Last Will and Testament

I, GRAHAM M. MOORE, of Canton, Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and over the age of 21 years, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I

I direct that all of my just debts as probated against my estate, and all funeral and last illness expenses be paid as soon after my death as conveniently can be done. Also, I direct that only a modest and reasonable amount be spent on my funeral.

ARTICLE II

I devise and bequeath unto my wife, Mrs. Velma M. Moore, my residence lot and homestead and all of my household furniture and effects and jewelry and all other articles of household or personal property on the condition that during her lifetime she have the complete and absolute power to dispose of any of this personal property at any time but that on her death all of this personal property remaining and the residence lot and homestead shall become the property of and the title shall vest in my daughter, Mrs. Patricia Moore Wells. During her lifetime should my wife, Mrs. Velma M. Moore, vacate the residence to live elsewhere, then the residence and lot shall become a portion of the properties as contemplated under Article VI hereinafter following.

ARTICLE III

I bequeath unto my daughter, Sister Mary Lucian Moore, CSC, the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), sincerely believing that she will be amply provided for during her lifetime. Should she become needy and wanting of material goods, then I hereby appeal to the other devisee and legatee named in Article VI herein to furnish her from the assets of my estate with such reasonable sums as may be necessary in order that her needs may be fulfilled.

ARTICLE IV

I bequeath unto my grandchildren, Rebecca Wells and Max M. Wells, the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each.

ARTICLE V

I own certain insurance policies and a pension trust plan under which I have made a designation of beneficiaries providing thereby for my wife, Mrs. Velma M. Moore, and my sister, Mrs.

Fannie Moore Vaughn of Yakima, Washington, and my two grandchildren, Rebecca Wells and Maxwell M. Wells.

ARTICLE VI

All the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real, personal and mixed, of whatsoever kind and nature and wheresoever situated, including lapsed legacies and bequests of which I shall die seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death or over which I shall have any power of appointment, I do hereby give, devise and bequeath to within named joint executors of this my last will and testament, namely, my daughter, Mrs. Patricia Moore Wells, and her husband, Dr. Mitchell M. Wells, to exercise the control herein set out during the period of the probate of this will, and to exercise the said control as Trustees following the conclusion of the probate of this will, intending that this provision in no way interferes with normal and proper probate of the will. They are to have absolute power of disposition of these properties, including, but not limited to, the power to lease any properties for oil, gas and other mineral exploration, on any terms and conditions, and to serve in these capacities without being required to make bond or to account to any court for their action, and should either of them fail, refuse or be unable to so serve, then the survivor or remainder of them shall have the full powers herein granted. The income from these properties as so devised and bequeathed shall be paid by the executors and/or trustees to my wife, Mrs. Velma M. Moore, during the period of her lifetime, and at her death this trust and all of its powers and authority shall cease and the title to all of the property so devised and bequeathed by this Article shall vest in and be owned absolutely by Mrs. Patricia Moore Wells, my daughter.

ARTICLE VII

I appoint my daughter, Mrs. Patricia Moore Wells, and her husband, Dr. Mitchell M. Wells, as the joint executors of this my last will and testament, in which capacity they are to serve without being required to make bond or to account to any Court. Should either of them fail, refuse or be unable to so serve then the survivor or remainder of them shall have the full powers herein granted to so serve alone. My executors and trustees, as herein named, shall be paid a fair and reasonable fee for the services they render in performing these appointed tasks.

I devise and bequeath all my residuary estate, being all property, wherever situated, in which I may have any interest at the time of my death not otherwise effectively disposed of, but not including any property over which I may have power of appointment, to my wife and THE NORTHERN TRUST COMPANY, Chicago, Illinois, as trustees upon the following trust:

1. The trustees may in their discretion pay to or use for the benefit of my wife and my descendants so much of the income and principal as the corporate trustee from time to time determines to be required, in addition to their respective incomes from all other sources known to the trustees for the reasonable support and comfort of my wife and the reasonable support, comfort and education of my descendants, adding any excess income to principal at the discretion of the trustees. The trustees may pay the same to or use it for the benefit of one or more of them to the exclusion of one or more of them, and may completely exhaust the principal, my concern being primarily for the support and comfort of my wife and the support, comfort and education of my descendants rather than the preservation of principal for distribution upon termination of the trust.

