I give and bequeath the sum of Twelve Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($12,500.00) to First National Bank in Dallas as Trustee, to be held, managed and disposed of as follows:

Said fund, less the portion thereof disbursed or expended in accordance herewith, shall be kept invested by said Trustee, in a Common Trust Fund or otherwise, and the revenue therefrom shall be a part of the trust fund.

The Trustee shall pay, out of the revenue to the extent available and to the extent not available out of principal, all costs and expenses incident to the administration of the trust, including reasonable and customary compensation to itself. No bond shall be required of the Trustee.

The Trustee shall distribute, during the month of February of each year the sum of One Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($1,250.00) and during the month of August of each year the sum of One Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($1,250.00) to my brother Dorsey Hager, whose present address is 225 Hillson Drive, Salt Lake City, Utah, until the trust fund is exhausted, the final distribution to be of the amount then remaining in the trust fund if less than One Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($1,250.00), whereupon the trust shall terminate.

If my said brother should die before the termination of the trust distribution in the said amounts shall continue and be made to his widow, and if she should die before the termination of the trust to her own children living at the time of her death, in equal shares.

VII.

I give and bequeath to Virginia Dawson, of San Antonio, Texas, wife of my deceased friend Joseph M. Dawson, in token of my gratitude for the really great help he gave me when I started out on my own in the oil business, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00). If the said Virginia Dawson predeceases me, then I give and bequeath said sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) to her children, Joseph M. Dawson and Dorothy Dawson in equal shares.

I have heretofore agreed to bequeath to the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) for research, and I accordingly do give and bequeath to said American Association of Petroleum Geologists the said sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) to be used for research.

IX.

I give and bequeath to Florence Jacques Hager, of Hagerstown, Maryland, widow of my cousin Garvin Hager, an annuity policy in either Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company or New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, whichever is cheaper, to pay her Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month for her life, and I direct my executors to purchase such a policy in her name and deliver it to her. Until such policy has been procured and becomes effective I direct my executors to pay her Fifty Dollars monthly, from and after my death.

I give and bequeath to my said wife, Florine Kemp Hager, or if she does not survive me, to her son, William Kemp Clark, with the request (precatory only) that if at any time there be any such that are to be disposed of, they be given to Southern Methodist University or to the Dallas Public Library. These maps, data, files and the library should be retained and not be disposed of so long as my office is retained or they are useful to my estate.

XI.

I give, devise and bequeath to my stepson, William Kemp Clark, all mineral interests and mineral royalty interests, whether producing or nonproducing, which I may own at the time of my death, situated in the Counties of Starr and Hidalgo, or either of said Counties, in the State of Texas, and also all mineral interests and mineral royalty interests whether producing or nonproducing, owned by me at the time of my death, situated in the New Hope Area in Southeast Franklin County, Texas, being interests situated in the John Maximillian, Carter F. I have certain undivided interests in: (1) Oil, Gas and Mineral Lease made by Mrs. Maude E. Rasberry to me, recorded in Vol. 106, page 304, of the Deed Records of Foard County, Texas, and ratified by ratification made by J. B. Rasberry, Jr. et al, dated January 5, 1951, and recorded in Vol. 106, page 308, of said records, upon and covering the Southeast Quarter (SE $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Twenty-Six (26), and Four Hundred Forty (440) acres, more or less, in Section Twenty-Seven (27), all in Block "A", S.P.R.R. Co. Survey, Foard County, Texas; and (a) Oil and Gas Lease dated January 11, 1950, made by Clyde A. Bowley, et ux, to Magnolia Petroleum Company, recorded in Vol. 102, page 70, of the Deed Records of Foard County, Texas, insofar as it covers the Northwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter (NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NE $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Twenty-Seven (27), Block "A", S.P.R.R. Co. Survey, in said County. Lucerne Corporation, of Dallas, Texas, also assigned to me by assignment dated April 6, 1955, an undivided one-fourth (1/4th) interest in a certain lease acquired by it from Mrs. Maude E. Rasberry insofar as said lease covers the Northeast Quarter (NE $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Twenty-Six (26), Block "A", S.P.R.R. Co. Survey, in said County. Said interests are the community property of my wife, Florine Kemp Hager and myself.

