THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this 23RD day of September, 1977, by and between JOAN HAMILTON ROPER, a legatee under the Will of VIRGINIA HARTFIELD MOORE, as party of the first part, and hereinafter referred to as the "first party", and WILLIAM STEWART HAMILTON, also a legatee under the said Will of VIRGINIA HARTFIELD MOORE, as party of the second part, and hereinafter referred to as the "second party";

W I T N E S S E T H That:

WHEREAS, VIRGINIA HARTFIELD MOORE, hereinafter referred to as "the Testatrix", executed her Will on August 27, 1976, which instrument, following the death of the Testatrix, was offered for probate in Solemn Form in the Probate Court of Hancock County by Louis H. Rozier, as Executor under said Will, at the February Term, 1977, of said Court; and

WHEREAS, a Caveat to the Probate in Solemn Form of said Will was filed by the second party asserting that the said Will was executed while the Testatrix was laboring under a material mistake of fact as to the value of the property devised to the first party under Item 6 of said Will, and of the property devised to the second party under Item 5 of said Will, and asserting further that the testamentary scheme reflected in Items 5 and 6 was unnatural and unreasonable, in light of the express statement of the Testatrix in Item 7 of said Will, thus evidencing an impairment in or lack of testamentary capacity in the mind of the Testatrix; and

WHEREAS, the Judge of the Probate Court of Hancock County overruled the said Caveat and entered an order probating the said Will in Solemn Form, whereupon the second party entered an appeal of said order to the Superior Court of Hancock County, where the matter is now pending; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of first party to avoid further expenses of legal proceedings brought by second party, and to avoid the possibility of an adverse ruling by the Court, against first party in said action, first party and second party have agreed hereby to settle hereby the disputes between said parties, by making an adjustment in the pattern of distribution of property devised under Items 5 and 6 of said Will, which adjustment will not affect any rights or benefits of any other legatees under said Will;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto do hereby agree as follows:

1. That first party and second party do hereby agree to a distribution of all of the property devised under Items 5 and 6 of the said Will as follows:

(a) An undivided one-fourth of the Testatrix's interest in Annandale Plantation as devised under the provisions of Item 6 of Testatrix's Will will belong to the second party, and an undivided three-fourths of Testatrix's interest in Annandale Plantation as devised under the provisions of Item 6 of Testatrix's Will will belong to the first party.

(b) That all of Testatrix's interest in Colorado properties as devised under the provisions of Item 5 of Testatrix's Will, will be the property of second party.

2. That the remaining provisions of Testatrix's Will are not modified hereby.

3. That the parties hereto will apply to the Judge of the Superior Court of Hancock County for approval of the agreement herein reached and request that the pending appeal of the order of the Probate Court of Hancock County be resolved in accordance with this Agreement.

4. That this Agreement, having been entered into by the parties hereto, is made for the purpose of settling a dispute between the parties regarding the testamentary intent of the deceased and to avoid legal proceedings against the first party by the second party. In furtherance of this Agreement, the second party does hereby, for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, release, acquit, and forever discharge the first party from any and all claims, demands, actions or rights of action of every kind and character which he, or any of them, have or may hereafter have against said first party arising out of or in connection with a bona fide dispute between the parties as to the construction of Testatrix's Will, the intent of the Testatrix, the testamentary plan of the Testatrix, and the division or distribution of the property of Testatrix to the parties hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year above written as the date of these presents.

EXEMPLIFIED PROBATE PROCEEDINGS
DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF 78-1566-P2 BOOK 18 135

WAYLAND H. SANFORD

I, Wayland H. Sanford, of Dallas, Texas, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills at any time heretofore made by me.

I have no property acquired before marriage or by gift, devise or descent except some small mineral interests in Minnesota of little value. I give, devise and bequeath all property in Minnesota to my brother, Dwight H. Sanford, and his wife, Ethel A. Sanford, or the survivor of them, or if neither of them survives me to my daughter, Helen Sanford.

My wife, Winifred M. Sanford, has certain separate property, being property inherited by her or acquired by her prior to our marriage, and mutations and reinvestments thereof. As and when received by her I have given to her all my community interest in the income from her said separate property, and will continue to do so, and if any such income has been reinvested such investments were and are her separate property. Said property and her separate savings bank account in Hillcrest State Bank, in which I own no interest, are reflected by the section of our books entitled "Separate property of Winifred M. Sanford" and/or by papers in her safety deposit box in Hillcrest State Bank which are hereby referred to. If, notwithstanding the above facts, it should be thought that I might have any interest in such property or funds, I give, devise and bequeath it to her. She also owns as her separate property the "Harris Estate Royalty," and the "Wilhite Royalty," in Gregg County, Texas conveyed to her as her separate property by conveyances of record respectively in Vol. 136, pages 213-214, and Vol. 149, page 309, of the Deed Records of said County, and the "Monument Royalty" in Lea County, New Mexico, conveyed to her by conveyances dated June 12, 1936 and recorded in Book 47 at pages 227 and

228 of the Records of said County, notwithstanding that the above named royalties, for convenience in bookkeeping, are included in the section of our books entitled "community property."

