LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF RAYMOND FRANKLIN GIBSON

I, RAYMOND FRANKLIN GIBSON, now a resident of Bibb County, Georgia, do make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, revoking all other wills heretofore made by me.

ITEM I.

It is my will and desire that my Executor shall pay all of my debts as soon as practicable after my death.

ITEM II.

I will, bequeath and devise all of my estate of whatever kind and character and wherever located, real, personal and mixed, as follows:

One-half undivided interest to my nephew, J. Freeman Hart, Jr.

One-third undivided interest to my sister, Mrs. Hazel Gibson Pittman;

One-sixth undivided interest to my brother, Dewey J. Gibson.

ITEM III.

There may be at the time of my death certain personal property in my residence such as paintings, furniture, and objects d'art which have been given by me to certain parties before my death and if this personal property is in my residence they can be identified by names attached which would correspond to a list I enclose with this Will. If these articles are in my residence it is because the person has asked me to keep them for safe keeping or have not been picked up by the owners. I make this explanation since I do not wish that my executor confuse such property as being property belonging to my estate.

ITEM IV.

I hereby nominate and appoint my said nephew, J. Freeman Hart, Jr., as my executor of this my last Will and Testament and expressly direct that no bond be required of him in the performance of his duties as such and that he not be required to make or file any inventory or appraisement of my estate nor to make any returns to any court as such executor. I expressly direct that he be empowered to sell any or all of my property, at either public or private sale, or mortgage or encumber any or all of my property, without order of any court.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this the 17 day of November, 1961.

I, Ellen O. Hamel, of Canton, Madison County, Mississippi, being of the age of twenty-one years and over and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, revoking all previous wills and codicils.

I.

I name, constitute and appoint Francis J. Hamel, Jr., my son, as executor and direct that he be not required to give bond or make any formal accounting to any court other than the probate of this my last will and testament.

II.

I direct that all of my just legal debts be paid as promptly as practical after my death.

III.

I will, devise and bequeath unto my husband, F. J. Hamel, Sr., the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

IV.

I will, devise and bequeath unto my son, Francis J. Hamel, Jr., all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, of whatsoever nature and wherever situated or located.

V.

I make no other provision in this my last will and testament for my husband, F. J. Hamel, Sr., nor do I make any provision for my son, Francis J. Hamel, Jr., since I have complete confidence in my son, Francis J. Hamel, Jr., and know that he will care for my children and my dependent ones and that they will do so in accordance with their obligations in his sole discretion and determine.

I have signed this will and testament in the presence of 12 witnesses, two of whom are of the age and legal capacity to act as witnesses and in the presence of the clerk of the probate court in the county of Madison, Mississippi.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF DORA W. WINANS

Hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by me, I, Mrs. Dora W. Winans, being of sound disposing mind, memory and understanding, over the age of twenty one years, and a citizen and resident of Madison County, Mississippi, post office address being Canton, Mississippi, do hereby now make, declare and publish this as my last will and testament.

1. I desire that all my debts shall be paid as promptly as may be consistent with the circumstances and agreeably to the laws of Mississippi.

2. My personal belongings and personalty I have already made disposition of among my children in a manner understood by them; and which disposition they will honour in keeping with the division thus by me made.

3. I own an unexpired leasehold interest in the following lands in Madison County, Mississippi, to-wit:

14 acres in the northwest corner of the North half (N $\frac{1}{2}$) west and south of the "new" gravel road of Section 16, Township 9 North, Range 3 East.

Whatever the unexpired term in same may be at my death I will, devise and bequeath to Hugh Neal Winans, Jr., William Robert Winans, Sr. and Ambrose Rufus Winans, each an undivided one-fourth (1/4) interest therein, and to Lisa Ann Winans, Joseph Leroy Winans, Sara Jo Winans and Terri Lynn Winans, the children of Joseph Leroy Winans, deceased, I will, devise and bequeath an undivided one-fourth (1/4) interest.

4. I own in fee simple the following lands in said Madison County, Mississippi, to-wit:

50 acres off of the north end of the E $\frac{1}{2}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ less two acres, and the NW $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ and residence, all in Section 17, Township 9 North, Range 3 East, and containing by estimation 90 acres, more or less.

Of said 90 acres of land, I bequeath to Hugh Neal Winans, Jr. and William

Robert Winans, Sr. an undivided twenty-one (21) acre interest each, or 21/90 interest in said lands each, and to Ambrose Rufus Winans I bequeath an undivided 27/90ths interest in said land, and to Lisa Ann Winans, Joseph Leroy Winans, Sara Jo Winans and Terri Lynn Winans, the children of Joseph Leroy Winans, deceased, I bequeath together an undivided twenty-one (21) acre interest, or 21/90ths interest in said land, said lands to be divided as may be agreed by said devisees. The excess six acres which I have thus devised to Rufus over the number of acres bequeathed to my other devisees, is not because of any partiality I bear for him over the rest, but because he has heretofore advanced me eight hundred dollars, more or less, and it is understood with him that the excess bequest to him will in full liquidate my indebtedness to him; this being the moving consideration of the gift to him of the additional acres above what is given the others.

