I, FRANK STOUT, an adult resident citizen of Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament and I do hereby revoke any and all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM I.

I do hereby appoint the First National Bank of Jackson, Jackson, Mississippi, as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament. I hereby direct that the Executor shall not be required to give any bond, and I hereby waive the necessity of having a formal appraisement made of my estate. I hereby expressly give and grant unto said Executor all the rights, powers and discretions hereinafter given to the Trustee in Item IV.

ITEM II.

I hereby direct my Executor to pay all of my just debts which may be probated, registered and allowed against my estate as soon as may be conveniently done. I direct my Executor to pay all Federal and State estate, inheritance, succession, transfer, or other death taxes which are assessed against my estate or against any beneficiary, including estate and inheritance taxes assessed on account of life insurance proceeds or any other property which shall be included in my gross estate for the purpose of such taxes, whether or not included in my estate for probate purposes, out of my residuary estate.

ITEM III.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, Eunice Hill Stout, if she be living at the time of my death, all of my clothing, books, jewelry, automobiles, and other items of personal use and adornment; and if she shall not survive me, I give and bequeath all of the described property to the Trustee herein named of my residual trust to be held, administered and distributed as therein provided.

ITEM IV.

In the event my wife, Eunice Hill Stout, survives me, I give, devise and bequeath unto the First National Bank of Jackson, Jackson, Mississippi, as Trustee for my wife, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, assets in an amount equal to the maximum marital deduction allowable to my estate for federal estate tax purposes less the amount of any property which passes or has passed from me to my wife otherwise than by the terms of this Article IV of my Will in such manner as to qualify for said marital deduction.

My Executor shall assign, convey and distribute to the Trustee of said trust the cash, securities and other property, including real estate and interests therein, which shall constitute said bequest. The assets to be distributed in satisfaction of said bequest shall be selected in such manner that the cash and other property distributed will have an aggregate fair market value fairly representative of the distributee's proportionate share of the appreciation or depreciation in the value to the date, or dates, of distribution of all property then available for distribution. Any property included in my estate at the time of my death and assigned or conveyed in kind to satisfy said bequest shall be valued for that purpose at the value thereof as finally determined for Federal estate tax purposes, and any other property so assigned and conveyed shall be valued for that purpose at its cost. No asset or proceeds of any asset shall be included in the trust as to which a marital deduction is not allowable if included. The amount of assets comprising this trust shall be determined before there is a reduction of my estate by reason of inheritance, estate or transfer taxes due by reason of my death. Said bequest shall abate to the extent that it cannot be satisfied in the manner hereinabove provided.

Said trust shall be known as the "Eunice Hill Stout Trust" and shall be held, administered and disposed of by my Trustee as follows:

A. Said Trustee shall pay to my wife, during her lifetime, all of the income of the trust in periodic installments, the frequency of such payments to be determined by the Trustee, except that in no event shall such payments be made less frequently than annually.

B. If the total income of my said wife is, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, insufficient to enable her to maintain her present standard of living, or if, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, an emergency has arisen, then the Trustee may pay to her out of the principal of the trust such additional sum or sums as the Trustee shall deem proper. In making this determination, the Trustee may take into consideration my said wife's assets and income from sources other than this trust.

C. The Trustee shall have full power and authority:

Frank Stout
FRANK STOUT

1. To retain any property of my estate, or any undivided interest therein, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk or non-productivity;

2. Subject only to the exception hereinafter stated, to invest and reinvest the trust estate in such manner and in such securities or other property and upon such terms and conditions as to the Trustee shall seem meet and proper, including the power to invest the trust fund in a common fund established by the Trustee pursuant to the Uniform Common Trust Fund Act of Mississippi; excluding, however, any investment in real estate or an undivided interest therein, but this exclusion shall not prohibit the Trustee from securing loans by real estate or undivided interests therein and acquiring and holding title to such security in event of default on such loans;

3. To sell any trust property, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale; to exchange any trust property for other property (except real estate or undivided interests therein); to grant options to purchase or acquire any trust property; and to determine the prices and terms of sales, exchanges and options;

Any and all judgments and decisions made and authorizations taken by my Trustee in good faith in the administration of this trust shall be conclusive on all parties in interest.

D. Upon the death of my said wife, the entire remaining corpus, and all accrued income of this trust shall be paid over to such appointee or appointees, or to the estate of my said wife, free of any trust created in this Will, in the manner and proportions as my said wife may designate and appoint in her Last Will and Testament, by making specific reference therein to this Item of my Will, as the source of the power. The power of appointment herein granted to my said wife shall be exercisable by her alone and in all events. Upon the death of my said wife, Eunice Hill Stout, and in the event that she shall default in the exercise of the power of appointment herein granted to her, the entire remaining corpus and all accrued income of this Trust shall be paid over to my residual trust established under Article V of this Will.

E. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this my Will, I direct: (1) That my Trustee shall not retain beyond a reasonable time any property which may be or become unproductive property nor shall it invest in unproductive property; and (2) That in the event of any uncertainty regarding the interpretation of the provisions of this trust for my wife, it is my intention that its provisions shall be interpreted in a manner which would permit the assets of this trust to qualify for the marital deduction authorized by the United States Internal Revenue Code, as now or hereafter amended; and (3) That none of the powers granted to the Trustee by this Will shall be exercised in such a manner as to disqualify this trust or any part thereof from the marital deduction allowable in determining the Federal estate tax on my estate.

ITEM V.

I give, devise and bequeath the rest and residue of my estate of whatsoever kind or character and wheresoever situated to the First National Bank of Jackson, Jackson, Mississippi, as Trustee in trust to be held, administered and distributed as follows:

A. INCOME DISTRIBUTIONS:

1. The net income from this trust shall, during the term of this trust, be paid periodically and not less frequently than annually in equal shares to my three children: Sandra Kaye Stout, Linda Diane Stout and Susan Carol Stout. My step-daughter, Alice Pike Dear, is married and has already established her home whereas my three daughters above mentioned are not otherwise provided for and taking this into consideration, I have omitted Alice as an income beneficiary under this trust although I have made provisions herein for her to inherit and receive her proportionate share of the trust assets remaining when the trust is terminated.

2. In event of the death of an income beneficiary during the term of this trust, the share of income of the deceased beneficiary shall be distributed to her issue then surviving by right of representation. If an income beneficiary dies without issue, the income share of such deceased beneficiary shall be accumulated and added to the principal of this trust.

3. If an income beneficiary is a minor or in the opinion of the Trustee is unable to properly administer her affairs, the net income distributable to such beneficiary may, in the Trustee's discretion, be applied directly by it for the care, comfort, maintenance, education or general welfare of such beneficiary or may be paid to a friend or relative or to the legal Guardian, if any, to be applied for such purposes. Notwithstanding this provision, I direct that my Trustee pay to Sandra Kaye Stout and Linda Diane Stout the net income from this trust due such beneficiaries even though such beneficiaries be minors at such time, they being in my judgment of sufficient maturity to receive and use such funds, but as to my daughter, Susan Carol Stout, who is now only fourteen years of age, I direct that my Trustee pay the net income due such beneficiary to my wife to be used by her for the care and support of Susan until such time as Susan attains the age of twenty years at which time she shall be entitled to receive direct distribution of the income provided for her herein.

Frank Stout
FRANK STOUT

B. PRINCIPAL DISTRIBUTIONS:

1. This trust shall continue until April 12, 1978, when my youngest child, Susan, attains the age of twenty-five years, at which time this entire trust shall terminate and all assets of the trust shall be distributed and paid over by my Trustee as follows: Unto Alice Pike Dear, a one-fourth share; unto Sandra Kaye Stout, a one-fourth share; unto Linda Diane Stout, a one-fourth share; and unto Susan Carol Stout, a one-fourth share.

2. If any of my above named principal beneficiaries shall die before final distribution as herein provided, the share of trust assets otherwise distributable to such beneficiary shall upon termination of this trust be paid over and distributed as follows:

To her then surviving issue by right of representation.

If she die without issue, to my issue then surviving by right of representation.

Frank Stout
FRANK STOUT

3. If the Trustee, in its sole discretion, be of the opinion that the resources and income of any principal beneficiary hereunder are insufficient to provide for the necessary care, comfort, maintenance and general welfare of such beneficiary, or that an emergency has arisen, then the Trustee may pay to such beneficiary out of the principal of this trust such additional sum or sums as the Trustee may deem necessary and proper or distribute such amounts of principal to a friend or relative or legal guardian of such beneficiary to be applied for such purposes or may make such applications directly, but in such event the amount of principal thus distributed shall be deducted from the share of principal which such beneficiary would otherwise receive upon termination of this trust.

C. TRUSTEE'S POWERS:

My Trustee of this residual trust shall have the same powers in this trust as those conferred upon it by Item IV, subparagraph C of my Will herein.

D. At the termination of an income beneficiary's interest hereunder, the income inuring to him or to his personal representatives shall be confined to income realized in money or in other assets which shall have been segregated as income and are separately distributable. Income not so collected and separately distributable at the termination of a beneficiary's interest hereunder shall, when collected, inure to the then participating income beneficiary of the trust, or, in the event that the trust share shall then be terminated, it shall inure to the corpus thereof.