She purchased January 17, 1941, with her separate funds, ten "baby bonds", face $1,000.00 each, which at maturity in 1951 she exchanged for Series E Savings Bonds, as appears on the appropriate page of her separate books. These bonds, including all accrued interest thereon, are her separate property, subject only to the provision for payment to me on her death should I survive her.

Each of us has some other Series E Savings Bonds, payable on death to the other, all purchased with community funds, and the proceeds of those in my name will be her separate property if she survives me, in accordance with the terms of the bonds and the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court in Bland v. Free, conformed to in 359 SW (2) 297.

All other property of ours is the community property of my beloved wife Winifred M. Sanford and myself; that situated in non-community property states other than Minnesota was acquired with community funds, and is owned beneficially in equal shares by myself and my said wife, as a part of our community estate. I do not intend by this Will to dispose of her one-half of any property constituting, or beneficially belonging to, our community estate, and to further evidence her ownership of her community one-half of all property situated in non-community-property states other than Minnesota (and other than the mineral interest in Forrest County, Mississippi, acquired by me under conveyance from R. Bruce McPherson et al' recorded in Book 78, page 260 of the Deed Records of said County, the legal title to her community one-half of which has already been placed in her name) I hereby devise and bequeath to her the legal title to her one-half thereof, being her community one-half thereof already beneficially owned by her.

I give and bequeath to my brother Dwight H. Sanford the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) and to my sister-in-law Ethel A. Sanford the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).

All of the rest and residue of my estate (including any lapsed devises or bequests) I give, devise and bequeath to our three daughters, Emerett, Helen and Mary, in equal shares.

I direct that all my debts, if any (I do not at this time have any debts, except current bills) and all funeral expenses and expenses of administration and all estate, inheritance and succession taxes payable on account of my death, be paid by my executor out of my estate, with no right of reimbursement from any beneficiary of any insurance policy on my life, the proceeds of which may be included in my estate for tax purposes, nor from any recipient of any inter vivos gift if any such should have to be included in my estate for tax purposes. No inter vivos gift shall be deemed an advancement.

I make, constitute and appoint my wife Winifred M. Sanford and First National Bank in Dallas independent executors of my estate. I expressly give to my executors, in addition to the powers inherent in the office of executors, full power, in their capacities as executors, to sell, exchange, lease, lease for oil, gas or other minerals, mortgage, pledge, execute division orders and transfer orders and otherwise contract with respect to and deal with and dispose of any property of my estate, and no person dealing with my executors shall be under any duty to inquire into the necessity of or authority for any act of my executors purporting to be in their capacities as such. In the event my said wife does not survive me, or fails or refuses to qualify, or dies or resigns prior to completion of the administration of my estate, I make, constitute and appoint my daughter Helen Sanford as independent co-executor in her place and stead, KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That I, Willis E. Burton, being above the age of twenty-one (21) years and of sound and disposing mind and memory, having a fixed place of residence in Madison County, Mississippi, do hereby make, declare and publish this instrument as my true Last Will and Testament, and by these presents, do hereby expressly revoke all prior wills and instruments of a testamentary nature that may have heretofore been executed by me.

ITEM I

I direct that my Executrix pay all my lawful debts, together with the expenses of my last illness and my funeral expenses as promptly after my demise as she may lawfully so do.

MILLARD SHELBY ROBERTS, JR.

I, Millard Shelby Roberts, Jr., an adult resident citizen of Jackson, Hinds County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, and I do hereby revoke any and all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM I.

I direct my Executor to pay all of my just debts and obligations which may be probated, registered and allowed against my estate as soon as may be conveniently done.

ITEM II.

To my wife, Jerry Bailey Roberts (hereinafter sometime referred to as "my wife"), if she be living at my death, I devise and bequeath the following:

A. Any interest I may own in our residence which is occupied by us as a family home, as well as any cash, personal bank accounts and automobiles which I may own at my death.

