S. Garrett, son, Katherine Garrett Dampeer, daughter, both over the age of twenty-one years, and myself. The said three heirs owned a one-third of one-half interest in said property and the remaining one-half interest was owned by me. I now dispose of said property as follows:

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
VELMA WARE JACKSON

15.705-

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN:

I, Velma Ware Jackson, being now of adult age and of sound and disposing mind and memory and being conscious of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do hereby make, publish and declare the following as my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils by me at any time heretofore made:

I. I desire that all of my just debts, funeral expenses and the expenses of an administration upon my estate be paid as speedily as possible. I desire that my debts be paid by the sale of my property so that my insurance policies in which my mother is beneficiary, shall be released to her without loss or impairment.

II. My furniture bought at Hardin-Furr & Woodruff (placed in the living room and hall entrance), I will and bequeath unto my sister, Robertha Ware Turner. This includes also the china, crystal, rug, sectional furniture, six chairs, breakfront console with glass, plus the four tables for lamps and round table and the lamps.

III. I direct that my executor sell my 1955 Special Buick automobile and the proceeds therefrom, I will and bequeath unto my mother and father, or the survivor of them.

IV. I will and devise my one-half interest in the town lot in Forest, Mississippi to my father, Jim Ware. This lot adjoins the place of my mother and father in the City of Forest.

V. I will and bequeath my jewelry unto my sister, Robertha Ware.

VI. I will and bequeath my clothes unto my aunt, Mayles Neal, and to my mother, Lilla D. Ware, to be divided between them in such manner as they may agree upon.

VII. My ten acre tract of land in Scott County, Mississippi, I will and devise unto my sister, Robertha Ware Turner, subject, however, to the payment of my debts, funeral expenses and administration expenses, as the residue of my estate is insufficient therefor.

VIII. I hereby will and bequeath my State Teachers Retirement benefits to my mother and father, share and share alike.

IX. I also will and bequeath unto my mother, Lilla B. Ware, the floor furnace which I purchased from Halimon Appliance, together with my set of Rogers silver given to me by the County Teachers and also the back porch set; and I also will and bequeath to her the heaters in the living room, kitchen, bathroom, den and bedroom and my draperies and blinds.

X. I also will and bequeath unto my mother, Lilla B. Ware, all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate.

XI. After the death of my mother, all of the property willed, devised and bequeathed to her in this will, which she may not have disposed of, shall go to my sister, Robertha Ware Turner.

XII. I nominate and appoint O. B. Triplett, Jr. as executor of my last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, Velma Ware Jackson, have to this my last will and testament, consisting of two sheets of paper, subscribed my name on this 29 day of August, 1956.

ESTATE OF JAMES W. BREWER, DEC'D.

DECREE ADMITTING WILL TO PROBATE

This day came on for hearing the above styled and numbered matter on petition for probate of will signed and verified by Louise M. Brewer, on the last will and testament of James W. Brewer, on testimony of Faye Fortenberry and Abbie M. Gober, witnesses to said will, said testimony being duly transcribed signed and sworn to by said witnesses, and it appearing to the Court the Court does find the following facts, to-wit:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter and of the parties herein involved; and

That James W. Brewer, husband of Louise M. Brewer, died in Canton, Madison County, Mississippi on the 5th day of May, 1957 while having a fixed place of residence in said county; and that he died leaving a last will and testament dated January 9, 1957; and that said will was duly signed, published and declared by him as his last will and testament on said date in the presence of Faye Fortenberry and Abbie M. Gober who subscribed their names to said will as witnesses thereto at the request of said testator in his presence and in the presence of each other on the day and year of the date of said instrument; and that at the time said testator signed and executed said will he was of sound mind and disposing memory and more than twenty-one years of age; and that said will was presented for probate and filed with said petition; and

That the said James W. Brewer died seized and possessed of real and personal estate consisting chiefly of shoe repair equipment and a homestead and a one-half interest in that he left no debts of any consequence and that all the debts which he did leave have been paid; and that there is no need for administration of this estate, and that the said will should be admitted to probate as a muniment of title.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that said will be and is hereby admitted to probate as the last will and testament of James W. Brewer and no further administration of said estate is required.

Ordered, adjudged and decreed this the 24 day of May, 1957.
