The Trustee or Trustee at any time acting, whether original or successor, will hereinafter be referred to as Trustees, and shall have power, in their uncontrolled discretion, precisely as I would have if I were alive, to manage, control, improve, lease for ninety-nine years or for any shorter period or periods, make oil, gas and mineral leases and other conveyances of mineral or royalty interests, sell, convey, dispose of, exchange, charge, mortgage, pledge, loan, invest, convert and reconvert, in such manner and on such terms as they see fit, any and all property that comes into their hands by virtue of this trust. Any property left by me and coming into the hands of Trustees at the inception of this trust shall, for purposes hereof, be deemed a proper trust investment, and Trustees shall be under no obligation to dispose of or convert any such property. The decision of Trustees as to what property is corpus and what property is income of my estate shall be final and binding on all parties at interest hereunder, subject only to the limitation that at all times reasonable reserves for depreciation, depletion and other purposes shall be retained in the trust estate as protection against dimunition of corpus. Trustees may borrow money, enter into contracts, execute obligations, negotiable or non-negotiable, vote shares of stock, purchase, sell and/or exchange shares of stock, stock warrants and/or other certificates of interest, pay all reasonable expenses incurred on behalf of the trust estate, and use or dispose of the corpus or income of the trust estate, or any portion of same, for any use or purpose given by or implied under this will. Trustees shall have power to execute and deliver bills of sale, deeds, conveyances, transfers, leases, oil, gas and mineral leases, and other conveyances of mineral or royalty interests, and contracts and written instruments of any character appropriate to any of the powers herein given them. No person paying money or other thing in its stead to Trustees on Trustees' receipt shall be required to look to the application of same or be answerable for the misapplication or new application of the same. Trustees shall have and exercise all the rights and powers respecting the property of the trust estate that Trustees would have in transacting their own business and administering and handling their own property. Trustees may form a corporation or corporations and convey to it or them the trust estate, or any part thereof, and hold subject to the provisions of this will the considerations accruing therefrom, whether the same be in the form of shares, certificates of interest or other things of value; and Trustees may distribute same to the beneficiaries hereunder on termination of this trust. Without limiting in any manner the powers herein bestowed upon my Trustees, and without directing Trustees not to purchase any oil, gas or mineral royalties, oil, gas or mineral interests, or oil or gas leases, I do think that it is advisable that they refrain, insofar as it is practical, from making such purchases and concentrate on developing and collecting the income from those interests which I have. I expressly authorize and direct them to do any and all things necessary to carry out any agreements or commitments which I have made prior to my death relative to the purchase or participation in the acquisition of oil, gas or mineral leases, oil, gas or mineral royalties or mineral interests, or in the drilling of an oil or gas well or wells and/or in the development of an oil, gas or mineral lease or leases. My Trustees are also given the express power and authority to contribute, if they should deem it advisable, to the cost of drilling an oil or gas well or wells on lands adjacent to or in the vicinity of lands under or on which I own an oil, gas or mineral interest, an oil, gas or mineral royalty or an oil or gas lease, and may drill or participate in the drilling of an oil or gas well or wells for the development of any oil, gas or mineral lease or leases which I may own. My Trustees are given the further power and authority to do any and all things which they may deem advisable in connection with the development of any oil, gas or mineral lease or leases, oil, gas or mineral royalty or royalties, or other mineral interests owned by me and may contribute money, royalty and/or mineral or leasehold interests in order to procure the drilling and/or completion of an oil or gas well or wells on property adjacent to or in the vicinity of property under which my royalty, mineral or leasehold interests are situate and may do the same thing or things to procure the drilling of an oil or gas well or wells on property under which I own a mineral royalty, a mineral interest, or a leasehold interest. My Trustees may execute and enter into any one or more unitization or pooling agreements which they deem for the best interest of my estate. No Trustees appointed in this will by name, and no corporate trustee hereafter acting hereunder possessing the qualifications required herein of any corporate trustee, shall be required to furnish bond, provided, however, a majority of the adult beneficiaries of the trust estate may, at any time, require the Trustees to furnish bond by giving written notice to said Trustees that they shall be required to furnish bond in such amount as would be reasonable under the circumstances.