B. Any clothing, books, jewelry and other personal effects which I may own at my death.

If my wife shall not survive me I devise any interest I may own in our residence as well as any cash, personal bank accounts and automobiles which I may own at my death, to Deposit Guaranty National Bank, Jackson, Mississippi, Trustee of the "Millard Shelby Roberts, Jr. and Jerry Bailey Roberts Children's Trust," provided for in Item IV hereof, to be held, administered and disposed of in accordance with the terms of that trust. I bequeath those items enumerated in section B above to my children, Joel Edwin Roberts, Cherryl Jacquelin Roberts and Marcus Shelby Roberts, in equal shares.

ITEM III.

To my wife, Jerry Bailey Roberts, if she be living at my death, I devise and bequeath all of my property of whatsoever kind or character and wheresoever situated.

ITEM IV.

In the event my wife shall not survive me, I give, devise and bequeath to Deposit Guaranty National Bank, Jackson, Mississippi, as Trustee in trust for the uses and purposes hereinafter set forth all the rest and residue of my estate, for the benefit of my children, Joel Edwin Roberts, whose birth date is August 17, 1956, Cherryl Jacquelin Roberts, whose birth date is November 7, 1957, Marcus Shelby Roberts, whose birth date is January 3, 1959, and my wife's children, Kenneth Michael Bailey, whose birth date is July 25, 1957 and Kerry Landon Bailey, whose birth date is August 5, 1965.

A. The Trustee shall hold, invest and reinvest the trust assets and shall distribute, at least annually, to or for the benefit of the beneficiaries of this trust such part or all of the net income as the Trustee deems necessary or desirable for the comfort, education, maintenance, and welfare of the beneficiaries. Any income not distributed shall be held in the trust for future distribution. Such distributions of income shall be made in such amounts and at such intervals as the Trustee in its discretion deems advisable, but in no event less frequently than quarterly. It shall not be necessary for the Trustee to make equal distributions of income between the beneficiaries if the Trustee, in its sole discretion deems an unequal distribution necessary or desirable for the comfort, support, maintenance, health, education or welfare of any beneficiary.

(1) In addition to the net income, if in the sole and absolute discretion of the Trustee circumstances have arisen which made it desirable for their comfort, education, maintenance and welfare, it shall distribute to, or for the benefit of any of the beneficiaries such amount or amounts of principal from the trust as the Trustee determines proper. In the exercise of this discretion the Trustee shall consider the needs of the beneficiaries and the income available to them from other sources. In distributing both income and principal to the trust beneficiaries the Trustee shall adequately provide for them but it shall not distribute excessive sums to them that may encourage them to become spendthrifts.

(2) I direct that the Trustee provide a college education for our children, including as many years of graduate study as may be required for his or her career in any private or public college. The Trustee shall pay the necessary costs of clothing, tuition, books, room and board together with the cost of any extracurricular activities in which our children may desire to participate during their attendance at college, provided such activities are first approved by their guardian.

Provided there are adequate funds available, the Trustee is further authorized to distribute to any beneficiary of this trust such sums of the principal of the trust for that child for the purpose of establishing that child in a business or profession, provided that child has attained the age of twenty-one (21) years. Any such distribution shall be requested by the child, in writing, and shall be accompanied by such factual information necessary to permit the Trustee to evaluate the feasibility of such investment. If the Trustee shall determine the proposed investment to be a feasible one the Trustee shall distribute such portions of the principal of that child's trust as it, in its sole discretion, deems advisable, but any such sum advanced to a child shall be a charge against that child's trust estate.

(3) As and when our youngest living child completes his or her college education, or attains the age of

Twenty-five (25) years, if that child shall have ceased attending college, the Trustee shall divide the then existing trust estate into equal shares, one for each of the children designated above then living and one for each of the said children who are deceased leaving issue surviving, and each shall be a separate trust. In dividing the trust into shares the Trustee shall reduce the share of any child who may have received an advancement under the terms of the foregoing provisions hereof.

(a) Thereafter the Trustee shall distribute, at least quarterly, to the beneficiary of each trust all the net income of that trust. In addition to the net income, if in the sole and absolute discretion of the Trustee, circumstances have arisen which make it desirable for their comfort, support, education, maintenance and welfare, it shall distribute to, or for the benefit of the beneficiary such amount or amounts of principal from that beneficiary's trust as the Trustee determines proper.

