 W. A. SIMS
 COUNTY CLERK
 Fulton County, Georgia

STATE OF GEORGIA,
 COUNTY OF FULTON.

I, BEN H. WALLACE, of said State and County, do make this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills at any time heretofore made by me.

ITEM ONE

I desire that all just debts be paid by my Executor, including expenses of administration, together with all Federal Estate taxes and estate inheritance taxes (if any) including such taxes on proceeds of life insurance not controlled by the provisions of this will, as soon after my death as may be consistent with the best interest of my estate.

ITEM TWO

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Laura Mae Wallace, all of my household furniture and furnishings, clothing, jewelry and all other like personal effects and any automobile that I may own at the time of my death. I further give and bequeath to my beloved wife all United States Savings and War Bonds standing either in my name or in our joint names that I may own at the time of my death.

ITEM THREE

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Laura Mae Wallace, the sum of Twelve Thousand Five Hundred ($12,500.00) Dollars in cash; and to my brothers, Robert W. Wallace, of Memphis, Tennessee, and George C. Wallace, of Jackson, Mississippi, each the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars in cash. In the event one or both of my brothers should be deceased at the time of my death, his or their legacies herein made shall lapse and become a part of my general estate.

ITEM FOUR

I give and bequeath the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars to my Secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Jones, if she is living and in my employ at the time of my death. I wish that she may help my Executor in preparing inventories and otherwise assist my Executor in marshaling the assets of my estate.

Ben H. Wallace

ITEM FIVE

I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate and property of every kind and nature, real, personal, choses in action and other things, wheresoever situate, which I shall own or to which I shall have any right, title, interest or claim, at the time of my death, unto First National Bank of Atlanta, in trust, nevertheless, for the uses and purposes hereinafter set forth and for the full term of the natural life of my wife, Laura Mae Wallace, and then in further trust to marshal, divide and distribute the said estate as hereinafter provided.

ITEM SIX

I give and bequeath all of the net income from my estate to my wife, Laura Mae Wallace, during the term of her natural life. My said Trustee is authorized and directed to pay the same to her in monthly installments as nearly as possible and to furnish her at least annually with statements of assets comprising the corpus of my estate and also a statement of receipts and disbursements at least once a year. If at any time, in the judgment of my Trustee, the net income shall not be sufficient to provide for the comfortable living of my said wife in the style to which she is accustomed, or shall not be sufficient to provide for any emergency which may affect my wife by reason of sickness, accident, or other like cause, then the Trustee is authorized and directed to encroach upon the corpus of my estate to make up any deficiency.

The bequests and provisions herein made for my wife, Laura Mae Wallace, are made in lieu of dower, year's support, or other provisions of law which now or hereafter may be of force.

ITEM SEVEN

After the death of my said wife and after the payment of all expenses of her last illness and burial, the Trustee shall marshal, divide and distribute the remainder of my estate equally, per capita and not per stirpes, among my eight nieces and nephews, to-wit: Emily Wallace Avent, Diana Wallace Crump, May Wisdom Wallace, Adine Wallace Dalrymple, W. Carroll Latimer, May Latimer Wyatt, Asbury C. Latimer and Frances Latimer Essell, share and share alike. In the event that any one or more of my said nieces and nephews shall be deceased at the time of distribution herein provided for, leaving a child or children then surviving, such surviving child or children shall represent and take the share or shares that the parent would have taken. In the event any one or more of my said nieces and nephews shall be deceased at the time of distribution herein provided for, leaving no child or children then in life, the residue of my estate shall be divided and distributed among my nieces and nephews then in life and children of deceased nieces and nephews then in life, as herein specified.

Laura M. Wallace

ITEM EIGHT

I hereby appoint First National Bank of Atlanta as Executor of this will and relieve such Executor from giving bond and from filing any inventory or appraisal of my estate and from making any returns or reports to any court.