2. Upon the death of the survivor of my wife, my daughter, and me, the trustee shall divide the trust property, as then constituted, into separate trusts, equal in value, one for each then living child of my daughter and one for the then living descendants, collectively, of each deceased child of my daughter. The trustee shall distribute each trust set aside for the descendants of a deceased child of my daughter to such descendants, per stirpes. Each trust set aside for a living child of my daughter shall be held and disposed of as follows:

(a) (i) While any child of my daughter is under the age of twenty-one years, the trustee shall use for his benefit so much of the income of his trust as the trustee determines to be required, in addition to his other income from all sources known to the trustee, for his reasonable support, comfort and education, adding any excess income to principal at the discretion of the trustee. After he reaches that age, the trustee shall pay all the current net income of his trust to him in convenient installments at least as often as quarter-annually.

(ii) Whenever the trustee determines that the income of any child of my daughter from all sources known to the trustee is not sufficient for his reasonable support, comfort and education, and that of his immediate family, the trustee may pay to him, or use for his benefit, so much of the principal of his trust as the trustee determines to be required for those purposes.

(b) When any child of my daughter shall have reached the age of fifty years, the trustee shall distribute to him the principal of his trust.

(c) Upon the death of any child of my daughter, prior to distribution of his trust, the trustee shall distribute his trust, as then constituted, to his then living descendants, per stirpes, or if there are none, to my then living descendants, per stirpes; except that the share of any beneficiary for whose primary benefit another trust is then to be held under this instrument shall be added to and commingled with the other trust and held, or partly held and partly distributed, as if it had been an original part of the other trust.

3. In the event that my daughter shall leave no descendants her surviving, then upon the death of the survivor of my wife, my daughter, and me, the trustee shall pay over the principal of the trust and all accrued and undistributed income thereof in accordance with the provisions of this will governing the distribution of my residuary estate in the event my wife and daughter predecease me and I shall leave no descendants surviving me.

ARTICLE VII

1. If any beneficiary to whom the trustee is directed in a preceding provision to distribute any share of trust principal is under the age of twenty-one years when the distribution is to be made, and if no other trust is then to be held under this instrument for his primary benefit, his share shall vest in interest in him indefeasibly, but the trustee may in its discretion continue to hold it as a separate trust for such period of time as the trustee deems advisable but not after the time the beneficiary reaches that age, in the meantime using for his benefit so much of the income and principal as the trustee determines to be required, in addition to his other income from all sources known to the trustee for his reasonable support, comfort and education, and adding any excess income to principal at the discretion of the trustee.

2. (a) If at any time any beneficiary to whom the trustees are directed in this instrument to pay any income is under legal disability or is in the opinion of the trustees incapable of properly managing his affairs, the trustees may use such income for his support and comfort.

(b) Upon the death of any beneficiary, any accrued or undistributed income shall be held and accounted for, or distributed, in the same manner as if it had been received and accrued after the beneficiary's death.

3. The trustees either may expend directly any income or principal which they are authorized in this instrument to use for the benefit of any person, or may pay it over to him or for his use to his parent or guardian, or to any person with whom he is residing, without responsibility for its expenditure.

4. No interest under this instrument shall be transferable or assignable by any beneficiary, or be subject during his life to the claims of his creditors.

5. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the trusts under this instrument shall terminate not later than twenty-one years after the death of the last survivor of my wife and my descendants living on the date of my death, at the end of which period the trustee shall distribute each remaining portion of the trust property to the beneficiary or beneficiaries, at that time, of the current income thereof, and if there is more than one beneficiary, in the proportions in which they are beneficiaries.

