LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF HELEN S. YANDELL

I, HELEN S. YANDELL, being over the age of twenty-one years and of sound and disposing mind and memory and a resident of Canton in Madison County, Mississippi, do hereby make, declare and publish this my Last Will and Testament, expressly revoking all other wills and testaments and codicils thereto heretofore made by me.

ITEM I.

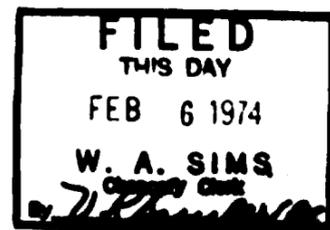

I do hereby nominate and appoint D. R. Yandell and W. M. Yandell as Executors of my estate. Should either of said Executors fail, refuse, or neglect to qualify as Executor, the other shall serve as Executor, and if either in the course of the administration of my estate shall resign, die or otherwise become incapacitated to serve, then the other shall conclude the administration of my estate. If both of said executors shall fail, refuse or neglect to qualify as Executors, or resign, die, or otherwise become incapacitated to serve as Executor, then I nominate and appoint Canton Exchange Bank of Canton, Mississippi as Executor of my estate. No Executor nor Executors above named shall ever be required to furnish bond or account to any court.

ITEM II.

As soon as possible after my death, my Executor shall pay all of my just and lawful debts, including funeral expenses, payment of State and Federal inheritance taxes, and administrative expenses.

ITEM III.

I give and bequeath unto KATHRYN YANDELL, the daughter of D. R. Yandell, my diamond ring.

BOOK 015 PAGE 02

ITEM IV.

I give and bequeath unto W. M. YANDELL the dining room sideboard and the marble top wash stand located in my residence.

ITEM V.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my brother, RICHARD R. STERLING, the following items, to-wit:

1. My residence located on East Fulton Street in the City of Canton, Mississippi;
2. The furniture of said residence, with the exception of the items given to W. M. Yandell above;
3. The vacant lot next to my residence on East Fulton Street in Canton, Mississippi.

ITEM VI.

All of the rest and residue of my estate I give, devise and bequeath unto D. R. YANDELL and W. M. YANDELL, TRUSTEES, in trust for the following uses and purposes, to-wit:

The Trustees are hereby directed to sell all of my property that comes into their hands or to their knowledge, and are to distribute the proceeds of said sales as follows:

1. No distribution whatsoever shall be made until all inheritance taxes, State and Federal, have been paid in full and approved by the respective governmental authorities.
2. The net proceeds of the sale of my property, after deducting all expenses, shall be divided into parts and distributed by the Trustees as follows:

To D. R. YANDELL, and in the event of his death to his heirs at law, ONE PART; and if, for any cause, said D. R. Yandell is disqualified from taking under this item, then, and in that event, this one (1) part and the undistributed portion thereof, I give, devise and bequeath unto Doris J. Yandell and his children living at the time of my death, share and share alike;

To LUNSFORD P. YANDELL, and in the event of his death to his heirs at law, ONE (1) PART;

BOOK 015 PAGE 03

To the children of Wilma Yandell Mangin, who are: CHARLES GEOFFREY MANGIN, MARILYN MANGIN MORRISS, JEAN ELIZABETH MANGIN, ROBERT YANDELL MANGIN, and THOMAS DAVID MANGIN, ONE (1) PART;

To EUGENIA GILBERT SELLECK during her lifetime, ONE (1) PART, and upon her death the undistributed portion of this share shall revert to the Trustees for distribution to the remaining beneficiaries of this Trust;

To GERALDINE GILBERT NEWHALL, and in the event of her death to her heirs at law, ONE (1) PART;

To JEAN YANDELL ABEL, and in the event of her death to her heirs at law, ONE (1) PART;

To JANICE YANDELL HIRD, and in the event of her death to her heirs at law, ONE (1) PART;

To GERALD E. STERLING, and in the event of his death to his heirs at law, ONE (1) PART;

To BARBARA STERLING DOWLING, and in the event of her death, to her heirs at law, ONE (1) PART;

To RICHARD R. STERLING during his lifetime, ONE (1) PART, and upon his death his children shall receive distribution from this part, share and share alike;

To MATTIE WHITE, ONE (1) PART, and upon her death the undistributed portion of this part shall revert to the Trustees for distribution to the remaining beneficiaries of this Trust.