ITEM NINE

I give to the First National Bank of Atlanta, acting either as Executor or as Trustee, authority to sell, exchange, mortgage and dispose of all or any part of the property held by it at any time, either together or in parcels, at public or private sales, for cash or on terms, and in such manner in all respects as it shall deem proper, including the right to lease for any term, irrespective of the period of trust, and for such purpose to execute and deliver all such deeds, assignments, leases, assurances and instruments as it shall deem fit. I further confer upon the said Executor and Trustee authority to invest and reinvest all sums of money coming into its possession, according to its absolute discretion, in such loans, stocks, bonds, securities or real estate as it shall deem for the best interest of my estate, irrespective of any statute or rule of law now or hereafter in force, limiting the class of investment for trust companies or trustees generally, with the right to retain by way of investment any property coming to them from my estate without liability for depreciation in value. In the management of said property and in the sale, investment and reinvestment thereof, the said Trustee and Executor shall not be required to report to, or secure the approval or consent of any court, or to make any annual or other returns to any court, but it shall furnish an annual statement of its condition to the beneficiaries named herein.

John H. Wallace

ARTICLE

I name James Walter Mason to act as legal adviser in all matters herein, as well as to advise the Executor and Trustee as its counsel and attorney, as he is familiar with my desires as to the disposition of my properties under this will. In the event my said named legal adviser cannot act, or should at any time be unable to act as such, I name my nephew, Arthur G. Latimer, as counsel and attorney for the Executor and Trustee of my estate.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 26th day of February, 1970.

C. # 11932

IN THE MATTER OF THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT AND ESTATE OF BEN H. WALLACE, DECEASED

DECREE GRANTING PROBATE OF LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF BEN H. WALLACE, DECEASED, UPON AUTHENTICATED
COPIES OF SAID WILL AND PROCEEDINGS FOR THE PROBATE AND RECORD THEREOF HERETOFORE HAD IN THE COURT OF ORDINARY OF FULTON COUNTY, GEORGIA, AND GRANTING LET-TERS TESTAMENTARY THEREON IN THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI.

THIS CAUSE COMING ON TO BE HEARD by the Court before the Chancellor in Vacation upon the Petition, duly verified and filed, of The First National Bank of Atlanta, a duly organized and qualified national banking corporation whose post office address is Post Office Box 4148, Atlanta 2, Georgia, acting herein by and through A. C.
Latimer, its duly authorized attorney, and Fay E. Mewborn, its duly authorized and qualified trust officer, for the probate and record in the State of Mississippi of the Last Will and Testament of Ben H. Wallace, deceased, (late a resident of Atlanta, Georgia), upon authenticated copies thereof and of proceedings for the probate and record thereof heretofore had in Cause No. 59215 in the Court of Ordinary of Fulton County, in the State of Georgia, and for the grant of Letters Testamentary upon said Will and Estate of said decedent in the State of Mississippi unto the said The First National Bank of Atlanta as Executor, all duly authenticated in accordance with the statutes of the State of Mississippi and under Act of Congress of the United States of America, and herein duly filed and presented unto the Court; and upon the evidence offered and submitted in support of the aforesaid Petition and upon the entire record herein;

And the Court having now taken, read, filed and maturely considered said Petition and authenticated copies of said Will and other proceedings, as above indicated; and it appearing thereat to the satisfaction of the Court, the Court does accordingly so find:

That the said Ben H. Wallace died testate on the 2nd day of December, 1958 in the City of Atlanta, Georgia, having at the time of his death his legal domicile and fixed place of residence at #198 Ponce de Leon Avenue, N. E., in the City of Atlanta, Fulton County, Georgia.

That he left a Last Will and Testament duly signed and attested bearing date the 26th day of February, 1954, with Sarah J. Murphy, Frances P. Bankston and William L. Mewbourne as attesting and subscribing witnesses thereto.

That said Last Will and Testament of said decedent has been duly proven in solemn form and admitted to probate and record in the State of Georgia by Order and Decree of the Honorable Eugene Gunby, Judge of the Court of Ordinary, of Fulton County, Georgia, rendered December 16, 1958 in Cause or Estate No. 59215 of said Court, and now appears of record in Book No. 32 at page 136 of the Records of said Court.

That those therein named are all and the only persons and/or organizations in anywise interested in and entitled to participate in the assets of the Estate of said decedent under and subject to the terms of said Will, and all assented to the probate thereof; and that said decedent was not survived by any child nor children, nor other descendants, pretermitted by said Will nor otherwise.

