uniform Trustees'

Powers Act of Mississippi as it now exists or may hereafter be amended. However, in addition to the powers contained in that Act the Trustee shall have full power and authority:

A. To invest funds in a common fund established by the corporate Trustee pursuant to the Uniform Common Trust Fund Act of Mississippi.

B. To determine upon all allocations, charges or credits as between principal and income of the trust. Any dividend payable in the stock of any corporation, or rights to subscribe to shares of stock or other securities or obligations of a corporation which may accrue to the trust, and the proceeds of any sale of such rights, shall be deemed to be principal and shall be treated as such. Likewise, all liquidating dividends shall be deemed to be principal. All other cash dividends received by the Trustee shall be income and shall be disposed of as such.

C. To permit available trust funds to remain temporarily uninvested, or, in its discretion, to place on time deposit in a Savings Account in the DEPOSIT GUARANTY NATIONAL BANK, Jackson, Mississippi, cash funds coming into its hands which the Trustee deems it desirable to accumulate for use at a given time in the future in connection with the administration of the trust.

D. To receive and retain, so long as it deems wise, shares of stock in the DEPOSIT GUARANTY NATIONAL BANK, Jackson, Mississippi, issued as stock dividends, and to subscribe and pay for, receive and retain so long as it deems wise to do so any additional shares of stock hereafter lawfully authorized by the stockholders of the said Deposit Guaranty National Bank.

ITEM VI.

The trusts hereinbefore created are private trusts, and the Trustee shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of any court for the exercise of any powers or discretions herein given. The income of the trusts herein created shall accrue from the date of my death, and during the period of the administration of my estate, and until the trusts are established, I hereby authorize my Executor in his sole discretion, to deliver to the Trustee at least annually out of my general estate such sums as equal the income of my estate during the period of administration of my estate; thereafter the Trustee may pay to the respective income beneficiaries of such trusts, as advanced payments of income, such sums as in its judgment equal the income which such income beneficiaries would receive from the said trusts had the same been established. The Trustee shall not be required to enter into any bond as Trustee, nor shall it be required to return to any court any periodic formal accounting of its administration of said trust, but said Trustee shall render annual accounts to various beneficiaries of the trust. No person paying money or delivering property to the Trustee shall be required to see to its application.

In the administration of my estate the personal representatives herein named shall have all the rights, powers and discretions herein given to the Trustee.

ITEM VII.

If neither my son nor any grandchildren survive me, I give, devise and bequeath my entire estate in fee to my daughter-in-law, FAYE H. MONTGOMERY.

I, HELEN MARY LONG, of Madison, Mississippi, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills and Codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I.

I give and bequeath all my jewelry, wearing apparel, books, automobiles, household goods and other such articles of personal and domestic use to my surviving children in shares considered by my Executor to be approximately equal in value, provided, however, that if any child of mine is less than 21 years of age at the time of my death, my Executor shall deliver, without requiring bond, to the person with whom such minor child is then residing so much of his or her share of such tangible personal property as my Executor, in his sole discretion, may deem appropriate, and the receipt of such person shall constitute a full acquittance to my Executor for the property so delivered, and my Executor shall sell the remainder, if any, of such minor child's share of such tangible personal property and pay over the proceeds thereof to that certain trust described in Article II hereof.

ARTICLE II.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real and personal, tangible and intangible, in which I may have any interest at the time of my death, not otherwise effectively disposed of by my Will or Codicil, but not including any property over which I may have a power of appointment, wheresoever situated and howsoever held, herein sometimes referred to as my residuary estate, I give, devise and bequeath to the Trustee under a Trust Agreement dated the 11 day of [illegible], 19[illegible], between HELEN MARY LONG, as Grantor, and ANTHONY LIMONGELLI, of North Miami Beach, Florida, as Trustee, creating a trust designated as "The Helen Mary Long Family Trust", to be

ARTICLE III.