(b) As and when each of our children attains age thirty (30) the Trustee shall pay over to such child, free and clear of any trust, one-half (1/2) of that child's trust estate. Thereafter when each of our children attains the age of thirty-five (35) years, the Trustee shall distribute to such child all the remainder of his trust estate. In the event of the death of any of our children prior to such final distribution of the trust estate the share such deceased child would have received had he or she been living shall be distributed, in equal shares, to and among the then living issue of such deceased child, if any. Upon distribution of the trust estate this trust shall terminate.

B. In the event all of the persons named and classes designated as beneficiaries of any trust hereinabove created shall die prior to the complete distribution of all trust assets, said assets shall be distributed one-half (1/2) to and among my heirs at law, and one-half (1/2) to and among my wife's heirs at law in accordance with the intestacy laws then in effect in the State of Mississippi.

C. In making payments for beneficiaries as required herein, and especially where such beneficiaries may be minors, or by reason of illness be incapable of transacting business, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may make such payments either (a) directly to such beneficiary, (b) to the legal or natural guardian of such beneficiary, (c) to any relative or guardian of the person of such beneficiary who shall have custody and care of the person of such beneficiary, or (d) by applying such payments for the benefit of such beneficiary by paying his or her expenses directly. In any event the Trustee shall require such reports and take such steps as it may deem requisite to assure and enforce the due application of such payments for the exclusive benefit of the said beneficiary.

D. Neither the principal nor the income of this trust, nor any part of same, shall be liable for the debts of any of the beneficiaries hereof, nor shall the same be subject to seizure by any creditors of said beneficiaries. The said beneficiaries shall not have any power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber or in any manner to anticipate or dispose of their interest in the trust funds, or any part of same, or the income produced from said funds or any part of same.

E. This trust shall be designated and known as the "Millard Shelby Roberts, Jr. and Jerry Bailey Roberts Children's Trust."

ITEM V.

If at any time, in following the directions of this Will, the Trustee is required to distribute all or any part of the principal of any trust herein created outright to a person who is then a minor, the Trustee shall be authorized and directed to continue to hold the share of such minor in trust for that minor's benefit until he or she attains age twenty-one (21).

Until such time the Trustee is authorized and directed to expend such part of the income and/or principal of the share belonging to such minor as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems necessary to provide for the proper support, maintenance and education of said minor,

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary any trust established pursuant to the provisions of this Will shall terminate upon the expiration of twenty-one (21) years after the death of the last survivor of my wife and my children. Upon such termination any trust property then held by the Trustee shall be paid over forthwith, free and clear of any trust, to the current income beneficiary or beneficiaries of such trust property (or to his or her legal guardian or other personal representative) as though each such current income beneficiary had reached the age at which final distribution to him or to her were required by the provisions hereof.

ITEM VI.

The trust herein created is a private trust, and the Trustee shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of any court for the exercise of its powers and discretions herein given. The income of the trust herein created shall accrue from the date of my death. During the period of the administration of my estate and until the trust is established, I hereby authorize the Trustee, in its sole discretion, to request of my Executor in which case my Executor shall comply with that request, to pay at least annually out of my general estate to the respective income beneficiaries of such trust, as advanced payments of income, such income as in the judgment of the Trustee and the Executor jointly, equal the income which such income beneficiaries would receive from the said trust had the same been established.

The Trustee shall not be required to enter into any bond as Trustee, nor shall it be required to return to any court any periodic formal accounting of its administration of said trust, but said Trustee shall render annual accounts to the various beneficiaries of the trusts herein created. No persons paying money or delivering property to the Trustee shall be required to see to its application.

The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice, specifying the effective date of such resignation, by personal delivery or by registered mail, to those persons who are beneficiaries of the trust at that particular time. In the event of such resignation a successor Trustee shall be appointed by the Chancery Court of Hinds County, Mississippi, upon petition brought by the beneficiaries of the trust as of the date of such resignation, but in any event such successor Trustee shall be a national bank possessing trust powers. Any such resignation shall become effective upon the qualification of the successor Trustee and submission of a full accounting by the Trustee being replaced. Any successor Trustee shall be vested with all the rights, powers, duties and discretions herein conferred upon the original Trustee.

ITEM VII,

Except as otherwise herein expressly provided, the administration and management of the trust herein created, the sale and conveyance of the trust assets, the investment and reinvestment of trust assets and the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Trustee shall be in accordance with and governed by the terms and provisions of the Uniform Trustees' Powers Act of Mississippi as it now exists or may hereafter be amended. However, in addition to the powers contained in that Act the Trustee shall have full power and authority:

A, To invest funds in a common fund established by the Trustee pursuant to the Uniform Common Trust Fund Act of Mississippi.