Frank Stout
FRANK STOUT

Item 26

The Trustee may determine upon all allocations, charges or credits as between principal and income notwithstanding any trust accounting rules thereon prescribed by judicial or statutory authority.

Net earnings derived by my executor from funds and assets ultimately used to pay legacies, taxes and costs of administration, shall be accounted and distributed as income and shall not inure to the corpus of the residuary estate.

ITEM VI.

The provisions herein made are intended for the personal protection and welfare of the beneficiaries hereunder and shall not be susceptible of assignment, anticipation, hypothecation or seizure by legal process. If the Trustee shall have notice or shall apprehend that the interest of a beneficiary is threatened to be diverted from said defined purposes in any manner, the Trustee shall withhold the income and principal of such beneficiary from distribution, and shall apply the income of such beneficiary and the sums of principal available in its discretion in such manner as it shall deem expedient to the maintenance, comfort and necessities of such beneficiary and the members of his family dependent upon him for support. Whenever the Trustee shall be satisfied that such diversion is no longer effective or threatened, there may resume the distributions of income and principal authorized. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend the ultimate term of any trust hereunder. This Paragraph shall apply only to my residuary trust established under Article V and shall not be applicable to the marital trust established under Article IV.

ITEM VII.

The interest of every beneficiary under the terms of this Will shall vest, notwithstanding anything else in this Will to the contrary, within the period prescribed by the rule against perpetuities or any statute pertaining thereto.

Frank Stout
FRANK STOUT

ITEM VIII.

A. The two trusts created herein are private trusts and the Trustee shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of any Court for the exercise of any power or discretion herein given. The Trustee shall not be required to return to any Court any periodic formal accounting of its administration of the trust but the Trustee shall render annual accounts to the beneficiaries of the trusts. No person paying money or delivering property to the Trustee shall be required to see to its application. Bond shall not be required of the Trustee.

B. The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice to the beneficiaries entitled to participate in the trusts at the time of such resignation specifying in said notice the effective date of such resignation. A successor Trustee may be appointed on petition of any beneficiary to the Chancery Court of Madison County, Mississippi, and the successor Trustee shall have the same title, powers and discretion herein given the original Trustee.

C. The Trustee hereunder shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for services in administering and distributing trust property and to reimbursement for expenses.

ITEM IX.

In event both my wife and I should die in a common accident or under such circumstances that it cannot be readily determined which of us is the survivor, I hereby declare that she shall be deemed to have survived me and this Will and all of its provisions shall be construed upon that assumption.

Frank Stout
FRANK STOUT

ITEM X.

I direct that my Executor and Trustee employ the firm of Crisler, Crisler & Bowling, Attorneys at Law, Jackson, Mississippi, to handle all legal matters involving the probate of this Will and the administration of my estate and the trust created herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name on this the 15th day of November, 1966.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Frank J. Johnson, a resident of Madison County, Mississippi, above the age of twenty-one years, and of sound, disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare, this, my last will and testament, hereby specifically revoking any and all other wills, and codicils thereto, heretofore made or purporting to have been made by me.

I own approximately 110 acres of land in Section 21, Township 8 North, Range 3 East, in Madison County, Mississippi. A one-acre parcel has been laid off as a family burying ground, and shall remain as such.

I bequeath to Herdis Brown the sum of One Dollar.

To my wife, Laura Johnson, I devise and bequeath all personal property of every kind and character (except the One Dollar to Herdis Brown) which I may then own, for her unrestricted use and benefit so long as she may live, and such as she may not have disposed of at her death shall go to our children hereinafter named.

Likewise, I devise to my wife all of the 110 acres, more or less, except the one acre devoted to family burying ground, for the term of her natural life and at her death to go, share and share alike, to our children, as follows:

provided that if any one of said named children predecease their mother, leaving a child or children, the share of such deceased child shall go to his or her child or children; provided, further, if such deceased child leaves no child or children, that share shall be divided equally between the surviving brothers and sisters and children (per stirpes) of any previously deceased child.

I also specifically restrict the right of the children who take title on their mother's death, thereafter to sell their respective undivided interests without first offering to the surviving adult brothers and sisters a preferential right (which may be exercised by one or more, or all) to purchase such undivided interest for the consideration which the seller would be about to receive, on a bona fide proposal from some purchaser outside of the siblings. This stipulation does not affect any transfer of interest by sale or gift among any two or more of said children.

I designate and appoint my son, Frank Melvin Johnson, as Executor of this instrument and expressly relieve him of giving any bond as such.

Witness my signature, this, August , 1965, in the presence of the witnesses subscribing hereunto, who have signed as such at my special instance and request, in my presence and in the presence of each other.