I made a Letter Agreement with R. D. McCluer dated April 6, 1948, supplemented by Letter Agreement dated April 6, 1950, and two Letter Agreements dated December 15, 1955, under which he is entitled to ten percent (10%) of the net profits realized from said leases. Also, I made a Letter Agreement with Austin Crow dated December 10, 1952, supplemented by Letter Agreement of April 10, 1955, and by Letter Agreement dated December 17, 1955, and by a Memorandum from Austin Crow dated February 19, 1957, under which Austin Crow is entitled to one-sixteenth (1/16th) of the net profits realized from said leases.

In lieu of their respective net profits interests under the aforesaid Letter Agreements, I give, devise and bequeath to said R. D. McCLUER a one-tenth (1/10th) interest in all of our community undivided interest in said leases, and to AUSTIN CROW a one-sixteenth (1/16th) interest in all of our community undivided interest in said leases. I intend these devises to be entirely out of my community one-half (1/2), viz: to R. D. McCLUER one-fifth (1/5th) and to AUSTIN CROW one-eighth (1/8th), respectively, of my community one-half (1/2) of all our community interests in these leases. The effect of these devises, if accepted, will be to relieve my wife's community one-half (1/2) of the net profits interests, and I intend this as a bequest to her.

The devise to R. D. McCLUER and the devise to AUSTIN CROW in this Section XII of this will is in each case conditioned on the respective devisee accepting the devise in lieu of his net profits interest and releasing all further rights under the Letter Agreements above referred to, by a recordable instrument executed and delivered to my executors within sixty (60) days after notice to him of this provision of this will and its probate; and in default of such acceptance and release by either of them, the devise made to him in this Section shall be void and of no effect, this Section XII shall have no application to him, and his net profits interests shall continue in accordance with and subject to said Letter Agreements, unaffected hereby. If either the said R. D. McCLUER or the said AUSTIN CROW should predecease me, the devise made to him in this paragraph shall not lapse, but the persons then entitled to his net profits interests according to the terms of said Letter Agreements shall stand in his shoes and be substituted for him as devisees, subject to all the provisions of this Section XII.

XIII.

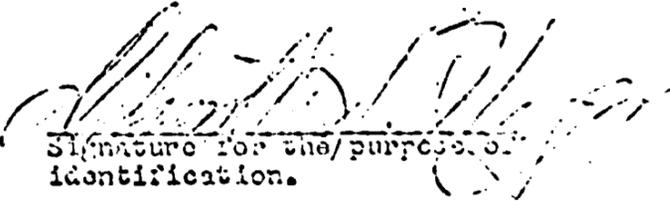

I have issued certain Letter Agreements as follows: To Austin Crow dated July 29, 1960, to Claude N. Farnett and Austin Crow dated October 3, 1963, and February 28, 1964, and to Mrs. Irma McCroney dated February 28, 1964, the provisions of which in various respects respectively became entitled to one-sixteenth (1/16th) of the net profits, as defined in said several Letter Agreements, if, as, and when realized by me from certain royalty and overriding royalty in lands, or under oil and gas leases, situated in Red River and/or Lamar Counties, Texas, described in the respective Letter Agreements, which are hereby referred to. In lieu of their respective net profits interests under said Letter Agreements, I give, devise and bequeath to each of the above named persons respectively one-sixteenth (viz., one-eighth of my community one-half) of the royalty and overriding royalty interests as to which he or she remains entitled at the time of my death to one-sixteenth of the net profits under such Letter Agreements.

The foregoing devise to said persons respectively is in each case conditioned on the respective devisee accepting the devise in lieu of his or her net profits interest and releasing all further rights under his or her said Letter Agreement(s) by a recordable instrument executed and delivered to my executors within sixty (60) days after notice to him or her of this provision of this will and its probate; and in default of such acceptance and release by either of them, the devise made to him or her in this Section shall be void and of no effect, this Section XIII shall have no application to him or her, and his or her net profits interest shall continue in accordance with and subject to said Letter Agreement or Letters Agreements, unaffected hereby. If either of the parties above named should predecease me, the devise made in this paragraph to him or her shall be of no effect and as to him or her said Letter Agreement(s) shall be unaffected hereby.

The effect of those devises, if accepted, will be to relieve my wife's community one-half of the net profits interest, and I intend this as a devise to her.

XIV.

