LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, George Heindl, Sr., being of sound and disposing mind and more than twenty-one years of age do make this my last will and testament and do hereby revoke all prior testamentary documents.

First - I nominate and appoint my son, George Heindl, Jr., as executor of this my last will and testament, and I direct that no bond be required of him and that he be excused from reporting to the court.

Second - I do hereby will, devise and bequeath unto Alma K. Heindl, my wife, all of my property, both real, personal, mixed or of whatever nature and wheresoever situated to use and enjoy said property during her lifetime. And she shall have the right and power to sell, mortgage and dispose of any and all of said property as she may desire and the right to execute all instruments necessary to carry out these powers.

Third - At the death of my said wife, all of said properties which may still belong to her shall vest in and belong to my son, George Heindl, Jr.

Witness my signature this the 16th day of October, 1956.

George Heindl, Sr.
George Heindl, Sr.

Signed, published and declared by George Heindl, Sr. as and for his Last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, who in his presence and at his request and in the presence of one another, have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses.

This the 16th day of October, 1956.