3. The Trustees may, in their discretion alone, make distribution of the cash in the trust estate at such time as they see fit; however, it is strongly recommended that said Trustees make at least one distribution each year.

4. I have purposely not placed a time limit on the sale of my property, as it is my desire that the Trustees use their sole discretion as to the time and manner of sale and as to the value of property sold.

5. In the event that any of the beneficiaries hereinabove named are indebted to me at the time of my death, or any advances made by me to any of the beneficiaries that are evidenced by promissory note, regardless of date, shall be repaid to my estate out of the first monies distributed by the Trustee or Trustees.

6. It is contemplated that the Trustees, or one of them, will desire to purchase some or all of the property belonging to me at the time of my death, and either or both of said Trustees may purchase all or any part of my estate with the written consent of S. R. Cain, Jr. or with the written consent of W. S. Cain.

ITEM VII.

Should either of the Trustees named in ITEM VI. of this Will fail, refuse or neglect to act as Trustee, the other shall serve as Trustee, and if either of said Trustees at any time shall resign, die or otherwise become incapacitated to serve, then the other Trustee shall act alone. If both of said Trustees, fail, refuse or neglect to act as Trustee, or resign, die or otherwise become incapacitated to serve as Trustee, then I nominate and appoint CANTON EXCHANGE BANK OF CANTON, MISSISSIPPI as Trustee under this my Last Will and Testament. No Trustee nor Trustees shall be required to furnish bond or account to any court, and in the event that Canton Exchange Bank serves as Trustee, said Bank is hereby vested with all of the authorities granted to the original Trustees, except the right to purchase any portion of my estate.

ITEM VIII.

No beneficiary of this trust shall have the right, power or authority to anticipate any payments of income or corpus from this trust fund, nor shall any one of them have the power or authority to pledge, appoint or create any lien or encumbrance against, sell, transfer, assign, convey, give or otherwise dispose of any part of the income or corpus of this trust fund until the same has been delivered unto the beneficiaries by the Trustees, freed from the terms and conditions of this Trust, nor shall any part of said income or corpus of said Trust Fund be liable for the debts of any beneficiary or be subject to execution, attachment, garnishment, or any other process of law or equity while in the hands of the Trustees.

ITEM IX.

In addition to the power, privileges, titles and obligations heretofore vested in the Executors and Trustees, said Executors and Trustees shall be vested with the following power, privileges, titles and obligations, to-wit:

1. To retain any property of my estate, or any undivided interest therein, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk, or non-productivity;

2. To sell any trust property for cash or on credit, at public or private sale; to exchange any trust property for other property; to grant options to purchase or acquire any trust property; to determine the prices and terms of sales, exchanges and options;

To execute leases and sub-leases for terms as long as five (5) years, even though such terms may extend beyond the termination of the trust; to subdivide or improve real estate and tear down or alter improvements; to grant easements, to give consents and make contracts relating to real estate or its use, and to release or dedicate any interest in real estate;

4. To borrow money from time to time and for any such purpose to mortgage or pledge any trust property;

5. To take any action with respect to conserving or realising upon the value of any trust property and, with respect to foreclosures, reorganizations or other changes affecting the trust property, to collect, pay, contest, compromise or abandon demands of or against the trust estate, wherever situated; and to execute contracts, notes, conveyances and other instruments, including instruments containing covenants and warranties binding upon and creating a charge against the trust estate, and containing provisions excluding personal liability;

6. To employ agents, attorneys, auditors, depositaries and proxies, with or without discretionary powers;

BOOK 015 PAGE 06

7. To receive additional property from any source, and add it to and commingle it with the trust estate;

8. To make any distribution or division of the trust property in cash or in kind, or both, and to allot different kinds or disproportionate shares of property or undivided interests in property among the beneficiaries or portions, and to determine the value of any such property; and to continue to exercise any powers and discretion herein given for a reasonable period after the termination of the trust, but only for so long as no rule of law relating to perpetuities would be violated;

9. To exercise any or all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, privileges, elections and options, pertaining to any such property, and to grant proxies, discretionary or otherwise, in respect thereof; and to receive and retain any property that may be acquired as the result of the exercise of any such rights, privileges, elections or options;

10. To extend the time of payment of any obligation, including accrued or accruing interest, held by them hereunder;

That I, MEYER L. WILE, of the State and County aforesaid, of sound and disposing mind and memory, and above the age of twenty-one (21) years, do make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all Wills and Codicils heretofore made by me.