2. The Trustees, when more than one trustee is qualified to act, shall act together in exercising any power given the Trustees herein. Each Trustee shall be responsible separately and only for his own acts and only where loss occurs through his own willful dishonesty or breach of good faith. The trust estate shall exonerate and indemnify each Trustee for acts done or powers exercised on behalf of the trust estate, whether done or exercised in the name of the Trustees or of the trust estate.

3. First National Bank in Dallas shall receive from the trust estate for its services as Trustee the usual and customary compensation which is at the time being received by other banks in the City of Dallas, Texas, who are acting as Trustees of other trust estates of somewhat similar character and value. J. W. Crosland shall receive from the trust estate from time to time for his services as Trustee, such compensation as he may elect to charge the trust estate, not to exceed, however, 50% of such compensation as may be paid by the trust estate to the First National Bank in Dallas or to its Successor or Substitute Trustee. Such compensation shall be paid to J. W. Crosland at such times, and for the same period for which compensation is being paid the First National Bank in Dallas or its Successor or Substitute Trustee. Should J. W. Crosland elect to make no charge, or less than the maximum charge above provided for compensation as Trustee during any particular period, he shall not thereafter be entitled to compensation for that period or to cumulate the compensation paid the other Trustee for that period in computing the maximum compensation to which he might otherwise have been entitled.

4. In case of the resignation, incapacity, refusal to act or removal of J. W. Crosland as Trustee, all of the rights, titles, estates, powers and duties vested in or held by the Trustees hereinabove named shall survive to, devolve upon and become vested in the First National Bank in Dallas as sole Trustee.

5. In the event that the First National Bank in Dallas, Dallas, Texas, shall hereafter merge or consolidate with any other bank, then the corporation surviving such merger or consolidation shall act as Trustee hereunder in lieu of the First National Bank in Dallas, and in such capacity shall possess and exercise all powers and authority herein conferred on the First National Bank in Dallas as Trustee.

In case of the resignation, refusal to act or removal of the First National Bank in Dallas, or any corporation into which the First National Bank in Dallas is merged or consolidated, as Trustee, all of the titles, rights, estates, powers and duties vested in or held by the First National Bank in Dallas, or any corporation into which the First National Bank in Dallas is merged or consolidated, shall survive to, devolve upon and become vested in the Substitute or Successor Trustee appointed as hereinafter provided.

In case of the resignation, refusal to act or removal of the First National Bank in Dallas, or of any corporation into which it may be merged or consolidated, as Trustee, a majority of the adult beneficiaries at the time of such resignation, refusal to act or removal, may apply to any District Court of Dallas County, Texas, for the appointment of a solvent trust corporation or a solvent national banking institution possessing trust powers as Substitute or Successor Trustee, provided, however, that any such Successor or Substitute Trustee as may be appointed shall have not less than $5,000,000.00 unimpaired capital and surplus. Succeeding vacancies may be filled in like manner. All Substitute or Successor Trustees shall automatically succeed to all of the powers, privileges and duties and become subject to all of the terms, provisions and limitations of this will applicable to the First National Bank in Dallas as Trustee.

6. In the handling of my estate, it is my desire that the Trustees herein named always be in complete accord, but if for any reason such accord cannot be obtained, then it is my will and I so direct that the corporate trustee shall have the right to determine the matter with respect to which an accord has not been obtained, and any determination thereof by the corporate trustee shall be final and conclusive.

7. Should it become necessary or desirable to separate and partition all or any part of the assets and property subject to this will from any other assets or properties with which same may be commingled, or in which the trust estate may have an undivided interest, Trustees shall have full power and authority to agree to and make all such partitions and divisions of property, and shall also have full power and authority to make all partitions and divisions of trust property contemplated by any of the provisions of the trust created in this will, and in so doing the Trustees are requested, if and to the extent feasible, to divide and partition particular assets or classes of assets, proportionately and in kind among the beneficiaries, and the actual divisions and partitions agreed to and made by Trustees, together with the particular assets allocated to the respective beneficiaries and the relative value placed upon such assets by Trustees, and the decision of Trustees as to the fairness of any such division or partition shall be conclusive and binding upon all parties.