That said decedent left an estate having its Situs in the Counties of Adams, Jefferson Davis, Jones, Madison and Wayne in the State of Mississippi of the description and reasonable value as set forth in said Petition, and no other Estate nor other assets whatsoever in the State of Mississippi, other than as therein shown, so far as said petitioner has as yet been able to ascertain and to the best of its information, knowledge and belief.

That said petitioner, The First National Bank of Atlanta, has heretofore, by said Decree of said Court of Ordinary, been duly appointed and has duly qualified as, and is still, the duly appointed, qualified and acting Executor of said Will and Estate in the State of Georgia without requirement of bond, inventory, appraisement and accountability to any court as directed by the terms of said Will and Decree; that it is in all respects competent and qualified and is willing to act in such capacity in and under the statutes of the State of Mississippi, and that it is proper that it likewise be appointed and duly qualified as such Executor of said Will and Estate in the State of Mississippi; said Petitioner as Executor, and as Trustee under the Will of said decedent, being nevertheless amenable and accountable to the Court of Ordinary of Fulton County, Georgia for all assets of said Estate of every nature and wheresoever situate which may come into its hands and under its control as such Executor and Trustee, should the necessity therefor arise, for the protection of the interest of the beneficiaries under, and notwithstanding the provisions of, the Will of said decedent.

That it is necessary and proper that the aforesaid Last Will and Testament of the said Ben H. Wallace, deceased, upon the duly authenticated copy thereof and of the proceedings and decrees admitting the same to probate and record in the Court of Ordinary of Fulton County, Georgia, be likewise admitted to probate and record in the State of Mississippi, pursuant to these proceedings in this Court, as a muniment of title to any and all property and estate belonging to said decedent wheresoever situate in the State of Mississippi, and in order that an orderly administration upon the Estate of said decedent in the State of Mississippi may be had to such extent as may be necessary, and in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Will of said decedent.

It further appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that said instrument of writing, signed by the said Ben H. Wallace, bearing date the 26th day of February, 1954 and purporting and alleged to be the true and original Last Will and Testament of said decedent, was duly signed, published and declared by said testator to be his Last Will and Testament, and duly witnessed, all in manner and form as required by the statutes of the State of Mississippi.

And the Court being now fully advised in the premises, being satisfied therefrom that the allegations set forth and contained in said Petition are true and correct as therein stated, and that the Petitioner is entitled to the relief as therein prayed;

IT IS THEREUPON CONSIDERED AND SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court:

That, upon the duly authenticated copy thereof, and of the proceedings and decrees had and rendered for the probate and recordation thereof in the aforesaid Cause or Estate No. 59215 in the Court of Ordinary of Fulton County, Georgia, said instrument of writing bearing date the 26th day of February, 1954, consisting of four (4) sheets of typewritten paper, all duly signed by Ben H. Wallace, and signed and attested by Sarah J. Murphy, Frances P. Bankston and William J. Mewbourne as attesting and subscribing witnesses thereto, and purporting and alleged to be the Last Will and Testament of the said Ben H. Wallace, deceased, be, and the same is hereby adjudicated to be, and is hereby admitted to probate and record in Adams County, Mississippi, in the State of Mississippi, as and for the true and original Last Will and Testament of said decedent, Ben H. Wallace, deceased.

And said Petitioner, The First National Bank of Atlanta, acting by and through its duly authorized trust officer, Fay E. Mewborn, having taken, subscribed and filed herein its Oath as Executor as required by law, it is further Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed that said Petitioner, The First National Bank of Atlanta, be, and it is hereby, designated and appointed as Executor of said Will and Estate of Ben H. Wallace, deceased, and that Letters Testamentary thereof issue unto said Petitioner as such Executor of said Will and Estate in the State of Mississippi, and that the same be duly recorded; and that, in accordance with the terms, provisions and directions of the Will of said decedent, the giving of bond as such Executor and the making and filing of inventory and appraisement and of any accountability to this Court be and the same are hereby waived and dispensed with until and unless for any just cause the same may, in the discretion of the Court, later be required.