I give, devise and bequeath to First National Bank in Dallas, as Trustee of a trust to be known as the "Leticia Ann Scannell Trust", the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), said amount to be invested and re-invested by said Trustee in such manner as it shall deem advisable, and disposed of as follows: There shall be paid to Leticia Ann Scannell the sum of Eighty Dollars ($80.00) each month during the ten years following my death, or until her death if it occurs within said ten years. Said trust shall terminate ten years after my death, or at the death of Leticia Ann Scannell if it occurs within said ten years, and at such termination the Trustee shall distribute any trust funds remaining in its hands to the person or persons who would be entitled to my residuary estate under Section XV of this will had my death occurred at the date of such termination.

I expressly authorize the Trustee of said trust to invest all or any part of any trust funds in a common trust fund as provided for by the Texas Common Trust Fund Act. No bond shall be required of the Trustee. It shall be entitled to a reasonable compensation for acting as Trustee, payable from the trust funds, and shall never be liable for any loss of or diminution in the trust property by reason of any act or omission not amounting to want of good faith.

XV.

No gifts made by me to any beneficiary herein during my life are to be considered as advancements.

XVI.

All the rest and residue of my estate (meaning all of my estate not specifically devised or bequeathed in this will or any codicil hereto) I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Florino Kemp Hager, if she survives me. If she does not survive me I give, devise and bequeath the said rest and residue of my estate to her son, William Kemp Clark, if he survives me, and if neither he nor my said wife survives me and he leaves a wife who survives me, I give, devise and bequeath the said rest and residue of my estate to said wife and his children in equal shares (said wife taking a child's part), and if neither my said wife nor her said son nor his wife survives me, then I give, devise and bequeath the said rest and residue of my estate to his children, including adopted children, if any, living at the time of my death, share and share alike. By the words "his children" I mean the class presently consisting of Elizabeth Clark, Sarah Blair Clark, Florine Clark, Blair Clark, Peter Clark and Jonathan Clark, and any other children of his, whether born to him or adopted, who may be living at the time of my death.

XVII.

In the event my wife, Florine Kemp Hager, and I die under such circumstances that the order of our deaths cannot be established by proof, or is doubtful, it shall be presumed that my wife survived me, and this will and all its provisions (including all codicils) shall be construed and applied upon that assumption and basis.

XVIII.

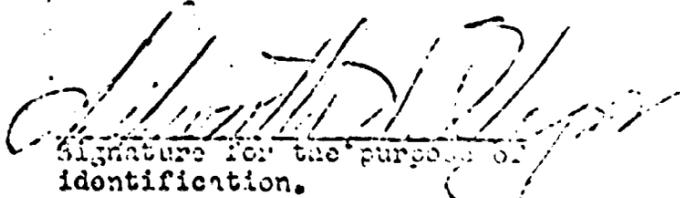

It is the intention and purpose of this will to dispose of, and it does dispose of, and the words "my estate" as herein used refer to, all of my separate property and estate and my community one-half of the community property and estate of myself and my beloved wife, Florine Kemp Hager. A considerable part of my estate was acquired by me before our marriage, or is a mutation of such property, and is accordingly my separate property. I feel that there will be no difficulty in distinguishing between what is separate and what is community property. My direction to my executors to pay out of my residuary estate all legacy, succession, inheritance and estate taxes payable in respect of my estate means such taxes as are payable after giving full effect to the maximum marital deduction permitted by law. Whatever debts I may owe at the time of my death will be community debts, and I direct that all such be paid out of our community property, one-half thereof being chargeable to my wife's community interest.

XIX.

Any beneficiary under this will who shall contest the validity of this will shall thereby abandon all claim to anything that he or she would otherwise receive under this will, and any party contesting this will shall receive under it nothing whatsoever, and all devises and bequests herein made to such party shall be null and void and of no force or effect.

XX.