8. All net income accruing during the continuance of this trust from the properties becoming subject to the operation of this will on my demise, and from the properties into which same may be converted, I direct said Trustees to pay:

(a) One-third to my sister, Mrs. C. F. Manges, during her lifetime. Should my sister, Mrs. C. F. Manges, predecease me or should she die within ten (10) years after the date of my death, then after her death the net income from this trust shall be divided between and shall be paid to my said sister's surviving issue, per stirpes.

(b) One-third to my nephew, Joseph F. Ware, Jr., during his lifetime and thereafter per stirpes to his surviving issue. Should my nephew, Joseph F. Ware, Jr., predecease me or die before the termination of this trust, leaving no surviving issue, then the net income which he or his surviving issue would have been entitled to receive pursuant to the provisions of this subparagraph and/or of subparagraphs (a) above and (c) below, shall be divided equally between my sister, Mrs. C. F. Manges, and her surviving issue, per stirpes.

(c) One-third to my niece, Suzanne Heath Manges, during her lifetime, and thereafter per stirpes to her surviving issue. Should my niece, Suzanne Heath Manges, predecease me or die before the termination of this trust, leaving no surviving issue, then the net income which she or her surviving issue would have been entitled to receive pursuant to the provisions of this subparagraph and/or of subparagraphs (a) and (b) above, shall be divided equally between my sister, Mrs. C. F. Manges, and her surviving issue, per stirpes.

Payments on account shall be made by Trustees at intervals of not more than three months apart, and at least once annually there shall be furnished to each adult beneficiary receiving income from the trust estate an itemized statement showing the gross income received and from what source, and the application made of same.

9. I direct that this trust shall terminate on the tenth anniversary of the date of my death, or on the date of the death of my sister, Mrs. C. F. Manges, whichever of said dates shall last occur. On termination of this trust, I direct that all of the estate and properties then in the hands of Trustees shall pass and vest in fee simple in, and by Trustees shall be conveyed to, the surviving issue of my sister, Mrs. C. F. Manges, per stirpes.

If on the termination of this trust there are no surviving issue of my said sister, I direct that all of the estate and properties then in the hands of Trustees shall pass and vest in fee simple in, and by Trustees shall be conveyed to, my cousin, Sam Bell if he then be living, or to his descendants per stirpes if he then be dead.

10. No beneficiary under this will shall have power to anticipate any income or corpus given to such beneficiary by this will, or any portion of same, nor in advance of actually receiving the same, to sell, transfer, encumber or in anywise charge same, nor shall such income or corpus, or any portion of same, be subject to any execution, garnishment, attachment, insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings, or any other character of legal seizure, sequestration, levy or sale. Trustees are directed to disregard all such adverse claims or interests and pay over the income and corpus herein provided for solely to the beneficiary or beneficiaries who are expressly provided for in this will.

ITEM VI.

While I do not absolutely so require, it is my desire that my friend, J. W. Crosland (although he is one of the Trustees and also one of the Executors hereinafter appointed, and as such is to be compensated therefor), be employed as attorney for my estate in all legal and tax matters arising in connection therewith; and he may make, and will be paid, usual and reasonable charges for the legal services which he renders my estate. Should he deem it necessary or desirable for the best interest of my estate to associate another attorney or attorneys with him as attorneys for my estate, then it is my further desire that my executors hereinafter appointed, permit him to do so and to pay said attorney or attorneys reasonable compensation for services rendered my estate by him or them.

ITEM VII.

My secretary, Mrs. Nancy Fallon, probably knows as much as or more about my business records and the operation and record keeping of my business than any other one person, although over the years I have attempted to acquaint my friend, J. W. Crosland, with my investments, income, expenditures and general business affairs. In my opinion my Executors should, in behalf of my estate, continue to maintain my office and Mrs. Fallon's employment therein during the administration of my estate. I, therefore, direct that this be done provided my Executors are able to make arrangements satisfactory to them for the continuance of Mrs. Fallon's, or some other person's, employment in my office. Furthermore, after administration, my trustees, in addition to the powers given and granted them in Item VI above, are expressly empowered to continue to operate my office and to employ Mrs. Fallon or any other person or persons therein, should my Trustees deem same advisable and in the best interest of the trust estate.

ITEM VIII.