6. If, at any time, a trust created hereunder shall, in the sole judgment of the trustees, be of the aggregate principal value of $10,000 or less, the trustees may, but need not, terminate such trust and distribute the assets thereof in the trustees' possession to the beneficiary or beneficiaries, at that time, of the current income thereof, and if there is more than one beneficiary, in the proportions in which they are beneficiaries.

ARTICLE VIII

1. The trustees shall have the following powers, and any others that may be granted by law, with respect to each trust hereunder, to be exercised as the trustees in their discretion determine to be to the best interests of the beneficiaries:

(a) To retain any property or undivided interests in property received from my estate or from any other source, including residential property, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk, or non-productivity;

(b) To invest and reinvest the trust estate in any property or undivided interests in property, wherever located, including bonds, notes secured, or unsecured, stocks of corporations regardless of class, real estate or any interest in real estate, and interests in trusts, including common trust funds, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by trustees;

(c) To sell any trust property, for cash or on credit, at public or private sales; to exchange any trust property for other property; to grant options to purchase or acquire any trust property; and to determine the prices and terms of sales, exchanges, and options;

(d) To operate, maintain, repair, rehabilitate, alter, improve or remove any improvements on real estate; to make leases and subleases for terms of any length, even though the terms may extend beyond the termination of the trust; to subdivide real estate; to grant easements, give consents and make contracts relating to real estate or its use; to release or dedicate any interest in real estate;

(e) To borrow money for any purpose, either from the banking department of the co-trustee, or from others, and to mortgage or pledge any trust property;

(f) To employ attorneys, auditors, depositaries, proxies and agents, with or without discretionary powers; and to keep any property in the name of a trustee or a nominee, with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship, or in bearer form;

(g) To determine the manner of ascertainment of income and principal, and the allocations or apportionment between income and principal of all receipts and disbursements. The trustees may at any time or times charge all or any part of the trustees' regular annual compensation against the principal, regardless of any rule of law or statute to the contrary;

(h) To take any action with respect to conserving or realizing upon the value of any trust property, and with respect to foreclosures, reorganizations or other changes affecting the trust property; to collect, pay, contest, compromise or abandon demands of or against the trust estate, wherever situated; and to execute contracts, notes, conveyances and other instruments, including instruments containing covenants and warranties binding upon and creating a charge against the trust estate, and containing provisions excluding personal liability;

(i) To receive additional property from any source and add it to and commingle it with the trust estate;

(j) To enter into any transaction authorized by this Article with trustees, executors or administrators of other trusts or estates in which any beneficiary hereunder has any interest, even though any such trustee or representative is also a trustee hereunder; and in any such transaction to purchase property, or make loans on notes secured by property, even though similar or identical property constitutes all or a large proportion of the balance of the trust estate, and to retain any such property or note with the same freedom as if it had been an original part of the trust estate;

(k) To make any distribution or division of the trust property in cash or in kind or both, and to continue to exercise any powers and discretion hereunder for a reasonable period after the termination of the trust, but only for so long as no rule of law relating to perpetuities would be violated;

(l) To allocate different kinds or disproportionate shares of property or undivided interests in property among the beneficiaries or trusts, and to determine the value of any such property. The trustees may make joint investments of funds in such trusts, and may hold the several trusts as a common fund dividing the net income therefrom among the beneficiaries of the several trusts proportionately;

(m) To establish out of income and credit to principal reasonable reserves for the depreciation of tangible property.

2. (a) To the extent that any such requirements can legally be waived, no trustee shall ever be required to give any bond as trustee; to qualify before, be appointed or in the absence of breach of trust account to any court; or to obtain the order or approval of any court in the exercise of any power or discretion hereunder.

(b) No person paying money or delivering any property to any trustee need see to its application.

(c) Any trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for services in administering and distributing the trust property, and to reimbursement for expenses.

(d) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this will, the trustees may rely upon any notice, certificate, affidavit, letter, telegram or other paper or document believed by them to be genuine, or upon any evidence deemed by them to be sufficient, in making any payment or distribution hereunder. The trustees shall incur no liability for any payment or distribution made in good faith and without actual notice or knowledge of a changed condition or status affecting any person's interest in the trust.