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Florino Kemp Hager, and Wayland H. Sanford, of Dallas, Texas, as independent executors of my estate, and I direct that no bond or other security shall be required of them or either of them, and that they shall administer my estate free of the control of any court, and I direct that no action shall be had in the County Court or any other court in relation to the settlement of my estate other than the probating and recording of this will and the return of an inventory, appraisalment, and list of claims of my estate. In the event either of the executors hereinabove named should predecease me, or should fail or refuse to act as executor, or, after becoming such should die, resign or become disqualified to act as executor, I make, constitute and appoint Mrs. Inez McCraney, now of Dallas, Texas, as independent executor in his or her place and stead, without bond, and with the same powers as though she, the said Mrs. Inez McCraney, had been named as an original independent executor. In the event, notwithstanding the foregoing, there should at any time be less than two executors by reason of the death, resignation or failure or refusal to act of more than one of the persons above named, I make, constitute and appoint my friend Austin Crow, now of Dallas, Texas, as an independent executor, without bond, with the same powers as though he had been named as an original independent executor. I authorize and empower my executors to sell, lease, lease for oil and gas, transfer, convey and deliver and otherwise dispose of, any property, real or personal, belonging to my estate (save and except the property specifically devised and bequeathed in Sections XI, XII and XIII of this will) as they in their judgment may deem advisable. I authorize them to continue to carry on and conduct for so long and in such manner as they may deem advisable, any business or affairs in which I may be engaged or interested at the time of my death, and to make and enter into such agreements and contracts respecting property, funds or affairs of my estate as they in their discretion may see fit to make, including agreements which may continue beyond the final distribution of my estate. If my executors deem it advisable to borrow money and to mortgage or hypothecate any property belonging to my said estate (save and except the property specifically devised and bequeathed in Sections XI, XII and XIII of this will) in the course of their administration, I expressly authorize them to do so, and to pledge or assign in connection therewith future production of oil or gas, and the proceeds thereof, from the property mortgaged or hypothecated, and to make distribution of my estate subject thereto. In general I give to my executors all the powers with respect to property and funds of my estate which I might or could exercise if living, and provide that they shall never be liable to any beneficiary, legatee, devisee, or distributee, by reason of any act or omission of theirs. No purchaser or other person dealing with my said executors shall be required to inquire into the existence of debts or the reason or necessity of any sale or other action by them. I desire and direct that the specific legacies bequeathed in Sections V, VI, VII, VIII, IX and XIV of this will shall be paid as soon as practicable after my death, without awaiting the final distribution of my estate. I authorize my executors, at any time and from time to time prior to the distribution of my estate, to distribute to my beloved wife, out of income or principal of my residuary estate, such amounts as they deem requisite as an allowance for her comfort, maintenance and support.

I strongly recommend, both to my executors and my devisees, that all interests in producing oil or gas properties, whether royalties, mineral interests, or working or leasehold interests, be retained and not disposed of. I believe such retention will in the long run realize for them the maximum benefit from such properties. Particularly I urge that the properties in what is known as the Raspberry Field in Foard County, Texas, which are now being operated by Kadane Griffith Oil Company, be not disposed of so long at least as they continue to be operated as at present, since I have a very high regard for the operating ability of that company as presently constituted. I do not, of course, by this paragraph intend to limit the powers of sale and disposition either of my executors or my devisees.

I suggest to my executors and to my said wife that one or more of the following be employed, for such compensation as may be agreed upon, to assist in matters pertaining to mineral interests, royalties and oil and gas leasehold or oil, gas and mineral leasehold interests, since they are familiar with them and the records pertaining to them, viz., Mrs. Inez McCraney, Claude M. Burnett, Austin Crow.

 Sallie P. Fraser, 4/10th interest;
 Susan Nettie Fraser, . . . 2/10th interest.

ITEM IV.

such trust assets to be by said Trustee held, invested, re-invested, and the net income and principal disposed of as follows:

ITEM VI.

I authorize said Trustee to sell, exchange or dispose of all or any part of the property so held by it at any time hereunder, at public or private sale, with or without advertisement, for cash or on terms, and in such manner in all respects as it shall deem proper, including the right to lease for any term, irrespective of the period of this trust; and for such purposes to execute and deliver all such deeds, assignments, leases, assurances and instruments as it shall deem fit; to invest and re-invest all sums of money or other assets coming into its possession, according to its unfettered discretion, in such loans, real estate, stocks, bonds, securities or other assets as it shall deem to be for the best interest of the trust, irrespective of any statute or rule of law now or hereafter in force, limiting the class of investments for trustees of trust companies, with the right to retain as an investment any property, funds or assets that are a part of my estate or trust, without liability for depreciation in value; to make division or distribution in kind or in money, or partly in kind and partly in money (when division or distribution is due under later stipulations herein), and for such purpose the reasonable judgment of, and the division by, the Trustee, and the values determined by it, shall be binding and conclusive on all parties interested therein; to appoint agents; to agree to and become a party to the merger, consolidation, liquidation, or other disposition of any securities held hereunder, or of any corporation issuing such securities.