I hereby constitute and appoint the aforesaid First National Bank in Dallas and J. W. Crosland as Independent Executors without bond of my will and estate, and I direct that no action be had in the County Court in relation to the settlement of my estate other than the probating and recording of this my Last Will and the return of an inventory, appraisement and list of claims of my estate. Said Executors are directed to administer fully upon my estate as such Executors as promptly as convenient, and during such administration shall have the same powers which I have given and granted to the Trustees in Item VI of this my Will. In my estate will be included logs and maps and other scientific data and sundry office equipment, all or any part of which I expressly empower my Executors, in their discretion, to dispose of in any manner they see fit, including, but not by way of limitation, the presentation thereof as gifts to any person or persons they deem friendly to me, or to any eleemosynary institution which may have an interest in same.

During the administration of my estate, the First National Bank in Dallas, as one of the Executors, may charge and be paid by my estate the usual and customary compensation that other banks in Dallas, Texas are at that time charging and receiving for similar services being rendered other estates; and J. W. Crosland, as the other Executor, may charge and be paid by my estate fifty (50%) per cent of the compensation which my estate pays the aforesaid bank as Executor or such lesser amount as the said J. W. Crosland may deem to be adequate compensation for his services as Executor.

Should J. W. Crosland for any reason fail or refuse to qualify as one of the Independent Executors hereunder, or if after having so qualified, resigns or becomes incompetent to act as one of the Independent Executors, then the First National Bank in Dallas shall become sole Independent Executor hereunder without bond and free of the control of the Probate Court or any other court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name this 5th day of June, 1969, in the presence of the undersigned subscribing witnesses, to each of whom I have declared this to be my Last Will and Testament, each of whom I have requested to attest and subscribe same as witnesses, and each of whom has so attested and subscribed in my presence and in the presence of each other.

IN RE: ESTATE OF
HEATH M. ROBINSON,
DECEASED

NO. 74-423-CP

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF
DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

ORDER PROBATING WILL AND THREE CODICILS
THERETO AND GRANTING LETTERS TESTAMENTARY

On this 12th day of February, 1974, came on to be heard the written application of First National Bank in Dallas and J. W. Crosland for the probate of four certain instruments in writing, one being dated June 5, 1969, another July 29, 1971, another October 3, 1972, and still another April 18, 1973, all now produced in Court, having been filed herein with said application on the 7th day of February, 1974, purporting and alleged to be the Last Will and Testament of Heath M. Robinson, deceased and three Codicils thereto; which said application is also for letters testamentary; and due proof being taken in the manner required by law, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that this Court has jurisdiction and venue over this estate, proceeding and subject matter and that every citation and notice required by law has been duly issued, served and returned in the manner and for the length of time required by law;

And it being proved to the satisfaction of the Court that Testator, Heath M. Robinson, at the time of executing his Will dated June 5, 1969, and each of the aforesaid three Codicils thereto, was at least eighteen (18) years of age, was of sound mind and died on the 4th day of February, 1974, at which time he was a resident of Dallas County, Texas, that such testator executed such Will and each of the three Codicils thereto with the formalities and solemnities and under the circumstances required by law to make such Will and such Codicils a valid Will and Codicils thereto; that neither said Will nor any of the three Codicils thereto have been revoked by such testator and that all are entitled to probate; and it further appearing to the Court that the applicants, First National Bank in Dallas and J. W. Crosland, were named in said Will as Independent Executors without bond; that said applicants are entitled by law to letters, are willing to accept the trust and to qualify according to law and are not disqualified from accepting letters, that four years have not elapsed since the death of the said Heath M. Robinson, that the Will provides that no action shall be had in any Court in relation to the settlement of such estate other than the probating and recording of such Will and the filing of an inventory, appraisement and list of claims of such estate;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said Will of Heath M. Robinson dated June 5, 1969 and the three Codicils thereto dated July 29, 1971, October 3, 1972, and April 18, 1973, respectively, all being on file herein, be and the same are hereby admitted to probate and record as the last Will and three Codicils thereto of the said Heath M. Robinson, deceased; and such Will and such three Codicils, together with the application for the probate thereof and all of the testimony given in this proceeding, shall be recorded in the minutes of this Court; and IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the First National Bank in Dallas and J. W. Crosland, the applicants herein, receive letters testamentary upon their taking the oath required by law, no bond being required of either of said applicants; and when the First National Bank in Dallas and J. ITEM 1: I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife, SUDIE S. WHITWORTH, all of my interest in the residence and 20 acres of land upon which said residence is situated, for and during the remainder of her natural life, or so long as she resides in said residence, whichever is the shorter time, with the remainder to Canton Exchange Bank of Canton, Mississippi, as Trustee under that certain Trust Agreement created by John S. Whitworth and wife Mary M. Whitworth dated December 22, 1964 and recorded in book 322 at page 112.

