I, Carrie Ruth Heflin, a resident of Madison County, Mississippi, above the age of twenty one years, and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this, my last will and testament, hereby specifically revoking any and all other instruments of like nature, and codicils thereto, heretofore made, or purporting to have been made by me.

I have close members of my own family to whom my little property will descend if I die intestate. I do not name them as beneficiaries herein for any lack of affection, but because, in my opinion, they are better able to care for themselves than James LeRoy Faulkner, who is in no way lacking in intelligence, but does not have the power of will to resist the pressures and importunities to which he is now and will inevitably be subjected by certain older relatives.

Therefore, I devise and bequeath all property of which I die seized and possessed to Canton Exchange Bank, Canton, Mississippi, as Trustee for James LeRoy Faulkner, upon the following terms and conditions:

1. Such cash funds as may remain after payment of my funeral expenses and any indebtedness I may owe, with the lot and house in which I reside at 364 North Miller Street, in the City of Canton, Mississippi, with all its furnishings, shall constitute the corpus of the trust estate, and neither house, lot nor contents of house shall be sold except under conditions hereinafter specified.

2. Jimmy, being same as James LeRoy, shall have unrestricted, exclusive right to occupy the premises and every part thereof.

Under no conditions shall any of his immediate family or connections, especially Ralph ~~Wayne~~ Faulkner and Michael Faulkner, be permitted to reside in the house, or on the premises. This shall not exclude friendly visits, provided, in the opinion of the Trustee, such visits do not appear to be a specious attempt to obtain privileges and benefits under the guise of hospitality.

3. As long as Jimmy does not marry, and may feel the need of another person or other persons to reside in the house, that will be permissible, except as to those already classified above as excluded.

4. Necessary repairs to the residence will have to be made by Jimmy, unless there be available cash in the trust fund,

5. At any time that Jimmy may desire and will so indicate to the Trustee, the Trustee may rent the premises on terms deemed suitable by it, and the income held by it; or, if Jimmy so desires, the property may be sold at a price satisfactory to the Trustee. In either case, resulting income or funds shall be handled as the

Book 14 Page 427

Trustee deems to be to the best interests of Jimmy. It may pay to him from time to time such amount or amounts as he may satisfy it he really requires for reasonable personal needs, not toward the support of any one except his wife or child (or children).

6. Upon the death of Jimmy, if he shall have married, the premises, and all other assets shall become her property, and the trust terminate. If he shall not have married, then the real estate shall be sold by the Trustee for such consideration as it deems adequate, and resulting funds, with any other asset, shall be paid over to the Deaconess Division of the Board of Missions of the United Methodist Church.

7. The Trustee shall be entitled to charge and retain, at its own established periods, such standard charge as it makes for performing such service as hereinabove set forth.

E. A. ELLISON

THE STATE OF TEXAS |

ERNEST CHRISTIAN COUNTY CLERK
SMITH COUNTY, TEXAS
SEP 7 10 06 AM '73

THAT I, E. A. ELLISON, of the County of Smith, State of Texas, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make and publish this, my Last Will and Testament, hereby expressly revoking all former Wills; if any, heretofore made by me.

I.

I direct that all of my just debts shall be paid as soon as practicable after my death. I further direct that my Executrix pay out of my residuary estate, without apportionment, all estate, inheritance, succession and other taxes, together with any interest and penalty thereon, assessed by reason of my death by the government of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof in respect of all property required to be included in my gross estate for estate or like tax purposes by any of such governments, whether the property passes under this Will or otherwise, without contribution by any recipient of any such property.

II.

In the event she survives me, I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, CORA CHARLES ELLISON, absolutely and without reservation, the homestead that we may be occupying at the time of my death, together with all household furniture and furnishings therein situated, any interest which I own in stock or memberships in Willow Brook Country Club, Tyler Petroleum Club and similar organizations, all of my jewelry and wearing apparel, and any automobiles which we may own at the time of my death.

In the event she survives me, I give to my sister, DORIS BRACKETT, the sum of $100.00 per month for her lifetime only, payable out of my interest in the leases known as Hopkins and Smith leases in the Castleberry Survey in Gregg County, Texas.

III.