In the handling of this trust and the management of said properties, and the sale, investment and re-investment thereof, the Trustee shall not be required to give bond or report to, or secure the approval, consent or order of, any Court, or to make any bond, or any inventory, appraisal or annual or other returns to any Court; but it shall furnish to each beneficiary herein provided for a semi-annual statement showing the condition of the trust.

During the minority or incapacity of any beneficiary, the Trustee may use, or pay without the appointment of a guardian, or pay to the beneficiary direct, any sums which such beneficiary is eligible to receive, for the expenses of maintenance, living, clothing, education, or other reasonable personal expenses, and any sum so paid by said Trustee shall be deemed to have been properly paid by it, and shall relieve it from any liability therefor.

ITEM VII.

The interests of the beneficiaries named in ITEM III are therein established. The interests of the beneficiaries named in ITEM V(b) shall be equal - that is, share and share alike.

It is my purpose that the trust hereby created shall serve rather to provide against the possibility of need in later life than to afford funds which may be dissipated before that age is reached. My wish is that they do not marry before they graduate from college, but I stipulate that only their personal expenses in and in connection with college training - not those of a spouse - shall be paid. I would like for them to attend my own Alma Mater, Vanderbilt University.

The better to accomplish the above stated purpose of this trust, I stipulate that as each beneficiary shall attain the birthday set forth in the first column next below there shall be turned over to him (or her) the portion of the estate credited to him (or her) in the second column next below:

Birth day	Proportion
25	One-sixteenth
24	One-sixteenth
30	One-fourth
35	One-fourth
40	One-eighth
45	One-fourth

No beneficiary hereunder shall have right, power or authority to assign, hypothecate, anticipate or encumber all or any part of his (or her) beneficial interest in the trust, nor shall any portion of the trust property and estate, while in the hands of the Trustee, be susceptible to seizure by legal process. No beneficiary shall have the right to demand any advancement from the Trustee.

Should any beneficiary die before the termination of the trust as to him (or her), and leave heirs of the body, the share hereunder of such decedent shall inure to the benefit of such heir or heirs, per stirpes, and the trust be continued for the benefit of such successor beneficiaries to the 21st birthday, respectively. If such decedent leave no heir of the body, and the other beneficiary, or beneficiaries, of his (or her) class, survives or survive, then such survivor or survivors shall succeed to the undistributed share of the decedent, and the amount of the distributions - but not the proportions - above provided for in this ITEM be correspondingly increased.

ITEM VIII.

The Trustee shall not be liable for any act or omission done or omitted in good faith. No person dealing with the Trustee shall be under any duty to inquire as to the application or use of any money or property paid over and delivered to the Trustee.

BOOK 12 PAGE 379

Part 4 of Will of J. E. Dancy.

The Trustee shall be entitled to payment of all its expenses hereunder, and to reasonable compensation for its services as Trustee, not exceeding its standard rates.

ITEM II.

It is my wish and desire that Mack Maroney have the preference of renting the Big Black Farm at all times.

ITEM I.

I appoint Mrs. Carmen Whitlock, of Jackson, Tennessee. Executrix of this instrument, and expressly relieve her of the giving of any bond as such.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed this instrument in the presence of the witnesses whose names are subscribed hereto, who have signed as such at my special instance and request, in my presence and in the presence of each other, all upon this, the 12th day of July, A. D. 1968.

I, RAYMOND FRANKLIN GIBSON, now a resident of Bibb County, Georgia, do make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, revoking all other wills heretofore made by me.

ITEM I.

It is my will and desire that my Executor shall pay all of my debts as soon as practicable after my death.

ITEM II.

I will, bequeath and devise all of my estate of whatever kind and character and wherever located, real, personal and mixed, as follows:

One-half undivided interest to my nephew, J. Freeman Hart, Jr.

One-third undivided interest to my sister, Mrs. Hazel Gibson Pittman;

One-sixth undivided interest to my brother, Dewey J. Gibson.

ITEM III.

If these articles are in my residence it is because the person has asked me to keep them for safe keeping or have not been picked up by the owners. I make this explanation since I do not wish that my executor confuse such property as being property belonging to my estate.

Said guardian shall retain control and accumulate said bequest or devise until such minor attains his twenty-first birthday. However, said bequest or devise may, in the sole and absolute discretion of the guardian, be applied to the education, support and general welfare of such minor in such manner as the guardian may deem proper, without regard to the duty of any person to educate such minor and without regard to any other funds which may be available for the purpose or may be accumulated.