ARTICLE IX

Any trustee at any time acting hereunder may resign at any time by written notice to the co-trustee, or if there be none, to the adult beneficiary or beneficiaries who are or in the Trustees' discretion may be, then entitled to the income from the trust (or, if none, to the parent, guardian, or conservator of any income beneficiary of the trust who is under disability). In the event of the death, resignation, refusal or inability of my wife to act as co-trustee hereunder, then I nominate and appoint my daughter as successor co-trustee. In the event of the death, resignation, refusal or inability of my daughter to act as successor co-trustee, then THE NORTHERN TRUST COMPANY shall become sole trustee. In the event of the resignation, refusal or inability of THE NORTHERN TRUST COMPANY to act as co-trustee or trustee as the case may be, then the adult beneficiary or a majority in interest of the adult beneficiaries, as the case may be (or if none, such parent, guardian or conservator) may appoint a successor trustee to administer the trust; provided, however, that any successor in trust to THE NORTHERN TRUST COMPANY shall be a bank or trust company doing business in Chicago, Illinois, and having a capital and surplus of not less than Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000). Any successor trustee shall be clothed and vested with all the duties, rights, titles and powers whether discretionary or otherwise, as if originally named as trustee. No successor trustee shall be personally liable for any act or failure to act of any predecessor trustee, and with the approval of the person or persons appointing him to it, the successor trustee may accept the account rendered and the property delivered to him or it by the predecessor trustee as a full and complete discharge to the predecessor trustee without incurring any liability for so doing.

ARTICLE X

In the event my wife and daughter predecease me and I shall leave no descendants surviving me, then the trust provided for in Article VI hereof shall not be created and I direct that my residuary estate be distributed as follows:

1. I direct my executor to pay to my sister, JEANNETTE L. MURRAY, at St. Paul, Minnesota the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000), said amount to be in addition to the bequest to my sister contained in Article V hereof.

2. The balance of my residuary estate shall be divided equally between CHRIST CHURCH, Winnetka, Illinois and EVANSTON HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION, Evanston, Illinois.

ARTICLE XI

In the event that my wife shall renounce the benefits conferred upon her by this will, my remaining estate after my wife shall have taken her statutory share thereof, shall be distributed in the manner that it would have been distributed by the provisions hereof if my wife had predeceased me.

ARTICLE XII

If at the time of my death I have an interest in a contract of sale of certain property located in Tucson, Pima County, Arizona, it is my wish that the trustees and executor hereunder continue to hold said contract, collecting the principal and interest payments thereon until fully paid and to consult with my friend, H. WALDO MURPHY, Tucson, Arizona, concerning any matters related to said contract.

If at the time of my death I own an interest in the "QUARTER CIRCLE W. CATTLE CO." partnership, Phoenix, Maricopa County, Arizona, it is my wish that the trustees and executor hereunder consult with O'MALLEY INVESTMENT AND REALTY CO., Phoenix, Arizona, or my friend, THEODORE REHM, Scottsdale, Arizona, concerning its disposition.

ARTICLE XIII

1. (a) I appoint THE NORTHERN TRUST COMPANY, Chicago, Illinois, as executor of this will, with all the powers and discretion with respect to my estate during administration that the trustees hereunder are given with respect to the trust property (including the power to sell real or personal property at public or private sales for any purpose and to hold title to property in the name of a nominee), to be exercised without court order.

(b) Any corporate successor to the trust business of my executor, or of any corporate trustee named herein or acting hereunder, shall become executor or trustee, or both, as the case may be, in place of its predecessor, without the necessity of any conveyance or transfer.

2. (a) If my executor joins with my wife on my behalf in filing income tax returns, or consents for gift tax purposes to having gifts made by either of us during my life considered as made one-half by each of us, any resulting liability shall be borne by my estate, except such portion as my executor and my wife agree should be borne by my wife, and my estate shall exonerate my executor from personal liability therefor.