I give unto my wife, CORA CHARLES ELLISON, unconditionally and absolutely, property of a value equal to one-half (1/2) of the value of all separate property of mine included in my gross estate for Federal Estate tax purposes; provided, however, that this gift shall be reduced by the full value of any property in respect of which a marital deduction is allowed under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code which has been included in my gross estate and which has passed or passes to or for the benefit of my said wife outside the provisions of this Paragraph III; provided, further, that my Executrix shall satisfy this gift out of property which I own at the time of my death of a character for which a marital deduction is allowable under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, and in the event I do not own, at the time of my death, property of said specified character of a value sufficient to satisfy this gift, then in that event, I give unto my said wife all property which I own at the time of my death of said specified character; and provided further, that this gift shall be free and clear of all Federal Estate and State Inheritance taxes and shall be subject only to its proportionate part of the expenses and debts of and claims against my estate, and in valuing the property out of which this gift may be satisfied, the amount of any encumbrance or obligation against any particular asset or assets shall be taken into account and the value as finally determined for Federal Estate tax purposes of all property included in my gross estate shall be conclusive. My Executrix, however, in determining the property out of which this bequest shall be satisfied, shall see that such bequest shall benefit by or bear its proportionate part of any appreciation or depreciation in total value of my estate to the date or dates of distribution.

IV.

In the event she survives me, I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, CORA CHARLES ELLISON, all of the rest, residue and remainder of the property which I may own at the time of my death, real, personal and mixed, tangible or intangible, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, to be held, used, occupied and enjoyed by her during her lifetime. I direct that if, in her sole discretion, my wife deems it advisable, she may sell, convey, lease (including oil, gas and mineral leases), exchange, mortgage, encumber, invest, reinvest or otherwise dispose of the properties in which she has a life estate hereunder. I further direct that my wife may consume, invade or appropriate the properties in which she has a life estate hereunder, but only in the event, in her sole discretion, it is necessary for her health, education, maintenance or support. In no case shall any party dealing with my said wife in connection with any of the properties in which she is given a life estate in this Will, or any party to whom any part of said properties may be conveyed, assigned, exchanged, mortgaged or leased, be obliged to see to the application of any purchase money, rents, royalties or proceeds of a loan, but it shall be conclusively presumed that my wife validly exercised the power herein granted to her to sell, convey, lease, exchange, mortgage, encumber or otherwise dispose of and consume the properties in accordance with the limitations herein prescribed.

V.

In the event my wife does not survive me, or after the death of my wife, I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter, CAROL ELLISON STOLLENWERCK, all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate of every nature and description and wherever situated, together with any lapsed or ineffective bequests or devises; provided, however, that in the event my daughter and my wife do not survive me or in the event my daughter predeceases my wife, I give, devise and bequeath the interest in my estate to which my daughter would otherwise have been entitled, to my son-in-law, SAM STOLLENWERCK, as Trustee, without bond, for the children then surviving of my said daughter, in equal shares. Said Trustee shall hold, manage, invest, reinvest, use and expend the property belonging to the trust estate under the following terms and conditions:

A. I direct that the Trustee shall use and expend the income and principal, if necessary, of the trust estate as the Trustee, in his sole discretion, may determine to be for the best interest of the health, maintenance, education and support of the beneficiaries. In the event the Trustee should, in his sole discretion, determine that the beneficiaries' health, maintenance, education and support are adequately provided for, the Trustee may accumulate the income until final termination of the trust. Except as herein provided, I direct that the Trustee shall be governed by the terms of the Texas Trust Act of the State of Texas as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended.

B. As to any distribution made in accordance with the provisions of this Will, the Trustee, in his discretion, may make such distribution in any one or more of the following ways:

1. To any such person directly;
2. To the guardian or any other personal representative of a minor or incapacitated person;
3. To a relative of a minor or incapacitated person to be expended by such relative for the health, education, maintenance or support of any such person; and
4. By expending same directly for the health, education, maintenance or support of any such person.

The receipt of such guardian, personal representative or relative shall constitute a full acquittance of the Trustee with respect to any distribution so made.

C. Whenever required or permitted to divide and distribute my estate or any trust created hereunder, the Trustee may make such division or distribution in money or in kind, or partly in money and partly in kind; further, the Trustee may exercise all power herein conferred after the termination of any trust until the same is fully distributed; and, in the absence of a showing of bad faith, the valuation of assets by the Trustee for the purpose of division or distribution shall be conclusive and binding.

D. No income beneficiary of any trust herein created shall have the right or power to anticipate, by assignment or otherwise, any income or principal given to such beneficiary by any trust or portion thereof; nor in advance of actually receiving same shall have the right or power to sell, transfer, encumber or in anywise charge the same; nor shall such income or principal or any portion thereof be subject to any execution, garnishment, attachment, insolvency, bankruptcy or any other legal proceedings of any character, or legal sequestration, levy or sale or in any event or manner be applicable to or subject to, voluntarily or involuntarily, the payment of such beneficiary's debts.

