LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF DAVID BUTTROSS

I, DAVID BUTTROSS, being of sound and disposing mind and above the age of twenty-one years, hereby make and publish this my Last Will and Testament.

I.

I hereby desire that all the just debts which I owe at my death shall be paid thereafter as soon as possible.

II.

I hereby bequeath and devise all of my property, both personal, real and mixed to Joseph Buttross, David Buttross, Jr., and my wife, Freada Buttross, as Trustees, to be held under the terms, conditions and provisions of said trust as hereinafter set out in this Will.

III.

I hereby direct and devise that the income from the said property which has been devised and bequeathed to said Trustees above mentioned, shall be paid over to and be the property of my wife, Mrs. Freada Buttross, to be used as she desires and wishes, without any accounting whatsoever and without any restrictions, and she shall use the same so long as she shall live. It is the intention of this will that she shall be paid the income from said property and not have a vested right in said property so bequeathed and devised to said Trustees, except in her capacity as Trustee as above mentioned.

IV.

I hereby direct and request that at any time during the life time of my wife, Freada Buttross, that the said income from the property held by the Trustees, shall be insufficient in their judgment for her needs and maintenance, that they are hereby authorized to advance to her an amount each month necessary for her support and maintenance, which said amount is chargeable against the income received from the said trust estate and payable back to the said Trustees when in their judgment she is fully able to pay the same from said income without inconvenience to her maintenance and support.

David Buttross

V.

I hereby authorize and direct that the said Trustees shall have the power at any time during said trust estate to sell any of the property, both real and personal, when in their judgment it would be to the advantage of said Trusteeship, and the principal realized from the sale of said property shall be invested in other property, either real or personal, which the said Trustees shall think best in their judgment.

VI.

I hereby direct and bequeath that after the death of my wife, Freada Buttross, the said Trusteeship shall cease and all of the property then in the hands of said Trustees I devise and bequeath to my eight children, or heirs of their bodies then living.

17 185

VII.

I hereby direct and urge the Trustees herein not to speculate with the funds so left to them and that they are not to make extraordinary profits from said estate, but are especially directed when they so invest, to do so in a conservative manner and not to invest all of the funds in any particular object or kind of investment, and not to try to earn with said funds any speculative income from said property held by the Trusteeship.

VIII.

It is my intention and desire that nothing contained in this will shall operate in any way to limit or restrict the full benefits of the marital deductions to which my wife would otherwise be entitled under the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and any provision which is inconsistent therewith shall be void and my trustee is hereby directed to administer this will in accordance with provisions which will allow the full marital deduction, should my said trustee deem it advisable.

IX.

I hereby appoint Joseph Buttross executor under this will without bond, without inventory and without accounting to any court. In case of the death of Joseph Buttross I hereby appoint Edward Buttross under the same terms and conditions, as executor.

X.

In the event of the death of any of the Trustees appointed herein, either prior to my death or afterwards, the other Trustees so remaining shall continue to operate as said Trustees

Lazzi Buttross

And I hereby appoint My Son Edward L. Buttross under the same terms and conditions as executor without any other additions or appointments.

Lazzi Buttross

XI.

The said Trustees herein shall not be required to make any inventory, accounting or bond to any court in regard to the said Trusteeship.

XII.

The Trustees appointed herein shall serve without any compensation for performing their duties as set out in this will.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have this day executed and published the above and foregoing as my Last Will and Testament, and have caused the same to be signed in my hand writing, this the 7th day of February, 1964.