5. It is my wish that should any of my foregoing named heirs desire to dispose of or sell the interests awarded them in the said 90 acres, and have the opportunity of so doing, that they shall first give the opportunity to the other devisees herein named to purchase such interest for the same price or consideration or more if such devisee or devisees desire to avail themselves of such an opportunity. This is merely a request, and my wish; however it shall not be considered mandatory on any of them so to do; and each may ignore my wish if, for any reason satisfactory to himself, he shall so desire. And no purchaser need have the approval of any one of them except the one who possesses and the one who sells.

6. In case an executor is needed in the matter of my estate, I hereby appoint my sons, William Robert Winans, Sr. as such executor; and I specially exempt him from the necessity of giving any sort of bond, and I specially exempt him from rendering any sort of report or account to any Court.

7. If, in the course of making various bequests herein, I shall have overlooked and neglected to dispose of any item of property whatever, real, personal and mixed, then such property I now will, devise and bequeath to my said sons and the children of my deceased son, Joseph Leroy Winans, the said grandchildren to have an undivided one-fourth interest together therein.

8. The various provisions of this will I thoroughly understand, and they are such as I desire them to be, and they represent my studied thought and best judgment. I have read its provisions with careful scrutiny; and, now as I come to subscribe to it, and to affix my signature thereto in confirmation of my desires and of the publication thereof, I do so fully, freely, advisedly, hoping that it may have as full and complete approval and approbation of my said devisees as it has of my conscience. And so I have spoken, and I solemnly pronounce the above as my will.

9. So made, published and declared by me on this the tenth day of June, 1958.

Dora W. Winans
Dora W. Winans, Testatrix

We, the undersigned witnesses, fully acquainted with the above named Mrs. Dora W. Winans, have, at her request, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other and all, attested the signing and execution of the said will by her and have in like manner and under like circumstances affixed our signatures as attesting witnesses of the signing and the execution and the declaration by her that the same is her last will and testament.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

MAX LOUVOIS McLAURIN

FRANK H. GALT
NOTARY PUBLIC
STATE OF MISSISSIPPI
BY [Signature]

I, Max Louvois McLaurin, (also known as Max McLaurin or Max L. McLaurin), of Jackson, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and more than twenty-one years of age, and in all things competent to make a Will, do hereby make, publish, and declare this as my true and lawful Last Will and Testament, expressly revoking all other and prior Wills and Testaments and Codicils whatsoever thereto previously made by me.

ITEM I

I direct that all my just and lawful debts be paid.

ITEM II

I bequeath all my personal effects, such as (but not limited to) my clothes, books, boats, guns, and fishing equipment, to my wife and children to do with as they may see fit, and my Executor shall have no duty to inventory or in any wise account to the court therefor.

ITEM III

If my wife survives me and is living, six (6) months after date of my death, then I devise and bequeath unto my said wife, Velma G. McLaurin, my entire undivided interest in our home, in which we may be living at the time of my death, and all furniture, furnishings, fixtures, and contents therein.

Page #2 - Last Will and Testament of Max Louvois McLaurin

ITEM IV

If my sister, Katie Merle Wadsworth, survives me, then my Executor is directed to return to her the note and cancel the lien of the deed of trust securing said note to me on her home. If my mother, Mrs. Fannie McLaurin Cox, survives me, then my Executor is directed to pay to her $2,000.00 in cash.

ITEM V

I designate and appoint Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company of Jackson, Mississippi, as Executor of this Last Will and Testament, and direct that it be not required to give any bond therefor. I direct my Executor, however, to conclude the administration of my estate as quickly as possible to the end that the trust estates may be administered as hereinafter provided. I direct my Executor to set apart to my widow, Velma C. McLaurin, immediately upon its qualifying as Executor of this estate, the sum of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS ($10,000.00) in cash as the statutory widow's allowance and money for the support and maintenance of our children for one year after my death.

ITEM VI

Should I be engaged in any business at the time of my death, then I vest my said Executor with the full power and authority to continue the conduct and operation of such business without interruption and for such time (not to exceed two years) as it may then seem wise and proper under the existing circumstances and conditions and with full and complete power to do so as herein provided and without authority or warrant of any court therefor.

Page #3 - Last Will and Testament of Max Louvois McLaurin

shall make a report each month to the court under oath of its receipts and disbursements in such operation; and if such business shows a loss in any three successive months, the Executor shall then show cause to the court with its recommendations as to the future course and conduct of such business and secure the instructions and directions of the court thereon for the future.

ITEM VII

(a) Should my wife, Velma C. McLaurin, survive me, then I devise and bequeath unto Deposit Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, in trust, as Trustee of and for such Marital Trust, one-half of my estate, or an amount of property equal to the maximum marital deduction allowable under the Federal Estate Tax Laws affecting my estate; provided, however, that the amount of such property left in trust pursuant to this ITEM VII shall be reduced by the value of property qualifying for said marital deduction which passes or has passed to my said wife, either under other provisions of this Will or outside of this Will. No assets shall be made a part of this Marital Trust which do not qualify for such marital deduction. This trust shall be administered by the Trustee as a separate trust and shall be known as "The Marital Trust of Velma C. McLaurin".