E. No one dealing with the Trustee shall ever be under any obligation to see to the application of any property or funds paid to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall not be liable except for his willful misconduct or willful breach of faith.

F. No successor Trustee shall have any duty, responsibility, obligation or liability whatsoever for the acts, defaults or omissions of any predecessor Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall be responsible only for the assets delivered to it by the preceding Trustee or his legal representative and may accept as correct the statement of such predecessor or legal representative that these constitute all of the assets of the trust estate without any duty to inquire into the administration or accounting by the preceding Trustee.

G. In the event that any beneficiary dies leaving children surviving him or her, I direct that such beneficiary's surviving children take their deceased parent's portion of the trust estate herein created, per stirpes.

In the event that any beneficiary of the trust dies without leaving children surviving him or her, I direct that such beneficiary's portion of the trust estate be divided and pass in equal shares to my daughter's surviving children and to the children of any deceased child, per stirpes.

H. When each original beneficiary becomes twenty-one (21) years of age, I direct that such beneficiary's portion of the trust estate, after payment of fees and expenses properly chargeable thereto, be paid to such beneficiary. In the event any original beneficiary dies leaving children surviving him or her, I direct that such beneficiary's portion of the trust estate be paid to and delivered to the legally qualified guardian of any minor children of such beneficiary.

I. In the event of the death, resignation, refusal or inability to serve or to continue to serve, of SAM STOLLENWERCK, I name, constitute and appoint the CITIZENS FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF TYLER, Tyler, Texas, as alternate Trustee, without bond, under the same terms and conditions as those hereinabove set out for Sam Stollenwerck.

VI.

By use of the word "survive," I mean survive by thirty (30) days. By use of the word "child" or "children," I mean to include any child or children legally adopted by court proceedings.

VII.

I hereby appoint my wife, CORA CHARLES ELLISON, Independent Executrix of this, my Last Will and Testament, and direct that no bond or security be required of her in such capacity. Should she not be living at the time of my death, or fail, or refuse or be unable to act as Independent Executrix, then and in such event, I hereby constitute and appoint my daughter, CAROL ELLISON STOLLENWERCK, as alternate Independent Executrix, without bond. Should she not be living at the time of my death, or fail, or refuse or be unable to act as alternate Independent Executrix, I hereby constitute and appoint my son-in-law, SAM STOLLENWERCK, as alternate Independent Executor, without bond.

During the period of administration of my estate, I specifically empower my Executrix and any alternate to execute oil, gas and mineral leases for such term and under such terms and conditions, including pooling provisions, as my Executrix or alternate, in the sole discretion of such person, may deem advisable, covering any mineral interests which may be a part of my estate at the time of my death. In addition, my Executrix or alternate shall have all powers granted to Trustees under the Texas Trust Act, as amended.

VIII.

My wife and I at approximately the same time are executing similar wills in which each of us is the recipient of the other's property to a greater or lesser extent; however, these wills are not the result of any contract or agreement between us and either will may be revoked at any time at the sole discretion of the maker thereof.

IX.

It is my will and desire that no other action shall be had in the County Court in the administration of my estate than the probating and recording of this, my Last Will, and the return of statutory inventory, appraisement and list of claims of such estate and all claims due or owing by me at the time of my death.

This I make and publish as my Last Will and Testament, hereunto signing and subscribing my name, this the 17th day of

AUTHORIZING LETTERS TESTAMENTARY

On this day came on to be heard the Application for Probate of Will and Issuance of Letters Testamentary filed by CORA CHARLES ELLISON ("Applicant") in the Estate of E. A. ELLISON, Deceased ("Decedent").

The Court, having heard the evidence and having reviewed the Will and the other documents filed herein, finds that the allegations contained in the Application are true; that notice and citation have been given in the manner and for the length of time required by law; that Decedent is dead and that four years have not elapsed since the date of Decedent's death; that this Court has jurisdiction and venue of the Decedent's estate; that Decedent left a Will dated July 17, 1970, executed with the formalities and solemnities and under the circumstances required by law to make it a valid Will; that on such date Decedent had attained the age of 18 years and was of sound mind; that such Will was not revoked by Decedent; that no objection to or contest of the probate of such Will has been filed; that all of the necessary proof required for the probate of such Will has been made; that such Will is entitled to probate; that in said Will, Decedent named CORA CHARLES ELLISON as Independent Executrix to serve without bond, who is duly qualified and not disqualified by law to act as such and to receive Letters Testamentary; and that no impediment exists for the administration of this estate.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that such Will is admitted to probate, and the Clerk of this Court is directed to