I nominate and appoint ANTHONY LIMONGELLI, of North Miami Beach, Florida, as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament. I request that no bond or security be required of my said Executor and insofar as may be permitted by law, I waive inventory and appraisal of my estate. For its services my Executor shall be entitled to take and receive just and reasonable compensation.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JOHN ANDERSON DUPRE, DECEASED
FILED JUNE 1, 1976

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

JOHN ANDERSON DUPRE

I, JOHN ANDERSON DUPRE, a resident citizen of Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory and over twenty-one years of age, do make, publish and declare this instrument as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills and codicils made by me at any time.

ITEM I.

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my son, JOHN A. DUPRE, JR., and my daughter, FRANCES D. FITZHUGH, as Co-Executors of this my Last Will and Testament. In the event one of my Executors declines or is unable to serve, I hereby appoint my remaining son or daughter as sole Executor or Executrix. My Executor and Executrix shall not be required to furnish bond, bond being hereby expressly waived.

ITEM II.

I direct that my Executors pay all my just debts, including federal estate and state inheritance taxes including any interest or penalties thereon out of the corpus of my estate, as soon as practicable after my death.

I specifically authorize my Executors to elect to file a joint return of income with my wife for any period or periods for which such a return may be permitted following my death and to pay from the estate the full amount of the tax due on such a return or any adjustments thereof. I further authorize my Executors to consent that any gifts made by me or by my wife prior to my death, and any gifts made by my wife after my death within any period or periods for which consenting to any such gifts may be prescribed following my death, shall, for gift tax purposes, be considered as having been made half by me and half by my said wife, and if such consent be given, to pay from my estate any and all gift taxes that may be due because of such gifts.

THIS IS THE FIRST PAGE OF MY LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT _____

All the powers, authority and rights hereinafter given to my Trustee are expressly conferred upon and given to my Executors during the period of the administration of my estate, and the Executors shall be empowered to dispose of such of my assets without court approval as may be necessary to raise the funds for the payment of such debts and taxes.

My Executors are authorized to receive and use for purposes of administration, payment of taxes and payment of debts, all the income which they might receive during the period of administration.

It is not my intention hereby that my Executors should postpone unduly the enjoyment of the income from this estate by my beneficiaries, and as soon as my Executors are able to arrange adequate cash funds for the administration of the estate and the payment of my debts, I authorize my Executors to pay the bequests hereinafter provided, establish the trusts herein created and commence the payment of the income therefrom. In the interim, they shall advance to my wife any sums needed for her support.

ITEM III.

My wife, CLOTILDA MITCHENER DUPRE, is now and has been for many years past the owner of all household furnishings and all other articles of a purely personal nature now at our residence, and I hereby ratify and confirm her title thereto. In addition to the property which my wife already owns, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to her my personal effects, such as clothing, jewelry, and other personal ornaments which I may own.

Should my wife predecease me, I hereby give and bequeath such articles to my son and daughter, equally, share and share alike.

ITEM IV.

In the event that my wife, CLOTILDA MITCHENER DUPPE, should die simultaneously with me or under such circumstances as to make it impossible to determine who shall have died first, it is my intention that it shall be presumed for the purposes of this Will that my wife shall have survived me and the bequests granted to her under this Will, except as otherwise provided herein, shall pass to her and her estate just as though she had survived me.

THIS IS THE SECOND PAGE OF MY LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

ITEM V.

I hereby direct that all of the rest and residue of my estate, including property of every kind and character and wheresoever situated, shall be divided in the following manner:

My Executors are directed to total the entire proceeds and assets of my estate and all insurance and jointly held real or personal property, and any other property which may pass by reason of my death not subject to my Will, including transfers which shall be held to have been intended to take effect at or after my death. My Executors shall deduct therefrom all of my debts, including the expenses of administration except federal estate and state inheritance taxes, including interest and penalties thereon, if any, to determine the amount of my adjusted gross estate as defined in the Internal Revenue Code before the payment of federal estate and state inheritance taxes.

My Executors are then directed to divide the residue of my estate as follows: They shall distribute to the National Bank of Commerce in Memphis, as Trustee, to hold in trust for the benefit of my wife, CLOTILDA MITCHENER DUPRE, from the proceeds and assets of my estate, twenty-five per cent (25%) of my adjusted gross estate before payment of federal estate and state inheritance taxes said trust to be referred to as the Marital Deduction Trust.