ITEM 2: I give, devise and bequeath all of the rest, residue and balance of my estate to the Canton Exchange Bank of Canton, Mississippi, TRUSTEE, in trust for the use and benefit of Sudie S. Whitworth, Fannie Elizabeth Payne, and Mary John Colbert, for each of their respective lives, with remainder at the death of each beneficiary to Canton Exchange Bank of Canton, Mississippi as Trustee under that certain Trust Agreement created by John S. Whitworth and wife Mary M. Whitworth dated December 22, 1964 and recorded in book 322 at page 112.

The Trust created herein shall be known as the JOHN S. WHITWORTH TRUST.

All estate and inheritance taxes and costs of the administration of my estate shall be paid out of the Trust Estate.

ITEM 3: Out of the income collected by the said Trustee, it shall pay insurance premiums and taxes levied upon the trust property and residence, and may, in its discretion, pay tax on the income therefrom, and may pay any and all other necessary and proper costs incurred in and about the administration of the said Trust Fund, and a commission upon the gross income received each year during the period of the trusteeship is to be paid to the Trustee as follows, it being understood that a separate trust or sub-trust shall be established for each beneficiary herein named: 5% of the gross annual income of each separate trust shall be paid to the Bank as Trustee.

Said Trustee shall have full power and authority to employ auditors, attorneys, tax men, real estate agents, rental agents, security brokers, appraisers, overseers, and managers, and any other persons it may find advisable to use for the proper administration of this Trust, and any reasonable compensation incurred for such services shall be included in and paid as expenses hereunder.

ITEM 4: The Trustee, in its discretion alone, shall pay the net income from this Trust Estate to the beneficiaries hereunder monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, provided said Trustee shall at all times maintain sufficient funds to continue to operate the Trust Estate.

ITEM 5: In addition to the power, privileges, titles and obligations heretofore vested in my Trustee, said Trustee shall be vested with the following power, privileges, titles and obligations, to-wit:

1. To carry on any business or businesses that I may be engaged in at the time of my death.

2. To lease for such periods of time or to rent at such rental and for such consideration and upon such conditions as the Trustee may see fit, any real property at any time belonging to said Trust Estate.

3. In the event such circumstances arise and the Trustee feels that a reasonable, prudent businessman would borrow money, then the Trustee is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow such sums as may be necessary, and to pledge, mortgage, or create a lien against any of the assets of the Trust to secure such loan or loans;

4. To retain any property of my estate or any undivided interest therein, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk, or non-productivity.

5. To invest and reinvest the trust estate in any property or undivided interests therein, wherever located, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by Trustees.

6. To sell any trust property for cash or on credit, at public or private sale; to exchange any trust property for any other property; to grant options to purchase or acquire any trust property, and to determine the prices and terms of sales, exchanges and options.

7. To keep any property in the name of a nominee, with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship.

8. To determine the manner of ascertainment of income and principal, and the apportionment between income and principal of all receipts and disbursements, and to select any accounting period.

9. To enter into any transaction authorized by this Article with trustees or legal representatives of any other trust or estate in which any beneficiary hereunder has any beneficial interest, even though any such trustee or legal representative is also Trustee under this Will.

10. To receive additional property from any source and add it to and commingle it with the trust estate.

11. To exercise any and all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, privileges, elections and options, pertaining to any such property, and to grant proxies, discretionary or otherwise, in respect thereof; and to receive and retain any property that may be acquired by it as the result of the exercise of any such rights, privileges, elections or options.

12. To extend the time of payment of any obligation, including accrued or accruing interest, held by it hereunder.

13. To make partition, division or distribution of property in kind and, for any such purpose, to determine the value of any such property.