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
HORACE WELSH JACKSON

I, Horace Welsh Jackson (also known as H. W. Jackson), an adult resident citizen of Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and over the age of twenty-one years, do hereby make publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM ONE:

I hereby direct my Executor to pay all of my just debts which may be probated, registered and allowed against my estate as soon as may be conveniently done. I direct my Executor to pay all Federal and State estate, inheritance, succession, transfer, or other death taxes which may be assessed against my estate or against any beneficiary, including estate and inheritance taxes assessed on account of life insurance proceeds or any other property which shall be included in my gross estate for the purpose of such taxes, whether or not included in my estate for probate purposes, out of my residuary estate, if applicable.

ITEM TWO:

I give, bequeath, and devise all property, real and personal, that I may own at the time of my death unto my wife, Mace M. Jackson, if she shall survive me.

ITEM THREE:

In the event that my said wife shall not survive me, then in such event I give, bequeath, and devise my estate and property as follows, to-wit:

(a) I give, bequeath, and devise unto my daughter Charlotte Jackson Walley and my grandchildren, namely, James B. Dukes, Jr., and Horace Jackson Dukes (also known as "Jackie" Dukes), share and share alike, all of my clothing, books, jewelry, automobiles, and other items of personal use and adornment; and also all of my right, title, and interest in the household furniture, carpets, rugs, pictures, silverware, china ware, and other such items of household furnishings and accessories situated in my dwelling house; and also all of my right, title, and interest in what is known as the "Lake Neoma" property and the clubhouse situated in Section 20, Township 10 North, Range 3 East, Madison County, Mississippi, together with all furnishings and accessories located in said clubhouse.

(b) I give, bequeath, and devise all the balance, remainder and residue of my estate and property of every nature and kind and wheresoever situated as follows, to-wit:

(1) ONE THIRD THEREOF to the Trustee hereinafter designated, in trust, for the use and benefit of my daughter, Charlotte Jackson Walley, and which trust shall be known as the Charlotte Jackson Walley Trust and shall continue during the lifetime of my said daughter so far as the income and corpus thereof will permit, and upon the death of my said daughter said trust shall terminate, and the balance remaining therein shall pass and go to my grandsons, namely, James B. Dukes, Jr., and Horace Jackson Dukes (also known as "Jackie" Dukes), share and share alike, or to their living issue, per stirpes; and

(2) ONE THIRD THEREOF to my grandson, James B. Dukes, Jr.; and

(3) ONE THIRD THEREOF to my grandson, Horace Jackson Dukes (also known as "Jackie" Dukes);

but should any of the aforesaid legatees and/or devisees predecease me, then the share of such deceased legatee and/or devisee shall pass and go to the living issue of such deceased legatee and/or devisee, per stirpes.

(c) PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if any person that may be entitled to share in my estate under the provisions of this clause of my will or otherwise shall not at the time of my death have attained his or her majority, then the share of such minor person shall be transferred to the Trustee hereunder in trust and shall be held and administered in trust by said trustee for the use and benefit of such minor, if any, until such minor shall have attained his or her legal majority.

ITEM IV:

I do hereby name, designate, constitute, and appoint the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CANTON, Canton, Mississippi, as TRUSTEE of any and all trusts created by this will.

The Trustee as to any trust created by this will is authorized and empowered in its discretion to make disbursements to the respective beneficiaries or for their use and benefit, out of income or corpus, at such intervals and in such amounts as it may determine to be reasonable and proper for the needs, comfort, care, and welfare of any such beneficiary, and it is my wish and desire that the trustee be generous towards the beneficiaries in the administration of the respective trusts.

ITEM FIVE:

All of the trusts herein above created are private trusts, and the trustee shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of any Court for the exercise of any power or discretion herein given. The trustee shall not be required to enter into any bond as trustee, nor shall it be required to return to any Court any periodic formal accounting of its administration of any of said trusts, but said trustee shall render annual accounts to the various beneficiaries of said trusts. No person paying money or delivering property to the trustee shall be required to see to its application. The trustee in all of the trusts herein created may resign at any time by giving written notice to the beneficiaries entitled to participate in the trust at the time of said resignation, specifying in said notice the effective date of such resignation. Should the trustee herein named resign, fail, decline, or refuse to act, then a banking corporation as successor trustee may be appointed by a Court of competent jurisdiction, and the successor trustee shall have the same title, powers, and discretion herein given the original trustee.

