gross estate as finally determined for Federal Estate Tax purposes, less the aggregate value of the marital deduction allowed for such tax purposes by reason of any interest in insurance or in jointly owned property or in any other property or interest in property passing under any other item of this Will or having passed to my wife other than by this Will. This bequest shall be made up of such assets as the Executrix may determine. However, the Executrix shall not distribute to my wife, in satisfaction of this bequest, any property which would not qualify for the marital deduction allowable in determining the Federal Estate Tax on my estate.

It is my intention hereby to convey to my wife the maximum value of property, but no more, that when added to other property passing to my wife other than by this Item of my Will, shall result in the maximum marital deduction available under the applicable Internal Revenue Code provisions. In distributing assets to my wife in accordance with the provisions of this Item of my Will, my Executrix shall value the assets so distributed at their values current on the date or dates of distribution.

None of the assets herein conveyed to my wife shall be used for the payment of any estate, inheritance or death taxes that shall become payable upon or by reason of my death.

ITEM IV.

After setting aside the assets to satisfy the bequest previously made herein, the Executrix shall pay all estate and inheritance taxes payable by reason of my death. The rest and residue of my estate I give, devise and bequeath as follows:

(a) To ALTON BERNARD GIBB, shall have, including any interest therein, owned by me.

(b) To ALTON BERNARD COBB one-half (1/2) of the remainder and residue of my property, of whatsoever kind or character, and wheresoever situated.

(c) To ALTON BERNARD COBB, Trustee for the use and benefit of MARY ALENE COBB, THOMAS COBB, and SUSAN COBB, one-half (1/2) of the remainder and residue of my property of whatsoever kind or character and wheresoever situated in trust until such time as the youngest beneficiary living shall have attained the age of twenty-five (25) years, at which time the said Trust shall be terminated and the proceeds thereof finally distributed to the beneficiaries in equal shares.

The Trustee of this Trust shall not be required to post bond and the Trustee shall have sole discretion with reference to the administration of the Trust and in the distribution of the income of the Trust and so much of the principal of the Trust as the Trustee deems needful or desirable to provide for the comfort, support, education, maintenance and welfare, medical or other related expenses of the beneficiaries, or any other expenses of an emergency nature incurred by any of them, but in doing so the Trustee shall consider the reasonable needs of the beneficiaries and the funds available to them from other sources. The Trust herein created is a private trust and the Trustee shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of any court for the exercise of the powers and discretions herein given, nor shall the Trustee be required to return to any court any periodic formal accounting of the administration of this Trust, and no persons paying money or delivering property to the Trustee shall be required to see to its application. Except as otherwise herein expressly provided, the administration and management of the Trust herein created, the sale and conveyance of the Trust assets, the investment and re-investment of Trust assets and the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Trustee shall be in accordance with and governed by the terms and provisions of the Uniform Trustees' Powers Act of Mississippi as it now exists or may hereafter be amended. The Trustee shall have broad discretionary powers in the administration of this Trust. Should at any time the Trustee be unable or unwilling to serve a successor trustee shall be appointed by the Chancery Court of Madison County, Mississippi, upon petition brought by the beneficiaries of the Trust. Any successor trustee shall be vested with all of the rights, powers, duties and discretions herein conferred upon the original Trustee.

ITEM V.

And now, having disposed of my entire estate, I hereby nominate and appoint my wife, ORA MARRY COBB, Executrix of my estate under this my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. In the event my wife shall be or become unable or unwilling to serve as Executrix, I name and appoint ALTON BERNARD COBB to serve as successor Executor. I direct that neither the Executrix nor any successor Executor shall be required to make any bond as such; neither shall either of them be required to make a formal appraisal of my estate, or provide an inventory or an accounting to be filed with any court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, JOSEPH HARRISON COBB, have hereunto set my signature to this my Last Will and Testament in the presence of two witnesses, each of whom has signed as such at my request and in my presence and in the presence of each other on this the 17th day of June, 1975.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we, Louis Stein and Alice Friedman Stein, husband and wife, both residents of Madison County, Mississippi, above the age of twenty-one years, and of sound, disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this, our joint or mutual Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other instruments of like nature, and codicils thereto, heretofore made or purporting to have been made by us, or either of us. 23-824

I.

The undersigned Alice Friedman Stein owns an undivided one-half interest in property located at 415 W. Merrick Road, in Freeport, Nassau County, Long Island, New York. The other one-half interest is owned by her sister, Mrs. Jeff Rubel, Atlanta, Georgia. An undivided one-sixth interest in this property was conveyed to the undersigned Alice Friedman Stein by her brother, Dr. Ralph Friedman, also, of Freeport, Long Island, New York, a like interest having been conveyed by him to Mrs. Rubel in the same instrument.

II.

Except for the devise in paragraph III, and the bequest in Paragraph IV, below, on the death of either of us, all the property, real, personal, and mixed, including any interest in property owned in common with another, or others, shall be and become the sole and separate property of the survivor; provided, that should the undersigned Louis Stein survive his wife, he shall, so long as he shall live, have full right to receive one-half of the income from said Long Island property, or he may join with the co-owner in any sale of the property; provided, second, that his estate shall be bound to Dr. Ralph Friedman, aforesaid, or his heirs-at-law, for an amount equal to one-sixth of the net consideration received in any sale of said property. Should said property not be sold prior to the death of Louis Stein, then an undivided one-sixth thereof, being the same interest by him conveyed to Alice Friedman Stein, shall go to Dr. Ralph Friedman, or his heirs-at-law.

III.

Subject to paragraph II above, on the death of Alice Friedman Stein, her interest in that certain store building at 1120 Van Buren Avenue, Oxford, Mississippi, and the lot on which it is situated, formerly belonging to her father, Joe Friedman, shall go and is hereby devised to Rose Ethel Rich of 1519 Octavia occurs within thirty (30) days of the death of the first, or if the time between of physical or mental impairment, to make any testamentary devise, then, however long the said intervening time, (a) the one-half interest of Alice Friedman Stein

I, Dean W. Coleman, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and more than twenty-one years of age, do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament especially revoking all prior testamentary documents.

First: I nominate and appoint my wife, Elizabeth C. Coleman, as executrix of this my last will and testament and I do especially excuse her from entering into bond or making a report to the courts.

Second: I will, devise and bequeath to my said wife, Elizabeth C. Coleman, all of the property real, personal or mixed of whatever nature and wheresoever situated, subject to the hereinafter mentioned restrictions.

Third: I own an undivided one-half interest in a farm located in Madison County, Mississippi, and my sister, Charlotte Potter, owns the other one-half interest. The interest which I own in said farm is devised to my wife, but her ownership of this farm shall be limited in this manner: during the life time of my sister, Charlotte Potter, my sister shall have the exclusive right to manage said farm without the consent of my said wife, however one-half of the profits after the necessary expenses have been paid shall be given each year to my wife by my said sister. During the life time of my said sister my wife will not have the power to sell or mortgage the one-half interest which I have devised to her, unless it be with the consent of my said sister. After the death of my said sister this restriction shall be removed and the one-half interest devised to my wife shall belong to her, her heirs or devisees absolutely.

Fourth: If my wife and I should die within sixty days of each other then I will devise and bequeath that all of the property mentioned in this will shall vest in my sister, Charlotte Potter, as trustee for my daughter, Charlotte Jane Colekan. Said