And it is further ordered and directed that thereupon, when so recorded in the Will Records of Adams County, Mississippi, that copies of the record of said Last Will and Testament of Ben H. Wallace, deceased, and of this Decree of this Court admitting the same to probate and record in Adams County, Mississippi, be duly authenticated and certified by the Clerk of this Court, and that such certified copies of said Last Will and Testament and of this Decree admitting the same to probate and record in the State of Mississippi, be likewise recorded in the Records of Wills in the offices of the Clerks of the Chancery Courts of Jefferson Davis, Jones, Madison and Wayne Counties in the State of Mississippi, and in any other Counties, if any, in the State of Mississippi wherein said decedent may have or be discovered to have died seized or possessed of any estate, real, personal or mixed, situate in such Counties.

THUS CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court by its Chancellor in Vacation on this the 19 day of April, A. D. 1960.

I, Grady Jerry Sowell, of Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound mind and disposing memory and over the age of twenty-one years, do make, declare, and publish the following as my Last Will and Testament, revoking all others that I have heretofore made:

CLAUSE I: I give, bequeath, and devise unto my beloved wife, Mary Belle Sowell, all property real, personal, and mixed and of whatsoever nature and kind and wheresoever located, that I may own at the time of my death; except so much of said property as my said wife may not have sold or otherwise disposed of during her lifetime and which she may own at the time of her death shall on her death go equally to my children, Larry Wade Sowell, John Wayman Sowell, Jerry Dean Sowell, Mary Jane Sowell, and James Leslie Sowell, or such of them as may survive my said wife.

Nothing in this clause shall be construed as limiting the use of said property by my said wife or her right to mortgage, sell, convey or otherwise dispose of the full or fee title to same during her lifetime.

CLAUSE II: Should my wife, Mary Belle Sowell, not survive me, then I give, bequeath, and devise all property real, personal and mixed, and of whatsoever nature and kind, and wheresoever located, that I may own at the time of my death, to my children Larry Wade Sowell, John Wayman Sowell, Jerry Dean Sowell, Mary Jane Sowell, and James Leslie Sowell, or such of them as may survive me, share and share alike.

CLAUSE III: Should any of my children that may share under this will be indebted to me at the time of my death for any sums of money heretofore or hereafter expended for or advanced to such child or children, other than in the usual and normal care, maintenance, and support of such child or children, then the share of such child or children so indebted to me shall be subject to and chargeable with the payment to my estate of the amount due on such indebtedness.

CLAUSE IV: In the event that any person who would otherwise have been entitled under Clause I or Clause II above to a share of my estate shall not have attained his or her legal majority, then I give, devise, and bequeath the share to which such person would have been so otherwise entitled unto Mary Belle Sowell, if she be living, or if she be dead unto Larry Wade Sowell, hereinafter called my trustee, in trust for the use and benefit of such person, and said property and the income therefrom, shall be known as and referred to herein as the trust fund, and my trustee is authorized and empowered to use and expend so much of said trust fund as he/^{or she}may deem necessary or desirable for the care, maintenance, and education of such person during his or her minority, and when such person shall have attained his or her legal majority, to pay over and transfer to him or her absolutely the balance of said trust fund, but in the event that such person shall die without having attained his or her legal majority, to divide, pay over, and transfer said trust fund to the person or persons who would be legally entitled to the same; I hereby authorize and empower my trustee to sell at public or private sale, lease, mortgage, and encumber any portion or all of the estate real or personal which he/^{or she}may hold under the trust hereby created, and to execute and deliver good and sufficient deeds and other instruments to convey, mortgage, and transfer the same or for any such purpose, and my trustee is authorized and empowered to convert and reinvest as he or she deems best and desirable any, or all, of the property of said trust fund, and upon any and all sales by my trustee the purchasers shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, and it is my desire and intention for my trustee to manage, control, and invest said trust fund as he or she deems best and proper, and I direct that no bond be required of said trustee and that he or she not be required to account to any court.

If Agnes does not want some of these things, she may leave them with Ellen where she stays, or take with them.