My Executors shall assign, convey and distribute to the Trustee of the Marital Deduction Trust, the cash, securities and other property, including real estate and interests therein, which shall constitute said bequest. The assets to be distributed in satisfaction of said bequest shall be selected in such manner that the cash and other property distributed will have an aggregate fair market value fairly representative of the proportionate share of the appreciation or depreciation in the value to the date, or dates, of distribution of all property then available for distribution. Any property included in my estate at the time of my death and assigned or conveyed in kind to satisfy said bequest shall be valued for that purpose at the value thereof as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes. No asset or proceeds of any asset shall be included in said bequest as to which a marital deduction is not allowable if included. Said bequest shall abate to the extent that it cannot be satisfied in the manner hereinabove provided.

The Trustee of the Marital Deduction Trust herein established for my wife, CLOTILDA MITCHENER DUPRE, is instructed to administer the trust in the following manner:

1. The Trustee is directed to take, hold, manage, invest and reinvest the corpus of the trust and to collect the income therefrom in accordance with the powers, duties and directions hereinafter set forth.

The Trustee is directed to pay all expenses incurred in the management of the trust estate out of the income thereof.

2. After the paymemt of all expenses, taxes and costs incurred in the management of the trust estate, the Trustee is directed to pay the net income at convenient intervals, monthly, quarterly, but not less often than annually, to my wife for and during the period of her natural life.

3. The Trustee shall be empowered to encroach upon the corpus of the trust in the event that it, in its sole discretion, deems it necessary for the maintenance and support of my wife, and especially in the event of illness, injury or sickness or other special circumstances requiring extraordinary expenditures.

4. My wife, CLOTILDA MITCHENER DUPRE, is hereby granted the unrestricted power to appoint by her Last Will and Testament the corpus remaining in this trust and accumulated income, if any, upon her death to her estate or to any other person or organization she may desire. In addition to the methods provided by law, this power of appointment may be released, in whole or in part, during my wife's natural life, by an instrument acknowledged by my wife and filed in any court which has granted probate of this will. Unless this power of appointment is exercised by specific reference to said power in the Last Will and Testament of my wife, upon the death of my wife the corpus and accumulated income, if any, in the Marital Deduction Trust shall be distributed as follows:

a. To the extent that the corpus and accumulated income in the Marital Deduction Trust are includable in my wife's estate for federal estate or state inheritance tax purposes and are subject to said taxes, the corpus and accumulated income in the Marital Deduction Trust shall bear their pro rata share of said taxes and interest and penalties thereon.

b. After the payment of its pro rata share of taxes as provided in Item V 4a, the corpus and accumulated income remaining in the Marital Deduction Trust shall be divided equally between and added to the corpus of the trusts created for the benefit of my son and daughter and their issue under Items VII and VIII of this my Last Will and Testament.

ITEM VI.

After the establishment of the Marital Deduction Trust, my Executors are then directed to distribute to the National Bank of Commerce in Memphis, as Trustee, to hold in trust for the benefit of my wife, CLOTILDA MITCHENER DUPRE, twenty-five per cent (25%) of my adjusted gross estate before the payment of federal estate and state inheritance taxes, said trust to be referred to hereafter as the Clotilda Mitchener DuPre Trust. The Trustee of the Clotilda Mitchener DuPre Trust is hereby directed to administer the Clotilda Mitchener DuPre Trust in the following manner:

1. The Trustee is directed to pay all expenses incurred in the management of the trust estate out of the income thereof.

2. As long as my wife is receiving any benefits from the Marital Deduction Trust established under Item V of this my Last Will and Testament, the Trustee has the discretion to accumulate the net income of the Clotilda Mitchener DuPre Trust. Said accumulated income shall be added to and become a part of the corpus of the Clotilda Mitchener DuPre Trust and may be invested and reinvested by the Trustee in the exercise of its sound discretion. If prior to the death of my wife, the Marital Deduction Trust is exhausted, the Trustee is directed to pay the net income of the Clotilda Mitchener DuPre Trust at convenient intervals, monthly, quarterly, but not less often than annually to my wife, for and during the period of her natural life.