I.

I will that my Independent Executors (hereinafter referred to as Executor) shall pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses and expenses of administration of my estate, and in addition, all Federal Estate and State Inheritance taxes that may be chargeable against my estate and against the devises and bequests herein made, including all such taxes legally chargeable against my estate on account of any insurance on my life, using for all such purposes so much of my estate as shall be necessary and in such order and manner as I have provided hereinafter, and without right of reimbursement against my person on account of any such payment. If the need should arise, my Executor is expressly authorized and empowered to renew and extend any obligations which may be owing by me at the time of my decease.

II.

A. I give and bequeath to JOE BADT of Shreveport, Louisiana, my guns, pistols, hunting paraphernalia, and any pictures he may select.

B. I give and bequeath to GUY BRIANT, JR., Post Office
 Box 342, Ore City, Texas, and A. H. (JOE) LEWIS, 1004 East Bedell, Fort Worth, Texas, all of my fishing tackle, to be divided between them.

C. I give and bequeath to HAROLD SCHIFF, my Oriental rug and needlepoint chair.

D. I give and bequeath to MARY T. WILE BADT, any car which I may own at the time of my death.

E. I give to the Fort Worth Council of Jewish Women all of my books for the Book Fair, after my family has had the first opportunity to take what they want.

F. The balance of my furniture and clothing, including household items, are to be divided among my relatives as they may decide. Any items which they do not want are to go to the Salvation Army and Goodwill Industries.

III.

I have received certain assets from the J. G. Loeb Trust, and I am the owner of certain undivided interests in various properties held in said Trust. The stocks, bonds, and pass-books of the savings and loan accounts derived from this Trust are located in a safety deposit box #1003 in the South Fort Worth State Bank. Included among the assets of said Trust are shares in the Wiener-Wile Corporation of Jackson, Mississippi. I give, devise and bequeath to my sister, FLORENCE WILE, all of the assets which I have received from the J.G. Loeb Trust and described in this paragraph. In the event of the prior death of Florence Wile, then I give, devise and bequeath these assets to MARY T. WILE BADT.

IV.

My wife, SADIE SCHIFF WILE, who predeceased me, and I accumulated certain assets, the principal portion of which are presently located in safety deposit box #302-A in The Fort Worth National Bank, and savings and checking accounts in the South Fort Worth State Bank and in The Fort Worth National Bank. These assets, I give, devise and bequeath as follows:

(1) One-half (1/2) to HAROLD SCHIFF

(2) One-fourth (1/4) to MARY T. WILE BADT

(3) One-fourth (1/4) to my nephew, JOE BADT

In the event of the prior death of HAROLD SCHIFF, the bequest to him shall pass three-fourths (3/4) to FLORENCE WILE and one-fourth (1/4) to MARY T. WILE BADT.

In the event of the prior death of JOE BADT, then MARY T. WILE BADT shall be entitled to that portion bequeathed to him.

V.

I have provided that all of my life insurance be made payable to my estate, and from this fund I make the following gifts and bequests:

A. To the NATIONAL JEWISH HOSPITAL at Denver, 3800 East Colfax Avenue, Denver, Colorado, 80206, the sum of Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00).

B. To BETH-EL CONGREGATION, Corner Galveston and Broadway, Fort Worth, Texas, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

C. To each of my grandnieces and grandnephews, of whom there are fourteen (14) at the present time, the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each, and payment to the parent of a minor shall be sufficient and is hereby authorized and approved.

Any balance remaining from the proceeds of my life insurance shall then be applied toward the payment of my debts, including Inheritance taxes and expenses of administration of my estate. I desire that such items of expense be first paid from the life insurance proceeds, and then any balance remaining unpaid of such expense items, to be paid from the assets referred to in Paragraph IV. above.

In the event after the payment of the above special bequests and the payment of debts, taxes and expenses of administration, any balance shall remain of the insurance proceeds, then such balance is bequeathed in equal shares to FLORENCE WILE and MARY T. WILE BADT.

VI.