14. To execute oil, gas and mineral leases, royalty and mineral deeds, or other contracts and agreement pertaining to minerals or royalties, covering or pertaining to any trust property on such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable.

15. To sell or lease timber on any lands owned by me at the time of my death or in which I own any interest whatsoever.

16. To perform any and all such other acts, and to take any and all such other proceedings, and to exercise all such other rights and privileges in respect of any property as if it were the absolute owner thereof and, in connection therewith, to enter into any and all agreements binding my estate or any trust hereunder.

ITEM 6: No part of any trust under this Will, principal, income, or increment, shall be attachable, assignable, trustable or liable to be taken at law or in equity for or on account of any debt, obligation, or contract of any beneficiary hereunder; but the share I have herein provided such beneficiary should have shall be transferred and delivered to her personally, and for her sole and exclusive use and benefit.

ITEM 7: I hereby designate and appoint Canton Exchange Bank of Canton, Mississippi as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament. To the extent that such requirement may be legally waived, the Executor hereunder shall never be required to give any bond to serve in such capacity, nor shall it be required to report to any Court in the administration of my estate.

OF

VOL. 488 PAGE 777

STATE OF TEXAS X
COUNTY OF BEXAR X

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, J. V. ADAMS, a resident of Bexar County, Texas, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and in good health, do make and publish this, my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and Codicils by me at any time heretofore made.

I.

I am married to KATE YAKEY ADAMS, and we have no children. It is my purpose, desire, and intention to devise, and there is devised herein, the whole of the community estate of my said wife and self, and the whole of my separate estate, if any; EXCEPT that if my wife, KATE YAKEY ADAMS, does not survive me, then to devise my one-half (1/2) of our community estate and the whole of my separate estate.

II.

I give and bequeath all of my interest in our household furniture and furnishings, books, pictures, silverware and jewelry, and all other articles of household use or ornament, which I may own at the time of my death, to THE ALAMO NATIONAL BANK OF SAN ANTONIO, as Trustee, and its Successors-in-Trust, IN TRUST, to be held, managed, handled, and distributed as follows:

The Trustee shall hold, manage, handle, and use all of the property in this paragraph devised, which may come into its possession as such Trustee, for the use and benefit of my wife, KATE YAKEY ADAMS. It shall not be necessary for my Executor, or the Trustee, to take possession of or to inventory or appraise the property bequeathed to the Trustee in this paragraph, if my said wife survives me, it being my purpose and intention that the household furniture and furnishings, and all of the articles bequeathed in this paragraph, shall be used and employed for the benefit and enjoyment of my wife; and in the case of such use and enjoyment, the Trustee may allow such property, through use, wear, and tear, or otherwise, to be consumed. Any of such property not necessary or appropriate for the use and benefit of my wife while she continues to survive, and all of the remainder of such property on hand at the death of my wife, shall go, upon the death of my said wife, or upon my death if she is not surviving, to the persons and in the proportions or items designated in a memorandum relating to the disposition thereof, written in my own handwriting and by me delivered to the Trustee; and I bequeath all of the remainder thereof in equal shares to NANCY BUNNELL BENTLEY (wife of I. J. BENTLEY), SOL BUNNELL, JANE THOMPSON SLOCOMB (wife of RICHARD SLOCOMB), HARRIET MORRISS BLANKENSHIP (wife of CLINTON BLANKENSHIP), and BESS HAL YAKEY MURPHREE (wife of M. A. MURPHREE), or the survivor or survivors thereof. Upon the death of my wife, or in the event she should predecease me, and two (2) or more of the aforesaid persons should survive my wife, or my death, if my wife predeceases me, but fail to agree upon a division of such property within three (3) months thereafter, then such property shall be divided in kind or value as equally as practical among them by my Executor, according to its sole judgment and discretion, and such division shall be binding upon all parties concerned.

The foregoing bequests are free of deduction for my debts, funeral and administration expenses, and taxes imposed by virtue of my death.