Said principal amount with such increment as Trustee may be able to obtain through interest on investments in governmental securities shall be held intact until Joseph Allen LaCour III shall graduate from high-school, or attain the age of eighteen (18) years, whichever is earlier; whereupon the trust shall terminate and the full amount in the Trustee's hand shall be paid over to the said Joseph Allen LaCour III; PROVIDED, if for statutory or other reasons a guardianship would in such event be necessary, then the trust shall not terminate, but the Trustee shall continue to function, but shall have authority to make disbursements from said trust fund from time to time and in such amounts as she deems proper for the support, education and/or maintenance of said beneficiary. Should the beneficiary die before the termination of the trust, then the corpus thereof shall go to his mother, if she survives him. In the event of her death, resignation or inability to act, then the Judge presiding over that Court in the County or Parish where said beneficiary is resident, which has jurisdiction over minor's affairs, shall appoint a successor Trustee. Should the said Trustee predecease the beneficiary, and should he then die before said trust is terminated, the trust fund shall go to the heirs at law, if any, of Joseph Allen LaCour, Jr., and Paul Anderson LaCour.

To my son, Joseph Allen LaCour, Jr., I bequeath all stock owned by me in the corporation of J. A. LaCour and Company, domiciled in Madison County, Mississippi.

To my two sons, Joseph Allen LaCour, Jr., and Paul Anderson LaCour, I bequeath my stock in Pascagoula Hardwood Company, Laurel, Mississippi, in equal shares, that is, one-half (1/2) to Joseph Allen LaCour, Jr., and one-half (1/2) to Paul Anderson LaCour.

Page 2, Last Will and Testament of Joseph Allen LaCour.

Last Will and Testament

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That I, Kate McMurphy Edwards, a resident of Madison County, Mississippi, above the age of twenty-one years and of sound, disposing mind and memory do hereby make, publish and declare this, my Last Will and Testament, hereby specifically revoking any and all other instruments of like nature and codicils thereto heretofore made, or purporting to have been made, by me.

ITEM I

If my husband survives me as much as six months, my Executor shall ascertain the value of my adjusted gross estate, as defined by the Internal Revenue Code at the date I sign this will. From one-half of the value of my adjusted gross estate the Executor shall deduct a sum equal to the value of all assets included in my gross estate for Federal Estate tax purposes passed to my husband either under other items of this will, or from insurance policies on my life, or from money otherwise than through my estate, in such manner as to qualify for the marital deduction. Thereupon my Executor shall deliver to Clyde Edwards, as Trustee of my Marital Deduction Trust hereinafter provided for, assets which will equal in value the remainder resulting from said calculation; provided, however, the assets delivered to the Marital Deduction Trust shall consist of, and shall not exceed the value of, assets which are eligible for the marital deduction. All valuations shall be adjusted to those used in my estate tax returns, and if subsequent changes are made therein, the Executor shall add to or take from the Marital Deduction Trust sufficient assets to conform to such changes in the estate tax valuations.

I specifically direct that the residence property at 137 East Center Street, in City of Canton, be included in the Marital Deduction Trust.

ITEM II

The Trustee shall hold such assets, invest and re-invest them, and dispose of the net income and principal, as follows:-

(a) The Trustee shall pay all the net income, from the date of my death, at semi-annual or more frequent intervals, to my husband for and during his life.

(b) Whenever in the sole judgment of the Trustee, the said income being paid to my husband, taken together with any other income or periodic payments known to the Trustee that are being received by him, shall be insufficient for his proper support, comfort, and maintenance, in enabling him to meet any difficulty arising from sickness, accident or other similar cause, such portion of the principal as in the Trustee's discretion is deemed appropriate, shall be paid to him for the above purposes.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision herein, my husband shall have the power, by his will, to appoint all of the assets remaining in this Marital Deduction Trust at the date of his death, which power may be exercised in favor of his own estate, or of any other person whomsoever, and the Trustee shall deliver such assets pursuant to his exercise of said power of appointment.

(d) Any assets remaining in this Marital Deduction Trust, at the death of my husband, and as to which he does not exercise said power of appointment, shall be added to and become a part of the trust created by the next item of this will.

ITEM III

All taxes which may be assessed against my estate, all debts, and all expenses of administration, shall be paid from my estate remaining after deduction of the Marital Deduction Trust.