In the event of the death of FLORENCE WILE or MARY T. WILE BADT prior to my death, then the survivor (who shall be living at the time of my decease) shall be entitled to that portion of the deceased beneficiary.

VII.

I have not disposed of my estate in equal shares, not because I do not care equally for all of my relatives, but I have tried to consider the financial conditions and needs of my relatives. I do care for and I am fond of all of them equally.

VIII.

All the remainder and residue of my estate, including all assets not specifically bequeathed or devised, I give in fee simple to my beloved sister, FLORENCE WILE, and in the event of her prior death to MARY T. WILE BADT and JOE BADT.

IX.

I do hereby appoint JACQUES L. WIENER, ED WILE and BEN M. GILBERT as Independent Executors, and in the event of the death, refusal or inability to act of any of the persons named herein then the remaining person or persons shall act with full power and authority. I further direct that no bond be required of any of them and that no other action shall be had in the County of Probate Court in relation to the settlement of my estate than the probating and recording of this Will and the return of an Inventory, Appraisement and List of Claims of my estate.

My Independent Executors shall be entitled to reasonable compensation, as such, for their services. My Independent Executors are hereby authorized to use the funds as provided in Paragraphs IV. and V. above for the payment of any and all taxes, debts and expenses of administration of my estate, and in this connection they shall determine within their own discretion as to which funds and which particular assets are to be used for such purposes. My Executors are especially authorized to sell any and all assets of my estate as such action shall be necessary in the administration of my estate, and they shall be the sole judges of such necessity. They shall have full power to act on behalf of my estate as if they were the owners thereof.

This I make, publish and declare as my Last Will and Testament, consisting of five (5) pages, hereunto signing and subscribing my name this the 18th day of April 1969, in the presence of Gene McComas and Marcell Tidwell, who attest the same at my request.

Whereas, I, Meyer L. Wile, of Tarrant County, Texas, have heretofore made my last will, duly executed by me, witness by Gene McComas and Martell Tidwell and dated April 18, 1969, and now desire to make this a codicil to my said will:

Now, therefore, I do by this writing, which I hereby declare to be a codicil to my said will, give and bequeath to Mrs. L. B. LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF ROGER PRYOR STEWART

I, ROGER PRYOR STEWART, an adult resident citizen of the City of Canton, Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, and I do hereby revoke any and all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I

I do give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart, the lot and dwelling house thereon which we now occupy as a residence, or any other home that I may own and occupy as a residence at the time of my death, together with all my clothing, jewelry and other personal effects, as well as any household furnishings that I may own.

ARTICLE II

In the event that my wife should not survive me, then I do give, devise and bequeath all of the items mentioned in Article I of this Will to our child, Georgia Lynn Stewart. However, if at the time of my death there have been other children born to this marriage, then I give, devise and bequeath all the items in Article I to our children, share and share alike, or if any of my children should predecease me, to the issue of such child or children, per stirpes. I request that this property be divided among our children as nearly as possible according to each one's preference. In case of disagreement as to any item, my Executor shall determine the method of making allocation of that item, and the results of the allocation by that method shall be conclusive.

ARTICLE III

I give and bequeath to the First Baptist Church of Canton, Mississippi, the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

ARTICLE IV

In the event that my wife, Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart, survives me, I give, devise and bequeath to the First National Bank of Canton, Canton, Mississippi, as Trustee for my said wife, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, an amount equal to the maximum marital deduction allowable under the Federal estate tax laws with respect to my estate; provided, however, that the amount so left in trust pursuant to this paragraph shall be reduced by the value of the property qualifying for said marital deduction which passes or has passed to my said wife, either under other provisions of this Will or outside of this Will. No assets shall be made a part of this trust which do not qualify for said marital deduction. This trust shall be known as the Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart Trust. The determination as to what property of my estate shall constitute the property going into this trust shall be left to the sole discretion of the hereinafter named Executor, but the cash and other property selected in satisfaction of such bequest, devise or transfer in trust shall have an aggregate fair market value fairly representative of the distributee's proportionate share of the appreciation or depreciation in the value to the date, or dates, of distribution of all property then available for distribution. All values shall be those finally determined for Federal estate tax purposes. The amount of assets comprising this Elizabeth McKensie Stewart Trust shall be determined before there is a reduction of my estate by reason of inheritance, estate or transfer taxes due by reason of my death. Said Elizabeth McKensie Stewart Trust shall be administered by said Trustee as follows:

A. Calculated from the date of death, the Trustee shall pay over to or apply for the sole benefit of my wife in monthly installments as nearly equal as practicable, all of the net income of this trust, to the end that all of the net income shall be paid to her or applied for her benefit at least annually.