(b) My executor may make such elections under the tax laws applicable to my estate as may be deemed expedient and desirable. No compensating adjustments between principal and income, nor with respect to any bequest or devise hereunder, shall be made by my executor even though the elections so made may substantially affect (beneficially or adversely) the interests of the various beneficiaries in the principal or income of my estate. The action of my executor with respect to elections made shall be conclusive and binding upon all beneficiaries.

(c) I hereby recommend that my executor and trustees select and retain THOMAS J. BOODELL of Chicago, Illinois as attorney in connection with the legal matters involving the settlement of my estate and the conduct of the trust created hereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this, my Last Will and Testament, consisting of nineteen (19) pages, the following page included, at the foot of each of which, except this page, I have signed my initials this 29 day of October, A.D. 1963.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, SARAH RAY FREILER, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and a resident of Clearwater, Florida, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament as to property owned by me in the State of Mississippi, expressly revoking all other wills and codicils thereto heretofore made by me affecting said property.

ITEM I: I request that all of my just and lawful debts including all funeral expenses be paid as soon after my death as can be done conveniently.

ITEM II: All of my estate in the State of Mississippi, real, personal and mixed, I give, devise and bequeath unto Canton Exchange Bank of Canton, Mississippi, and S. R. Cain, Jr., Trustees, in trust for the use and benefit of my daughter, Josephine Ray Freiler. This trust shall be known as the SARAH RAY FREILER TRUST. The Trustees, in their discretion alone, shall expend the income and any part of the corpus they deem wise for the welfare of said Josephine Ray Freiler and especially for her care, upkeep, medical expenses, dental expenses, surgical expenses, if any, college education, and other expenses as the Trustees deem proper. The Trustees may, in their discretion, take out a policy or policies of medical, surgical and hospitalization insurance on said beneficiary, if possible, and said Trustees may, in their discretion, maintain any policies of insurance in effect at the time of my death covering said beneficiary.

ITEM III: The beneficiary of this trust shall not have the right, power or authority to anticipate any payments of income or corpus from this trust fund, nor shall she have the power or authority to pledge, appoint or create any lien or encumbrance against, sell, transfer, assign, convey, or otherwise dispose of any part of the income or corpus of this trust fund until the same has been delivered unto her by the Trustees, freed from the terms and conditions of this trust, nor shall any part of said income or corpus of said trust fund be liable for the debts of said beneficiary or be subject to execution, attachment, garnishment, or other process of law or equity while in the hands of the Trustees, however, said beneficiary may make disposition of her interest in the trust property in her last will and testament.

ITEM IV: This trust shall exist until Josephine Ray Freiler attains the age of thirty (30) years, at which time all of the properties in the trust estate shall be delivered to Josephine Ray Freiler, free and clear of this trust agreement. Should the said Josephine Ray Freiler predecease me or die without bodily issue, then, in either of these events, I give, devise and bequeath all property owned by me in the State of Mississippi at the time of my death to my mother, Mrs. Josephine D. Ray, if living, and if not, then to the heirs at law of said Josephine D. Ray.

ITEM V: After she reaches the age of thirty (30) years, my daughter, Josephine Ray Freiler, is hereby vested with full authority to use and dispose of any or all of said property during her lifetime, as she may see fit, including, but not limited to, the right to execute deeds, mortgages, oil, gas and mineral leases, division orders, and any other instruments incidental to the use or sale thereof or any part thereof or interest therein, and to treat said property in all respects as if the same were owned by her in fee simple, and any transaction made by or with her shall be as final as if she owned said property in fee simple.