Kate McMurphy Edwards

No life insurance company and no beneficiary (other than my estate) of any policy or policies of insurance on my life, nor of any specific legacies or bequests, nor of any jointly owned assets, shall be required to pay or contribute to the payment of, or reimburse the Executor for the payment for, any Federal or Estate taxes imposed because of my death.

My Executor shall deliver all assets thereafter remaining to Frederick H. Edwards, as Trustee of my Remainder Trust, who shall hold such assets, invest and re-invest them, and dispose of the net income and principal as follows:-

(a) The net income shall be paid to my husband, Dr. Isaac Edwards, for and during his life.

(b) Upon the death of my husband, the entire corpus of the trust shall be divided equally between my three sons, Clyde Edwards, Fred Edwards and Ike Edwards, but upon the following basis, so far as may be possible, taken in conjunction with any appointment by my husband of assets which may remain in the Marital Deduction Trust;

(1) The residence property at 137 East Center Street, in the City of Canton, shall be conveyed to Clyde Edwards; and in addition thereto $15,000.00;

(2) The property adjacent to the Country Club, on Highway No. 16, East of Canton, shall be conveyed to Frederick Edwards;

(3) Bonds to the cash value of $30,000.00 shall be assigned and delivered to Ike Edwards.

(4) These bequests are made on valuations hereby established by me as giving to each of my sons $30,000.00 in value. Should the above bequests under this trust not exhaust all remaining assets, then any remaining assets over and above the $90,000.00 (as above fixed) shall be divided between said sons, share and share alike. Should the assets so to be divided not be constituted as above contemplated, or if the value should not aggregate $90,000.00 then, as first hereinabove stated, all assets of the Remainder Trust shall be divided equally between said sons.

Frederick H. Edwards

(c) If any of said sons has deceased prior to the death of my said husband, the deceased child's share of the trust established under this item of the will shall be paid to the heirs of such child at the time of the termination of this trust. If any such son should die leaving no heirs, his share of this trust shall go to the remaining beneficiaries thereof. All such heirs shall be counted per stirpes and not per capita.

(d) Should my husband survive me, but die within six months following my death, then my entire estate shall be divided, is hereby devised, and shall be conveyed to my sons, or their respective heirs, as provided in sub-paragraph (b) of this item.

ITEM IV

In the event either Trustee above named should refuse to act, or, after qualifying as Trustee, should resign, die, or become incapable of acting, then I appoint as his first successor Ike M. Edwards. In the event such named successor should decline, resign, die or become unable to act, then the Chancellor of the Chancery Court of Madison County, Mississippi, shall be and is hereby authorized to appoint a successor Trustee, and this power may be exercised as many times thereafter as may become necessary.

ITEM V

Any Trustee acting hereunder shall have the following rights, powers, privileges, duties and exemptions:

- (a) He may not sell or encumber any real estate.
- (b) Otherwise, he may do all things which in his discretion may be necessary or proper to protect and preserve the trust estate or any part thereof.

Kate M. Murphy Edwards

(c) He may improve or repair real estate, out of the income of the corpus of the Marital Deduction Trust (when dealing with property occupied by my husband in his lifetime) and out of the corpus of the Remainder Trust, when dealing with other real property.

(d) In his discretion, he may sell any cattle and other personal property not required by my husband, in the Marital Deduction Trust. Cash coming into either trust in any way, including maturity of bonds and other securities, shall be re-invested in such securities as under the law are subject to investment by Guardians and other legal representatives acting in Court.

(e) He may operate or lease any real property; provided, that my husband's wishes shall be paramount and controlling in all matters affecting the residence property.

ITEM VI

I hereby appoint my son, Ike Edwards, as Executor of this, my Last Will and Testament.

ITEM VII

Both the Executor and the Trustees are relieved from giving bond as such. They, while acting, shall not be relieved of making such reports as may be required by the Court or as may be in writing requested by the beneficiary or beneficiaries of either trust; provided, no report may be thus demanded oftener than semi-annually.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have fixed my signature this 31 day of December, 1953, in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, who have signed as such at my special instance and request, in my presence and in the presence of each other.