B, To determine upon all allocations, charges or credits as between principal and income of the trust. Any dividend payable in the stock of any corporation, or rights to subscribe to shares of stock or other securities or obligations of a corporation which may accrue to the trust, and the proceeds of any sale of such rights, shall be deemed to be principal and shall be treated as such. Likewise, all liquidating dividends shall be deemed to be principal. All other cash dividends received by the Trustee shall be income and shall be disposed of as such.

C. To permit available trust funds to remain temporarily uninvested, or, in its discretion, to place on time deposit in a Savings Account in the Deposit Guaranty National Bank, or any other bank or savings and loan association, cash funds coming into its hands which the Trustee deems it desirable to accumulate for use at a given time in the future in connection with the administration of the trust.

D. To receive additional property conveyed to the trusts by any person, and thereafter to hold, administer and dispose of said property in accordance with the terms of the trust.

E. In distributing income of any trust contained herein the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may distribute income of the trust in cash or in kind. In making distributions of both principal and income of any trust contained herein the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may make a non-pro rata distribution of property in kind. The judgment of the Trustee concerning values and purposes of such division or distribution of the property or securities held in the trust shall be binding and conclusive on all parties interested therein.

F. At my specific request, Lauch M. Magruder, Jr. has agreed to serve as Advisor to the Trustee. By so designating him as Advisor, I do not intend to impose upon him any legal responsibility or to relieve the Trustee of any of its responsibility. In the administration of this trust, the Trustee shall, at all times, consult and advise with the said Advisor and shall give respectful attention to his counsel and advice.

However, the Trustee's decision shall be final and conclusive and no liability shall arise against the Trustee for its failure to follow the advice of the Advisor. In the event Lauch M. Magruder, Jr., shall be or become unable or unwilling to serve as Advisor to the Trustee, then a partner in his law firm shall serve in such capacity and shall have all rights and responsibilities herein given to the said Advisor. In such event, the law firm shall determine which of its partners shall serve as Advisor and shall make such decision known to the beneficiaries and the Trustee by written notice.

The said Lauch M. Magruder, Jr., or any successor Advisor, shall receive reasonable compensation for his services as Advisor to the Trustee. The Advisor shall submit periodic statements to the Trustee for services rendered, on the same basis as he would charge any other client. From the funds of the trust the Trustee shall promptly remit payment to the said Advisor for his services rendered.

ITEM VIII,

If my wife and I shall die simultaneously, or under circumstances which make it difficult or impossible to determine which of us died first, I direct that my wife shall be deemed to have survived me for the purposes of this Will and I further direct that the provisions of this Will shall be construed upon that assumption, irrespective of any provisions of law establishing a contrary presumption or requiring survivorship as a condition of taking property by inheritance,

ITEM IX,

In order to provide for the security of my minor children in the event of my death during the minority of said children, I hereby designate and appoint Jerry Badley Roberts, as guardian of said minor children. The said guardian shall have custody and tuition of my minor children until they attain the age of twenty-one (21) years. I direct that the aforesaid guardian shall not be required to furnish any bond or other security for the faithful performance of the duties of guardian. To the extent possible I direct that any and all accountings, inventories and the like ordinarily required of a guardian shall not be required of said guardian.

ITEM X.

And now, having disposed of my entire estate, I hereby nominate and appoint Jerry Bailey Roberts, Executrix of my Estate under this my Last Will and Testament. In the event my said Executrix shall be or become unable or unwilling to serve as Executrix I nominate and appoint Lauch M. Magruder, Jr. to serve as successor Executor. I direct that neither my Executrix nor any successor Executor shall be required to make any bond as Executor; neither shall either of them be required to make a formal appraisal of my estate, provide an inventory or an accounting to be filed with any court.

In the administration of my estate the personal representatives herein named shall have all the rights, powers and discretions herein granted to the Trustee. Specifically, the Executrix shall have full power and authority to continue any and all business operation in which I may be interested at the time of my death for such time as may be permitted by law, so as to avoid as far as possible any depreciation in value of such assets and interests or losses to my business associates or to my estate. The Executrix may continue to act as partner and engage in any partnership in which I am interested and to take any and all actions with regard thereto the Executrix may deem necessary or advisable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have executed the foregoing paper-writing and declare the same to be my Last Will and Testament on this the 24 day of November, 1972.

Millard Shelby Roberts, Jr.

This instrument was, on the day and year shown above, signed, published and declared by Millard Shelby Roberts, Jr. to be his Last Will and Testament in our presence, and we, at his request, have subscribed our names hereto as witnesses in his presence and in the presence of each other.