ITEM VI: In addition to the power, privileges, titles and obligations heretofore vested in the Executors and Trustees, said Executors and Trustees shall be vested with the following power, privileges, title and obligations, to-wit:

1. To retain any property of my estate, or any undivided interest therein, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk, or non-productivity;

2. To invest and reinvest the trust estate in any property or undivided interests therein, wherever located, including bonds, notes (secured or unsecured), stocks of corporations, real estate or any interest therein and interests in trust, including common trust funds, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by trustees;

3. To sell any trust property for cash or on credit, at public or private sale; to exchange any trust property for other property; to grant options to purchase or acquire any trust property; and to determine the prices and terms of sales, exchanges and options;

4. To execute leases and sub-leases for terms as long as fifty (50) years, even though such terms may extend beyond the termination of the trust; to subdivide or improve real estate and tear down or alter improvements; to grant easements, to give consents and make contracts relating to real estate or its use; and to release or dedicate any interest in real estate;

5. To borrow money from time to time and for any such purpose to mortgage or pledge any trust property;

6. To take any action with respect to conserving or realizing upon the value of any trust property, and with respect to foreclosures, reorganizations or other changes affecting the trust property, to collect, pay, contest, compromise or abandon demands of or against the trust estate, wherever situated; and to execute contracts, notes, conveyances and other instruments, including instruments containing covenants and warranties binding upon and creating a charge against the trust estate, and containing provisions excluding personal liability;

7. To keep any property in the name of a nominee with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship;

8. To employ agents, attorneys, auditors, depositaries and proxies, with or without discretionary powers;

9. To determine the manner of ascertainment of [illegible] and the apportionment between income and principal of [illegible] and to select any accounting period;

10. To receive additional property from any source and add it to and commingle it with the trust estate;

11. To enter into any transaction authorized by this item with Trustees or legal representatives of any other trust or estate in which any beneficiary hereunder has any beneficial interest, even though any such trustee or legal representative is also trustee hereunder;

12. To make any distribution or division of the trust property in cash or in kind or both, and to allot different kinds or disproportionate shares of property or undivided interests in property among the beneficiaries or portions, and to determine the value of any such property; and to continue to exercise any powers and discretion herein given for a reasonable period after the termination of the trust but only for so long as no rule of law relating to perpetuities would be violated;

13. To exercise any or all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, privileges, elections and options pertaining to any such property, and to grant proxies, discretionary or otherwise, in respect thereof; and to receive and retain any property that may be acquired by it as the result of the exercise of any such rights, privileges, elections or options;

14. To extend the time of payment of any obligations, including accrued or accruing interest, held by it hereunder;

15. To make partition, division or distribution of property in kind and, for any such purpose, to determine the value of any such property;

16. To execute oil, gas and mineral leases, royalty and mineral deeds or other contracts and agreements pertaining to minerals or royalties, covering or pertaining to any trust property on such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable, even though such terms may extend beyond the termination of this trust;

17. To perform any and all such other acts and to take any and all such other proceedings, and to exercise all such other rights and privileges in respect of any property as if it were the absolute owner thereof and, in connection therewith, to enter into any and all agreements binding my estate or any trust hereunder.

ITEM VII: I hereby designate Canton Exchange Bank of Canton, Mississippi, and S. R. Cain, Jr., as Executors of this will, with all the powers and discretion with respect to my estate during the administration thereof that are herein given to the Trustees with respect to the trust property (including the power to sell real or personal property at public or private sale), to be exercised without court order.

To the extent that such requirement can be legally waived, neither the Trustees nor the Executors shall ever be required to give any bond to serve in such capacities and such Trustees and Executors shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of the court to exercise any power or discretion herein given.

The Trustees shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for services in administering and distributing the trust property and to reimbursement for expenses.

If, for any cause, either of the Trustees of Executors herein named fail, refuse or neglect to qualify as Executor or to act as Trustee, or die during the administration of said trust, then and in that event, the other party will serve as sole Executor or Trustee, with the same powers and authorities hereinbefore granted to the Trustees and Executors.

In the event of a merger of the Canton Exchange Bank of Canton, Mississippi, then, in that event, the successor bank shall serve in lieu of said Canton Exchange Bank.

ITEM VIII: My husband, Amos Kent Freiler, is expressly not mentioned as a beneficiary in this will, since the community property laws of the State of Florida enable him to share in property owned by me in that state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto affixed my signature on this the 4 day of June 1964.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Brinkley G. Bushmiaer, being an adult citizen of Madison County, Mississippi, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore by me made.