THIS IS PAGE FIVE OF MY LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

3. In the event the corpus of the Marital Deduction Trust created under Item V of my Will is exhausted, the Trustee is empowered to encroach upon the corpus of the Clotilda Mitchener DuPre Trust in the event that the Trustee in its sole discretion deems it necessary for the maintenance and support of my wife, and especially in the event of illness, injury or sickness or other emergency needs requiring extraordinary expenditures which cannot be paid by my wife from the income of this trust and other sources available to her.

4. Upon the death of my wife, the Clotilda Mitchener DuPre Trust shall terminate and the corpus and accumulated income, if any, shall be divided equally between the trusts created for the benefit of my son and daughter and their issue under Items VII and VIII of this my Last Will and Testament and shall be held and distributed in accordance withthe provisions thereof.

ITEM VII.

After my Executor has distributed the assets specified for the creation of the Marital Deduction Trust and the Clotilda Mitchener DuPre Trust as specified in Items V and VI, my Executors are then directed to pay from the remaining portion of the residue of my estate all of the federal estate and state inheritance taxes which may be due on my estate. After the payment of all federal estate and state inheritance taxes, the payment of my personal debts and the distribution of my personal effects, I hereby direct that the remaining portion of the residue of my estate shall be divided into two equal shares, hereinafter designated as Share No. 1 and Share No. 2. These two shares shall be held in trust for the purposes hereinafter stated by the Trustee hereinafter named, and thereafter shall constitute and be administered as separate trusts. My Trustee is not required to make separate division of trust property, except when necessary for the purpose of distribution as hereinafter provided, but may in its discretion keep the trust property in one or more consolidated funds or properties, and as to each consolidated fund or property, the division into the various shares comprising such fund or property need be made only on the Trustee's books of account in which each share shall be allotted its proportionate part of principal and income of the fund and properties and charged with the proportionate part of the expense thereof.

I hereby give, devise and bequeath Share No. 1 to the National Bank of Commerce in Memphis as Trustee for the establishment of a trust for the benefit of my son, JOHN ANDERSON DUPRE, JR., and his issue as hereinafter provided. The Trustee of said trust is directed to administer said trust in accordance with the following provisions:

a. Disposition of Income

The Trustee shall pay all of the net income from said trust to my son, JOHN ANDERSON DUPRE, JR., during his lifetime annually or at more frequent intervals if so directed by my son.

b. Power of Encroachment

c. Additions to the Trust

The Trustee of the trust established for the benefit of my son shall have the power to accept other gifts, grants, legacies, devises or distributions to be added to this trust established for the benefit of my son subject to the terms and conditions of this trust.

d. Death of My Son, JOHN ANDERSON DUPRE, JR.

Upon the death of my son, if he survives me or if he has predeceased me, the corpus and accumulated income, if any, remaining in the trust established for the benefit of my son shall be divided into equal shares in order to provide one share for each of my son's children and my son's spouse. In the event one or more of my son's children shall predecease my son leaving surviving issue, said issue shall be collectively entitled to their deceased parent's share. Each share shall thereafter constitute and be administered as a separate trust. The Trustee shall not be required to make physical division of the trust property except when necessary for the purpose of distribution as hereafter provided, but may, in its discretion, keep the trusts in one or more consolidated funds, and as to each consolidated fund, the division into the various shares comprising said fund need be made only on the Trustee's books of account in which each trust shall be allotted its proportionate part of the principal and income of the fund and charged with its proportionate part of the expense thereof. (1). Disposition of Income

The Trustee shall pay all of the net income from said trusts to the beneficiary thereof annually or at more frequent intervals if so requested by the beneficiary.

(4). Termination of the Trusts

(a). The trust established under this item of my Last Will and Testament wherein my son's spouse is designated as beneficiary shall terminate at her death and the corpus and accumulated income, if any, shall be divided equally amongst my son's issue per stirpes, but becoming part of any then existing trust created by my Last Will and Testament wherein said issue is a beneficiary of said trust.

(b). The trusts established for the benefit of surviving issue of children of my son who predeceased my son shall terminate as each of said beneficiaries reaches the age of twenty-one

(e). My Trustee may in its sole and absolute discretion terminate any trust created under Item VII of this my Last Will and Testament when in its opinion the principal amount does not warrant the cost of continuing said trust or its administration would otherwise be impractical.