The Trustee may retain the apartment which we are using and occupying as our home, at the time of my death, for the use and enjoyment of my wife, who shall have the free use thereof as her residence, so long as she continues to reside therein and the Trustee deems it advisable to continue the occupancy thereof by my wife. The rental of such apartment, and the expense of upkeep and maintenance thereof, and any other charges, expenses, or outlays reasonably necessary in order to keep and maintain such apartment as a home for my wife, shall be paid by the Trustee out of the J. V. ADAMS TRUST, hereinbelow referred to. Upon the death of my wife, or in the event the Trustee should make other arrangements for a suitable place of abode for my wife, the Trustee shall discontinue the rental of such apartment.

III.

I direct that all of our community debts be paid out of the corpus of our community estate, and if I have any separate debts that are owing by any separate estate I may own, such debts shall be paid out of the corpus of my separate estate; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, the foregoing shall not be construed to require or direct the acceleration of maturity or the prepayment of any such indebtedness owing at the time of my death or arising by virtue thereof, and my Executor shall have the power to renew and extend any such indebtedness. Administration expenses shall be paid proportionately out of our community estate and my separate estate, if any, on the basis that the value of each bears to its aggregate value.

I direct that my funeral expenses, including the cost of a suitable headstone, all taxes, state and federal, or otherwise, which are imposed upon anyone whomsoever or any property whatsoever by virtue of my death, which shall also include every property including but not limited to insurance on my life or amount or value included in the computation of such taxes imposed as a consequence of my death, together with interest and penalties on such tax, if any, be paid out of the corpus of the rest, residue, and remainder of my one-half (1/2) of our community estate and any separate property I may own.

I direct that my Executor claim any expenses of administration as income tax deductions upon an income tax return or returns whenever in the judgment of my Executor such action will achieve an overall reduction in the income and death taxes for the benefit of my estate and of the beneficiaries thereof, herein named, and that no compensating adjustments between income and principal shall be required or made as a result of such action.

I authorize and direct that my Executor select any optional valuation date for death tax purposes which, in the opinion of my Executor, will minimize the total amount of tax imposed upon my estate, irrespective of the effect of such election on the value of any of the property or interest in my estate passing under the dispositive provisions of my Will, and I hereby expressly exonerate my Executor from any liability in making any such election.

IV.

I give, devise, and bequeath all of the rest, residue, and remainder of our community estate, and all of the rest, residue, and remainder of my separate property and estate, if any, after payment of all taxes and expenses, as above provided, and being all of the rest, residue, and remainder of our community property and my separate property, of every kind and character, real, personal, and mixed, and wheresoever situated, unto THE ALAMO NATIONAL BANK OF SAN ANTONIO, as Trustee, and its Successors-in-Trust, IN TRUST, to have and to hold as Trustees for the uses and purposes set forth and contained in the J. V. ADAMS TRUST (AS AMENDED), executed by me as Settlor, and by said Trustee; the income from the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate devised in this Article, and the corpus thereof, shall be at all times held for the use and benefit of, and be distributed to, the same persons and in the same proportions designated and provided for in the J. V. ADAMS TRUST, in like manner as if I had included the same within the other assets transferred, assigned, and conveyed to the Trustees of the aforesaid trust, and the Trustee shall have, with respect to said rest and residue of my estate herein devised, and every part thereof, the same powers and the same successions as are set forth and provided in said Trust Indenture.

V.

I constitute and appoint THE ALAMO NATIONAL BANK OF SAN ANTONIO, San Antonio, Texas, as Independent Executor of this, my Last Will and Testament. In the event THE ALAMO NATIONAL BANK OF SAN ANTONIO should fail to qualify, or, if after qualifying, should cease to serve as such, then I constitute and appoint THE FROST NATIONAL BANK OF SAN ANTONIO, San Antonio, Texas, as Independent Executor. No bond shall be required of either the originally or contingently-provided-for Executors or Executor.

I direct that no action shall be had in the administration of my estate other than to probate and record this Will, and to file an Inventory, Appraisement, and List of Claims.

My Executor, in the administration of my estate, shall have the same powers as are vested in my Trustee, including also the power to make distribution of income to beneficiaries of the trust, and portions of the corpus of the trust, even though the administration of my estate be not complete.

My Executor shall not be personally liable for either interest or penalties as may accrue on any taxes imposed by virtue of my death, it being recognized that the incurring of same usually arises in reaching the final determination of such taxes.