I

I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter, Patricia Bushmiaer Sievers of O'Fallon, Illinois, all of my right, title and interests in and to any lands which are situated in the State of Louisiana.

II

I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Vonnie P. Bushmiaer, all of my lands and real property and all of my interests in lands and real property which are situated in Madison and Hinds Counties, Mississippi, if she survive me, inasmuch as we have worked together to acquire these properties.

III

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever kind and nature and wheresoever situated, of which I shall die seized or possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death or over which I shall have any power of appointment, after providing for payment of all debts, administrative costs and estate taxes, I give, devise and bequeath unto my said wife and my said daughter, share and share alike.

IV

In the event that my said wife should predecease me, I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter, Patricia Bushmiaer Sievers, and my stepdaughter, Helen Rebecca Corkern, all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal, or mixed, of whatsoever kind and nature and wheresoever situated, of which I shall die seized or possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death or over which I shall have any power of appointment, share and share alike.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

#19-647

WE, HERBERT L. WEISENBERGER AND THERESA ELIZABETH McGRAW WEISENBERGER, husband and wife, both being over the age of twenty one years, and of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby constitute, make, publish and declare this to be our joint and mutual Last Will and Testament, hereby expressly revoking all wills and codicils heretofore made by us, or either of us, jointly or severally, as follows, to-wit:

I

It is our joint will that the just debts and funeral expenses of the one who predeceases the other, and be fully paid out of the estate of the predeceassor.

II

It is our joint will that the survivor of us, HERBERT L. WEISENBERGER OR THERESA ELIZABETH McGRAW WEISENBERGER, shall be executor or executrix, as the case may be, of this will and shall not be required to give bond, or to account to any court.

III

We will and direct that the survivor of us be appointed general guardian of the persons and estates of any of our children who shall be minors at the time of the death of the predeceasor as between us.

IV

We give, devise and bequeath unto the survivor of us, HERBERT L. WEISENBERGER OR THERESA ELIZABETH McGRAW WEISENBERGER, as the case may be, all of our property, real, personal and mixed, for the sole use and benefit of the survivor of us to hold absolutely in fee simple forever. In other words, if HERBERT L. WEISENBERGER survives THERESA ELIZABETH McGRAW WEISENBERGER, then in that event all of the property of THERESA ELIZABETH McGRAW WEISENBERGER shall vest in and become the property of HERBERT L. WEISENBERGER, and if THERESA ELIZABETH McGRAW WEISENBERGER shall survive HERBERT L. WEISENBERGER, then in that event the property of HERBERT L. WEISENBERGER shall vest in and become the property of THERESA ELIZABETH McGRAW WEISENBERGER.

In making this disposition of our property, we are not unmindful of our duty to our children SARA JOSEPHINE WEISENBERGER, THOMAS PETER WEISENBERGER AND WILLIAM LOUIS WEISENBERGER but we each do hereby express the utmost confidence in each other and sincerely believe that the survivor of us will properly and adequately care for our said children, and that the disposition of our estates as herein provided will better promote and insure the welfare of such living children.

In the event that our deaths should occur simultaneously, or under circumstances causing doubt as to which of us survived the other, then and only then do we will, devise and bequeath all of our property, real, personal and mixed unto SARA JOSEPHINE WEISENBERGER, THOMAS PETER WEISENBERGER AND WILLIAM LOUIS WEISENBERGER, jointly in equal parts, share and share alike. In such event we do hereby appoint HUGH McGRAW as Executor of this our joint Last Will and Testament, and we do hereby appoint MRS. THERESA McGRAW as general guardian of the persons and estates of our children who shall be minors at the time of our deaths.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, WE HEREBERT L. WEISENBERGER AND THERESA ELIZABETH McGRAW WEISENBERGER, husband and wife, and joint testators, hereunto set our hands to this our joint Last Will and Testament on this the 16th day of January, 1964.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, H. M. Terry, M. D. of Goodman, Holmes County, Mississippi, being over twenty one years of age and of sound, disposing mind, memory and understanding, realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, desiring during my lifetime to dispose of all my worldly goods, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

I hereby name, constitute and appoint my son, Hal M. Terry, Jr., as executor of this will, having special confidence in his honesty and integrity I hereby relieve him of the necessity of making any bond as such executor and of ever making any report of any kind to any Court.