(f). In any event, all the trusts created under Item VII of this my Last Will and Testament shall terminate no later than twenty-one years after the death of the last child of my son who was alive at the time of my death, or the death of my son whichever event last occurs.

(g). If at the time the trusts established under

Item VIII of this my Last Will and Testament terminate there are no surviving issue of my daughter, the corpus and accumulated income remaining in said trust or trusts shall be added to and become a part of the trusts established for the benefit of my son and his issue under Item VII of this my Last Will and Testament.

ITEM IX.

In the event my wife, Clotilda Mitchener Dupre, predeceases me, after the payment of all my debts, the payment of all federal estate and state inheritance taxes, and the distribution of my personal effects, all the rest and residue of my estate shall be distributed in accordance with Items VII and VIII of my Last Will and Testament.

ITEM X.

My Executors and the Trustee of the trusts herein established and any successor trustee shall have, possess and exercise the following specific powers in addition to any and all powers provided by law or elsewhere in this Will without the necessity of procuring any judicial authorization thereof or approval thereof, provided, however, that no power shall be exercised in such a manner that it would disqulify my estate from obtaining a marital deduction for federal estate tax purposes in respect to the Marital Deduction Trust herein established:

(1). To make payments from this trust for the use and benefit of any beneficiary rather than directly to such beneficiary regardless of any existing disability. In the case of a minor beneficiary or remainderman, my Trustee is authorized to make payments or distributions to the parent of any minor beneficiary or remainderman, directly to the minor beneficiary or remainderman, to the suppliers of any minor beneficiary or remainderman, or any educational institution where any minor beneficiary or remainderman may be enrolled and a receipt from any of the foregoing parties will acquit my Trustee of any further liability or obligation.

(2). To collect all income, rents and profits from the trust corpus and to pay all necessary expenses incident to the management and preservation thereof.

(3). To rent or lease any of the properties embraced within the trust upon such terms and for such periods of time as my Trustee deems advisable, even extending beyond the terms of this trust to be binding upon the remaindermen.

(4). To renew any mortgage or encumbrance existing on trust property when it comes into the hands of the Trustee and to create new encumbrances on trust property by mortgage, trust deed, pledge or otherwise, for the ultimate protection of the trust corpus and as the judgment of my Trustee dictates advisable.

(5). To determine whether or to what extent receipts should be deemed income or principal, whether or to what extent expenditures should be charged against principal or income, and what other adjustments should be made between principal or income by following generally accepted trust accounting principles as the same shall exist from time to time and in all instances in which such principles do not resolve questions relating to principal and income, to determine the same in its discretion with due regard for the interests of the surviving spouse; and all persons, firms and corporations dealing with my Trustee are excused from seeing to the proper application of any money or properties paid or delivered to my Trustee.

(6). To make division, allotment and distribution of income, principal or corpus to legatees, beneficiaries, distributees and remaindermen, wholly or partly in cash or kind; and in any such division, allotment or distribution by Trustee's valuation of shares shall be final and determinative.

(7). To vote in person or by proxy any shares of stock held in the trust corpus at any meeting, regular or special; to agree or disagree to, and to subscribe to and pay out of the trust estate any money which may be required in connection with a reorganization, recapitalization, merger or consolidation; or to agree or disagree to any liquidation or exchange of securities for other securities, whether such other securities be legal investments for a trustee or not; and generally, to exercise in respect to any securities held in the trust the same rights and powers as are or may be lawfully exercised by persons owning similar property in their own right.

(8). To contract for life insurance policies that are payable to this trust, and to pay the premiums on said policies from the income accruing to this trust; to accept any assignment of life insurance policies that may previously have been contracted for by me or by any other person, and pay the premiums accruing thereon subsequent to such assignment, provided this trust, my estate or a beneficiary or one of the remaindermen of this trust is the beneficiary thereof, or that the said policies are on the life of a beneficiary or one of the remaindermen of this trust, regardless of who the beneficiary of said policies may be.

(9). To loan funds at any time to the credit of the trust estate to any person, firm, corporation, trust or estate upon the security of such property, stock, bonds or otherwise, in such manner and upon such terms as to the Trustee may deem advisable, notwithstanding that such collateral or security may not be of the character designated by the laws of the State of Tennessee as legal investments for trust funds.