B. If the total income of my said wife is, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, insufficient to enable her to maintain her present standard of living, or if, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, an emergency has arisen, then the Trustee may pay to her out of the principal of the trust such additional sum or sums as the Trustee shall deem proper. In making this determination, the Trustee may take into consideration my said wife's assets and income from sources other than this trust. The Trustee is also authorized to pay any and all medical, nursing, hospital or other related bills which may be incurred by my said wife, out of income or corpus, or both.

C. The Trustee in its administration of this trust shall have full and complete authority to do any and all things necessary for the orderly and efficient administration of the estate, and, without limiting this general authority by the following enumeration, shall, to that end, be clothed with absolute rights, powers and discretions:

1. To sell, transfer, convey, mortgage, lease and dispose of the trust property upon such terms and in such manner and for such prices as the Trustee shall deem proper.

2. To manage and control the trust property, with power to invest and reinvest the same in such property as it shall, in its sole discretion, deem proper, and to do all things necessary or incidental to the investment or reinvestment of the trust property of the estate and the collection of income therefrom.

3. To invest funds in a common trust fund established by the Trustee pursuant to the Uniform Common Trust Fund Act of Mississippi.

4. To retain, with no obligation to sell, any property coming into its hands as Trustee under the terms of this instrument, and the Trustee may, in its sole judgment, continue to hold and retain any and all of the investments, securities and property which may come into its hands by virtue of this Will, whether or not the same would be treated as legal for the investment of trust funds.

5. To expend from the income, rents, profits, dividends and/or proceeds from the sales of the trust property the necessary expenses of administering this trust, including taxes, Trustee's fees and attorneys' fees.

6. To determine upon all allocations, charges or credits as between principal and income. Any dividends payable in the stock of any corporation, or rights to subscribe to shares of stock or other securities or obligations of a corporation which may accrue to the trust, and the proceeds of any sale of such rights, shall be deemed to be principal and shall be treated as such. Likewise, all liquidating dividends shall be deemed to be principal. All other cash dividends received by the Trustee shall be income and shall be disposed of as such.

7. To complete, extend, modify or renew any loans, notes, mortgages, contracts or other obligations which I may owe, in such manner as it may deem advisable.

8. To pay, settle or compromise all claims and obligations held by or asserted against said trust, all in such manner and upon such terms as it may deem advisable.

9. To participate in any plan of reorganization, consolidation or dissolution or similar proceedings involving assets comprising the trust estate, and to deposit or withdraw securities under any such proceedings.

10. To exercise all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights pertaining to securities held in the trust.

11. To permit available trust funds to remain temporarily uninvested, or, in its discretion, to place on time deposit in a Savings Account in the First National Bank of Canton, cash funds coming into its hands which the Trustee deems it desirable to accumulate for use at a given time in the future in connection with the administration of the trust.

12. To receive and retain, so long as it deems wise, shares of stock in the First National Bank of Canton, Canton, Mississippi, issued as stock dividends, and to subscribe and pay for, receive and retain so long as it deems wise to do so any additional shares of stock hereafter lawfully authorized by the stockholders of the said First National Bank of Canton.

13. To hold investments in the name of a nominee.

D. The powers and authority given to the Trustee herein are in addition to any inherent, implied or statutory powers it may now have or hereafter acquire, and said powers granted herein are not to limit or restrict the Trustee in the exercise of such inherent, implied or statutory powers.

E. Upon the death of my said wife, the entire remaining corpus and all accrued income of the Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart Trust shall be paid over to such appointee or appointees, or to the estate of my said wife, free of any trust created in this Will, in the manner and proportions as my said wife may designate and appoint in her Last Will and Testament, by making specific reference therein to this Article of my Will, as the source of the power. The power of appointment herein granted to my said wife shall be exercisable by her alone and in all events. Upon the death of my said wife, Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart, and in the event that she shall default in the exercise of the power of appointment herein granted to her, the entire remaining corpus and all accrued income of the Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart Trust shall be distributed among the residuary legatees as provided for and directed by Article V of this Will.

F. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this my Will, I direct: (1) That my Trustee shall not retain beyond a reasonable time any property which may be or become unproductive property nor shall it invest in unproductive property; and (2) That in the event of any uncertainty regarding the interpretation of the provisions of this trust for my wife, it is my intention that its provisions shall be interpreted in a manner which would permit the assets of this trust to qualify for the marital deduction authorized by the United States Internal Revenue Code, as now or hereafter amended; and (3) That none of the powers granted to the Trustee by this Will shall be exercised in such a manner as to disqualify this Trust or any part thereof from the marital deduction allowable in determining the Federal estate tax on my estate.

G. The Trustee shall serve without bond. No person or party dealing with the Trustee shall be under any duty to inquire as to the application or use of any money or property paid over and delivered to the Trustee. The Trustee shall not be required to render periodic accountings to any Court. The Trustee shall, however, account fully and completely, annually, throughout the term of this trust, to Mrs. Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart, as the beneficiary.

ARTICLE V

I devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of the property comprising my estate, of whatsoever kind or character and wheresoever situated, to the First National Bank of Canton, Canton, Mississippi, in trust, nevertheless, for the following uses and purposes and upon the following terms and conditions:

A. The Trustee shall divide the trust property into equal parts, one part for each of my children living, and one part for the issue as a group, of each deceased child, and one part for my wife, Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart, so long as she does not remarry, and each part shall be a separate trust. These trusts shall be known as the Roger Pryor Stewart Trusts.

B. The primary purposes of these trusts are as follows:

1. To maintain my children, or their issue, who shall survive me, in the standard of living to which they are accustomed or in which they might reasonably expect to be maintained.

2. To provide a minimum of four years of college education for each of my children, and to enable them, if they so desire, to engage in graduate education (such as medicine or law). This trust is to provide, if necessary, for the education of each child in private schools, if the Trustee deems such private schools to be more suitable for the education of such child. It shall also provide for the college education of each child in the college or university of that child's choice, whether a state or private institution.

3. To assist my children financially in getting started in their business, or during the early years of their married life.

C. The Trustee shall have the same powers in this trust as those conferred upon the Trustee in ARTICLE IV, sub-paragraph C, hereinabove.

D. The net income from the trust property set aside for each child shall be paid periodically during the terms of the trusts, but in no event less frequently than annually, to each of said children, or, if they be minors, to the minors themselves or to the natural or legal guardian, in the sole discretion of the Trustee.

E. The net income from the trust property set aside for my wife, so long as she does not remarry, shall be used to supplement her income when in the sole discretion of the Trustee the income from the Trust established in ARTICLE IV hereinabove, is insufficient to supply her needs.

F. The Trustee is authorized, in its sole discretion, to pay out of principal or income any and all bills which may be incurred by my children in obtaining an education, and to pay any and all medical, nursing, hospital or other related bills which may be incurred by any of my children or by the husband or wife of any of my children. Also, if at any time it should appear to the Trustee, in its sole discretion, that the net income above provided for to be paid to my said children is insufficient to meet their reasonable needs, by reason of some unforeseen casualty or providence or illness, or because of loss of property belonging to them or any of them, and that the corpus of the trust fund should be invaded for such needs, then, in its sole discretion, the Trustee may pay over to such child such additional sums as it shall deem proper.

G. In dividing the principal or the trust fund into parts or shares, as hereinbefore provided for, the Trustee is authorized and empowered in its sole discretion to make division or distribution in kind and partly in money. The judgment of the Trustee concerning the division or distribution of the property among the trusts and concerning values for the purpose of such division or distribution of the property or securities shall be binding and conclusive on all parties interested therein.

H. As to any child who survives me and who shall be, at the time of my death under twenty-five (25) years of age, I direct that as and when such child attains the age of twenty-five (25) years, the Trustee shall pay over, deliver, assign, transfer and convey to such child one-sixth (1/6) of the trust estate for that child, and on each succeeding birthday of that child the Trustee shall pay over, deliver, assign, transfer and convey to such child an additional one-sixth (1/6) of the trust estate of that child, until said trust estate shall be terminated. If any surviving child of mine shall be twenty-five (25) years of age or over, but less than thirty (30) years of age at the time of my death, the Trustee shall pay over, deliver, assign, transfer and convey to such child an amount which would be equal to the amount that said child would have already received had he been given one-sixth (1/6) of his trust estate annually beginning on his twenty-fifth (25) birthday, and the remainder of his trust estate is to be paid over, delivered, assigned, transferred and conveyed to such child on each succeeding birthday, in equal increments in such a manner that said child's trust estate will become depleted and terminated on said child's thirtieth (30th) birthday.