(b) Subject to the bequests hereinabove made and subject to the conditions hereinabove provided, I hereby empower, constitute and authorize my said executor and to convey and assign to the Trustee hereinabove named which shall constitute the Marital Trust herein-said; provided, however, that the amount of such assets shall be determined before there is a reduction of my estate by inheritance, estate, or transfer taxes due by reason of my death. It is my intention to, and I do hereby, transfer to this trust the maximum value in assets that may be deducted pursuant to the "Marital Deduction" provision of the Federal Estate Tax Laws.

(c) The Trustee shall pay to my wife, Velma C. McLaurin, during her lifetime, all of the income of the Marital Trust, in quarterly or other convenient installments; provided, however, that in no event shall such payments be made less frequently than semi-annually. If the income of my said wife is, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, insufficient to provide for her reasonable support, maintenance and welfare and desires, so as to maintain her in as much comfort as she now enjoys, then the Trustee may pay to her, out of the principal of the Marital Trust, a sufficient sum or sums, as the Trustee shall deem proper or necessary. The Trustee may take into account my said wife's assets and income from sources other than the Marital Trust.

(d) Upon the death of my said wife, all accrued and undistributed income from the Marital Trust shall be paid to her estate, and the entire remaining principal of said trust shall be paid over to such person or persons or to the estate of my said wife, free of any trusts created in this Will, in the manner and proportions as my said wife may designate and appoint in her Last Will and Testament. The power of appointment herein granted to my said wife trust for my daughter, Maxine Coleman McLaurin (born July 12, 1942), for the uses and on the terms and conditions hereinafter provided.

(a) The Trustee of this trust estate is vested with the full and plenary power and authority in its own sound discretion to sell or exchange any or all of this estate and reinvest the proceeds thereof as it may deem provident and for the best interest of this estate and it may give a good title to the purchaser or party to whom the same is exchanged.

(b) The Trustee is granted the full power and authority to continue the conduct and operation of any business in which I may be engaged at the time of my death, or it may sell or otherwise dispose thereof as its discretion may dictate. Without binding either my Executor or my Trustee, however, it is my considered suggestion that any such business not be operated either by the estate or this trust any longer than is absolutely necessary so to do without loss thereto.

(c) Should my son or my daughter predecease me or die before the final termination of this trust, then the interest of such deceased child shall pass to and become the absolute property of the survivor.

(d) The Trustee herein shall also and pay annually to the beneficiary of this trust the estimated net annual income of this trust estate.

Page #7 - Last Will and Testament of Max Louvois McLaurin

(e) Should my daughter have need of more money than is provided by the income from this trust, then the Trustee is authorized to supply such need from the corpus of this trust estate and charge such advancement against her in the corpus of such estate.

(f) When my daughter attains the age of twenty-one years, then the Trustee is authorized to convey and deliver to her the entire balance of this trust estate then in its possession.

ITEM IX

The benefits provided herein under ITEM VII and ITEM VIII hereof shall not be anticipated by the beneficiary thereof and are not subject to assignment or process of any court, and can be paid by the Trustee only to the designated beneficiary thereof as and when herein provided and not otherwise.

ITEM X

The Trustee named in ITEM VII and ITEM VIII need not give a bond to qualify for the acceptance of such trust but shall qualify only by filing in the estate cause his acceptance of the responsibility for properly administering such trust as herein provided. I direct said executor and trustee to employ Harold Con, if living, as trustee of the income and corpus. I have advised said trustee of his duties in the administration of the trust and he has acknowledged the same. I have also advised said trustee of the powers and duties of the Trustee and he has acknowledged the same. I have also advised said trustee of the powers and duties of the Trustee and he has acknowledged the same. I have also advised said trustee of the powers and duties of the Trustee and he has acknowledged the same. I have also advised said trustee of the powers and duties of the Trustee and he has acknowledged the same.

Page #8 - Last Will and Testament of Max Louvois McLaurin

of the beneficiaries therein named.

ITEM XI

The Trustee of the separate trusts created under ITEM VII and ITEM VIII hereof is vested with the full power and authority to employ any assistants it may determine necessary in the proper administration and management of each trust estate, and may pay such compensation as it may deem reasonable therefor. The Trustee need not secure any permission or authority from any court to employ and pay for such services, professional or otherwise, as it may deem necessary and for the best interest of these estates. The fees of the Trustee for the administration of these trusts shall be such amount as may be fixed by the Chancery Court of Hinds County, Mississippi, as reasonable therefor, but not in excess of the amount suggested by the American Bankers Association for such services. The Trustee under each of said trusts shall keep a careful account of all receipts and disbursements and shall annually make a verified report thereof to the Chancery Court for its confirmation and approval as being in conformity herewith.