(10). To renew, assign, alter, extend, contest, sue upon, defend, compromise, release, with or without consideration, or submit to arbitration, obligations or claims (including taxes), held by or asserted against the Trustee which affect the estate, trust assets or the Trustee.

THIS IS PAGE FOURTEEN OF MY LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

(11). To maintain insurance, make alterations, repairs on, additions to and erect improvements on any property of the trust estate. The Trustee may rebuild or not in the event of fire or other casualty, and may tear down and rebuild or not on account of any improvements, being in a dangerous condition or on account of obsolescence or unsuitableness. The Trustee may exercise all such different and additional powers requisite or convenient in the intelligent administering of real property forming a part of the trust estate.

(12). To pay taxes of any kind properly assessed against the income or corpus or the transfer thereof.

(13). To employ such agents and attorneys as are usual or reasonably necessary in the management and protection of the trust estate, or for the other like purposes in connection therewith, and their compensation, as well as the reasonable and proper expenditures made or incurred by the Trustee in administering the trust, shall be charged against the trust estate.

(14). To borrow money, without personal liability, for any purpose for the benefit of the trust estate, including the continuing of any business as aforesaid, to secure the same by pledge, mortgage or hypothecation of any part of the trust estate, and to sell property to the trust estate or repay the same, and to renew any indebtedness incurred by me or by my Executors for the benefit of my estate or my Trustee.

(15). No purchaser, mortgagee, pledgee or lessee shall be bound or concerned to see to the application of any consideration paid for any conveyance, mortgage, pledge, disposition or lease of any property, real or personal.

(16). The Trustee may transfer, sell, assign, or exchange any asset or part of any asset, constituting a part or all of the corpus of this trust for capital stock, bonds, notes or securities of any corporation, either now existing or hereafter formed, and whether or not this trust owns all or part of any stock in said corporation now or hereafter; and the Trustee is fully authorized to vote, to give proxies to vote said stock, and to exercise all rights, powers or privileges given, granted or attaching to any stock, bonds, notes or securities so received or exchanged.

(17). Except as otherwise provided in this Will, to continue and carry on any business which I may own at the time of my death or to participate in any business in which I may have an interest as either partner or stockholder and to hold and retain intact any other investment which I might have at the time of my death.

(18). To retain and hold in unchanged form any security investment or other property, real or personal, originally coming into their hands, regardless of any legal or statutory requirements to the contrary.

(19). For convenience of administration or investment, the Trustee may hold the several trusts or shares as a common fund, dividing the income proportionately among them, assign undivided interests to the several trusts or shares, and make joint investments of the funds belonging to them to the extent that the Trustee deems the same in the interest of the respective trust estates and the beneficiaries thereunder. For such purposes and to the extent that the Trustee deems the same in the interests of the respective trust estates and the beneficiaries hereunder, the Trustee may consolidate any separate trust or share with any other trust or trusts with substantially similar provisions for the same beneficiary or beneficiaries created by me or any member of my family by Will or agreement, and may hold, administer and invest the several trusts as one or more common fund or funds and make joint or several distributions of income and principal thereof, whichever the Trustee deems advisable.

(20). My Trustee may do all the acts which, in its judgment, may be necessary or desirable for the proper and advantageous management and distribution of this trust estate.

(21). My Trustee is specifically authorized and empowered to loan money to the estate of my wife, or to purchase from the estate of my wife any stocks, bonds, securities or other property, either real property or personal property, irrespective of whether or not such property is a proper investment under any statute or law and irrespective of whether or not such property is income producing; and the Trustee shall incur no responsibility or liability for any loss resulting to the trust estate from any such purchase or from the retention of any asset so acquired.

(22). I relieve my Trustee from the obligation of giving bond or other security for the performance of its duties as such.

ITEM XI.

The interest of the beneficiaries and remaindermen in the trusts established herein shall not be subject to any assignment, and the beneficiaries and remaindermen are restrained from selling, transferring, assigning, hypothecating or otherwise disposing of the income or principal from these trusts before it comes into their hands.