I. If any of my children predecease me, leaving issue, I direct that the Trustee shall pay to the issue of such child such amounts, and at such times, of corpus or income or both, as the Trustee shall, in its sole discretion, deem proper.

J. The terms of the trusts herein created shall be as follows:

1. The trust for each child who shall survive me shall continue until that child attains the age of thirty (30) years, or until said child's death, whichever is the sooner. Upon the termination of the trust as above provided, any remaining corpus or undistributed income shall be turned over to my said child, or, if such child shall have died, the same shall be distributed equally among the then-living children, if any, of my said child; and if there be no surviving issue of my said child, then any remaining corpus and undistributed income in said deceased child's trust estate shall be turned over to my other children, share and share alike, or their issue, per stirpes.

2. The trust for my wife, Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart, if she shall survive me, shall continue until she remarries or until my said wife's death. Upon termination of the trust as herein provided, any remaining corpus or undistributed income shall be turned over to the children, share and share alike, to be added to and commingled with the trust estate of each child and shall be distributed as a part of each child's trust estate.

ARTICLE VI

In the event that I shall not be survived by my wife, Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart, or any child or children, then I hereby give, devise and bequeath all of my estate property of whatsoever kind or character and wheresoever situated, to the following in the proportions shown:

1. To my Mother, Frances Van Landingham Stewart, 25% thereof;
2. To my brother, James Newland Stewart, Jr., 15% thereof, but if he does not survive me then to his issue, per stirpes;
3. To my brother, Broadus Van Landingham Stewart, 15% thereof, but if he does not survive me then to his issue, per stirpes;
4. To the First Baptist Church of Canton, Mississippi, 20% thereof;
5. To Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McKenzie, the parents of my wife, Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart, to share equally 15% thereof;
6. To the brothers and sisters of my wife, Elizabeth McKenzie Stewart, to share equally among them, 10% thereof, but if any of them do not survive me, then to the issue of such deceased, per stirpes.

ARTICLE VII

I hereby direct my Executor to pay all Federal and State estate, inheritance, succession, transfer, or other death taxes which are assessed against my estate or against any beneficiary, including estate and inheritance taxes assessed on account of life insurance proceeds or any other property which shall be included in my gross estate for the purposes of such taxes, whether or not included in my estate for probate purposes, out of my residuary estate.

ARTICLE VIII

Neither the principal nor the income of the trust funds, except for the Elisabeth McKensie Stewart Trust, nor any part of same, shall be liable for the debts of any beneficiary hereunder, nor shall the same be subject to seizure by any creditor of any beneficiary hereunder, and no beneficiary hereunder shall have any power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber, or in any manner to anticipate or dispose of his or her interest in the trust fund, or any part of same, or the income produced from the said fund, or any part of same.

ARTICLE IX

In the event my wife, Elisabeth McKensie Stewart, and I shall each die under such circumstances that it cannot be determined which of us is the survivor, I hereby declare that she shall be deemed to have survived me, and this Will and all of its provisions shall be construed upon that assumption.

ARTICLE X

1. I appoint First National Bank of Canton, Canton, Mississippi, as Executor of this Will and designate said bank as Trustee in the trust provisions hereof, and with all the powers and discretion with respect to the trust property, to be exercised without court order. The said Executor is to serve as such without bond or the requirements of formal accountings.

2. If another corporation succeeds to the trust business of my Executor, or of any corporate Trustee hereunder, before or after my death, such successor shall become Executor or Trustee hereunder, or both, as the case may be.

3. If First National Bank shall have hereafter merged or consolidated with any other bank or trust company, the corporation created by such merger or consolidation shall thereafter act as Executor and Trustee hereunder and shall be subject to all the terms and conditions set forth herein and entitled to all the rights, powers, and discretion herein vested in the Trustee.