2.

I hereby will, bequeath and devise unto my wife, Mrs. Lois Hall Terry, the homeplace which we occupy as a homestead in Goodman, Holmes County, Mississippi. I hereby request her, however, that such part of such homestead as may remain at her death, she will to my children, share and share alike. This is purely a request and is not intended to restrict her in the use, occupancy and disposal of said property. I also leave to her my automobile.

3.

Such household furnishings as I may have at my death, I hereby will, bequeath and devise unto my wife aforesaid.

4.

CODICIL TO THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF H. M. TERRY, M. D.

I, H. M. Terry, M. D. of Goodman, Holmes County, Mississippi, being over 21 years of age and of sound, disposing mind, memory, and understanding, do hereby make, publish, and declare this as Codicil No. 1 to my Last Will and Testament, executed at Kosciusko, Mississippi, dated the 13th day of August, 1957, and witnessed by James T. Crawley and Katherine Jenkins.

(a.) Under paragraph numbered 8 of my original Last Will and Testament, I willed, bequeathed, and devised to my daughter, Mrs. Elsie Jean Taylor, the NE 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of Section 14, Township 12, Range 4, Attala County, Mississippi. This was in error, and I desire to change said Paragraph 8 to read as follows:

I hereby will, bequeath, and devise unto my son, Hal M. Terry, Jr., the NE 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of Section 14, Township 12, Range 4, Attala County, Mississippi.

(b.) I further will, bequeath, and devise unto my son, Hal M. Terry, Jr. the old farm bell, located at my home in Goodman, Holmes County, Mississippi.

(c.) I hereby will, devise, and bequeath unto my daughter, Elsie Jean Taylor, my new saddle, blanket, bridle, said saddle having been given to me by my said daughter, Elsie Jean Taylor.

SIGNED, PUBLISHED, AND DECLARED as Codicil No. 1 to my Last Will and Testament hereinabove referred to this the 20th day of May, 1960, at Kosciusko, Mississippi.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

I, Ethel Leona Martin, being over the age of twenty-one, of sound disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other will and codicils heretofore made by me, as follows:

1.

I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my death as can be conveniently done.

2.

I hereby appoint Georgia Martin Maness as the Executrix of this, my Last Will and Testament, and direct that she serve without bond, upon taking the oath as required by law.

3.

I hereby make the following distribution of my properties and effects:

To Georgia Martin Maness, I give and bequeath all monies which I have at the time of my death, including deposits in banks and savings institutions, and including the monthly sums which I receive in the form of income from the Delos Place.

To Mildred Martin Sandidge, I give and bequeath the watch which I own.

To Mrs. (Mary) Lamar Martin, I give and bequeath the cameo broach or pin which I own.

To Beverly Martin, I give and bequeath the pearl necklace which I own.

To Teresa Sandidge, I give and bequeath the pearl pin which I own.

To Georgia Martin Maness and Mildred Martin Sandidge, I give, devise and bequeath all of the mineral interests and royalties which I own, together with all income therefrom and present and future rentals therefrom, with the request that they apply the proceeds from such mineral interests to the needs of their father in his declining years as his needs arise if such income be adequate.

I hereby give and bequeath to the named beneficiaries on any bonds which I own, the proceeds from said bonds, it being my desire that each bond which I own will become the property of the named beneficiary thereon.

In the event that Georgia Martin Maness should predecease me, then I hereby give, devise and bequeath her portion herein to Mildred Martin Sandidge.

Witness, my signature and the signature of two witnesses who have signed this will at my request and in my presence and in the presence of each other, and who have witnessed my signing of this will, this 29th day of September, [illegible]2.