In addition to all inherent and statutory powers and to the powers, privileges, titles, and obligations heretofore vested in the trustee for the trusts herein created, said trustee shall be vested with the following powers, privileges, titles, and obligations, to-wit:

1. To continue in operation any business or businesses in which I may be engaged at the time of my death, without court approval and without limitation of any kind whatsoever.

2. To lease for such periods of time or to rent at such rental and for such consideration and upon such conditions as the trustee may see fit, any real and/or personal property or any minerals belonging to said trust estate;

3. To employ auditors, attorneys, tax men, real estate agents, security brokers, and any other person it may find advisable to use for the proper administration of the trust, and any reasonable compensation incurred for such services shall be included in and paid as expenses hereunder;

4. In the event such circumstances arise and the trustee feels that a reasonable, prudent businessman would borrow money, then the trustee is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow such sums as may be necessary, and to pledge, mortgage, or create a lien against any of the assets of the trust to secure such loan or loans;

5. To pay, settle or compromise all claims and obligations held by or asserted against said trust, all in such manner and upon such terms as it may deem advisable.

6. To invest and reinvest the trust estate in any property or undivided interest therein, wherever located, including bonds, notes (secured or unsecured), stocks of corporations, real estate or any interest therein, and interests in trusts, including common trust funds, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by Trustees;

7. To sell any trust property for cash or on credit, at public or private sale; to exchange any trust property for other property; to grant options to purchase or acquire any trust property; and to determine the prices and terms of sales, exchanges and options;

as follows:

8. To keep any property in the name of a trustee with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship;
9. To determine the manner of ascertainment of income and principal, and the apportionment between income and principal of all receipts and disbursements;
10. To receive additional property from any source and add it to and commingle it with the trust estate;
11. To enter into any transaction authorized by this instrument with trustees or legal representatives of any other trust or estate in which any beneficiary hereunder has any beneficial interest, even though any such trustee or legal representative is also trustee hereunder;
12. To make any distribution or division of the trust property in cash or in kind, or both; to allot different kinds or disproportionate shares of property or undivided interests in property among the beneficiaries or portions, and to determine the value of any such property; and to continue to exercise any powers and discretion herein given for a reasonable period after the termination of the trust, but only for so long as no rule or law relating to perpetuities would be violated;
13. To exercise any or all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, privileges, elections, and options, pertaining to any such property, and to grant proxies, discretionary or otherwise, in respect thereof; and to receive and retain any property that may be acquired by it as the result of the exercise of any such rights, privileges, elections or options;
14. To extend the time of payment of any obligation, including accrued or accruing interest, held by it hereunder;
15. To make partition division or distribution of property in kind, and, for any such purpose, to determine the value of any such property;
16. To execute oil, gas and mineral leases, royalty and mineral deeds, or other contracts and agreements pertaining to minerals and royalties, covering or pertaining to any trust property, on such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable;

17. To perform any and all such other acts, and to take any and all such other proceedings and to exercise all such other rights and privileges in respect to any property, as if it were the absolute owner thereof, and, in connection therewith, to enter into any and all agreements binding any trust hereunder.

ITEM SIX:

The trustee of any trust herein created shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered in administering and distributing the trust property, and to reimbursement for expenses.

ITEM SEVEN:

No rights of any beneficiary hereunder shall be subject to assignment or to anticipation, or liable for any indebtedness or obligation of any beneficiary, or subject to attachment or any other order, decree or process of court on account of, or for the purpose of collecting any such indebtedness or obligation and the trustee shall not be required to make any disbursement to any assignee or creditor of any beneficiary otherwise than into the hands of the beneficiary in person. This provision shall not limit the exercise of any power of appointment.

ITEM EIGHT:

In the event that my wife and I should die under circumstances whereby it would be difficult or impractical to determine who survived the other, then for the purpose of construing this will my wife shall be deemed to have survived me.

ITEM NINE:

I name, constitute, and appoint the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CANTON, Canton, Mississippi, as executor of this will and do hereby relieve said executor of making bond or accounting to any Court. Should said executor herein named refuse or be unable to act, then it is my desire and request that the Court having jurisdiction over the administration of my estate designate another banking association authorized to do business in the State of Mississippi as executor hereunder with all of the rights, privileges, powers, and discretion given the executor herein named.

ITEM TEN:

I suggest and request that my executor and trustee hereunder retain my attorney, R. H. Powell, Jr., of the firm of Powell & Fancher of Canton, Mississippi, as legal counsel in connection with the administration of my estate and the trusts hereunder. I make this as a suggestion and request, but the executor and trustee shall have the right to employ other or additional counsel at any time and from time to time as it may deem advisable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name, this the