My Executor shall have the power to file for the year of my death a joint income tax return with my wife.

In the event THE ALAMO NATIONAL BANK OF SAN ANTONIO shall qualify and serve as the Trustee or as Executor, respectively, under the foregoing provisions of my Will, said Bank shall be allowed and paid for its services as such Trustee and as such Executor the usual fees customarily charged by it for similar services in other estates or trusts, at the time such services are performed; and in the case of extraordinary or unusual services, such Bank shall receive a just and reasonable compensation for such services rendered.

RECORDER'S MEMORANDUM
All or part of the text on this page was not clearly legible for satisfactory recordation.

My Executor and Trustee may employ such agents, attorneys, tax advisers, and accountants as it may deem necessary and proper in the administration and management of my estate or the trust herein provided for, and their compensation shall be a proper expense to be borne by the trust.

ORDER PROBATING LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

On this the 3rd day of December, 1974, came on to be heard the Application of ALAMO NATIONAL BANK OF SAN ANTONIO, a national banking association with trust powers having its banking house and principal place of business in the City of San Antonio, Bexar County, Texas, Applicant, to probate the Last Will and Testament of J. V. ADAMS, Deceased, consisting of an original Will duly executed by said Decedent on January 30, 1973, and witnessed by SUSAN R. HELLER, R. JAMES CURPHY, and ELWOOD CLUCK, said Will having been filed for probate herein on November 21, 1974; and it appearing to the Court that legal notices of the filing of said application have been issued and properly posted and notice given in the manner and for the length of time required by law and that every legal notice required as a prerequesite to the probating of said Will has been given for the length of time and in the manner required by law and that no one came to contest the same;

And it further appearing from the testimony of ELWOOD CLUCK, sworn to and subscribed in Open Court and filed herein, that he was well and personally acquainted with J. V. ADAMS during his lifetime, having known him for several years prior to his death; that J. V. ADAMS hereinafter called Decedent, died on November 12, 1974, in the City of San Antonio, Bexar County, Texas, at the age of seventy six (76) years; that at the time of his death he resided and had his domicile in Bexar County, Texas, it having been such for many years last past; and that he was possessed of real property and personal property of the probably value of TEN THOUSAND ($10,000.00), situated principally in Bexar County, Texas; that Decedent was married one time only, that being to KATE YAKEY ADAMS, to which union no child or children were born, and no child or children were adopted by said Decedent;

That the names, ages, marital status and residence of each heir and devisee and their relationship to the Decedent are as follows:

KATE YAKEY ADAMS, who is Seventy Four (74) years of age, and who is the surviving wife of the Decedent, and who resides at 4330 Vance Jackson, San Antonio, Texas;

NANCY BUNNELL BENTLEY, who is an adult and who is married to T. J. BENTLEY, and who resides at 1610 South 9th Street, Temple, Texas, and who is the niece of KATE YAKEY ADAMS;

SOL BUNNELL, who is an adult and whose residence address is Box 147, Taylor, Texas, and who is the nephew of KATE YAKEY ADAMS;

JANE THOMPSON SLOCOMB, who is an adult and who is married to RICHARD SLOCOMB, and who is a niece of KATE YAKEY ADAMS;

HARRIETT MORRISS BLANKENSHIP, who is an adult and who is married to CLINTON BLANKENSHIP, and resides at Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, and who is a niece of KATE YAKEY ADAMS; and BESS HALL YAKEY MURPHREE, who is an adult and is married to M. A. MURPHREE, and who resides in Houston, Texas, and who is a niece of KATE YAKEY ADAMS.

And upon examination by the Court of said Will dated January 30, 1973, filed herein on November 21, 1974, it appears that same is self-proven by the acknowledgement thereof by the Testator and the affidavits of the attesting witnesses, each made before a Notary Public, such acknowledgements and affidavits being evidenced by a certificate with official seal affixed of such officer annexed to said Will in the form and contents provided by Section 59 of the Texas Probate Code:

It is therefore ORDERED that no further proof of the execution and validity of said Will of date January 30,1973, as the effective Last Will and Testament of said Testator shall be necessary or taken, other than same being introduced in evidence, whereupon, said Will was so introduced and admitted in evidence; and

It further appearing to the Court and the Court now finds that J. V.
