LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

DEWEY L. GRIFFIN

I, DEWEY L. GRIFFIN, of 1232 Summer Lane, Jackson, Mississippi, being of sound mind and memory and over the age of twenty-one years, do hereby make, declare and publish this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

I.

I name my wife, Willie Pearl Griffin, to be Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament, and guardian of the person and property of any minor children I have surviving me. In the event she is not living at my death or is unable or unwilling to serve, I name my son, Robert Terrell Griffin of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, alternate Executor of this my Will and alternate guardian of the person and property of any minor children I have surviving me; and in the event he is unable or unwilling to so serve, I name my daughter, Debra Charlene Griffin, to so serve. My Executrix and the guardian of the person and property of any minor children I have surviving me, as well as any alternate or successor Executor and guardian of the person and property of my children, shall not be required to make bond or file any accountings with any court.

II.

The guardian of the person and property of any minor children I have surviving me shall receive such minors' shares of my estate and shall hold, administer and deal with the same as if such guardian were the absolute owner thereof during their minority, with full powers of sale and reinvestment, without the necessity of obtaining any court order, authorization or approval thereof.

III.

The contents of my personal residence, such as furniture, furnishings, fixtures, etc. are the separate property of my wife, and for this reason I am making no specific disposition thereof herein. I devise and bequeath to my wife, Willie Pearl Griffin, should she survive me, my interest in the personal residence occupied by us at the time of my death, and all my items of personal use and effects, and the automobile being used by me at the time of my death.

IV.

If my wife, Willie Pearl Griffin, survives me, I give, devise and bequeath to her an amount equal to 50 percent of the value of my adjusted gross estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes, undiminished by any estate inheritance, transfer, legacy, or succession taxes or death duties, either state or federal, but less the aggregate value of all property and interests in property, if any, which pass to my wife under other provisions of this my Will or which have passed to her, or for her benefit, otherwise than under this Will (such as by operation of law, through life insurance proceeds, or otherwise) but only to the extent that such interests form a part of my gross estate for federal estate tax purposes and are also allowed to form a part of the marital deduction to my estate for federal estate tax purposes. My Executrix shall have full power and the sole discretion to satisfy this gift wholly or partly in cash or kind and to select the assets which shall constitute this gift; provided, however, that all property so selected shall be valued at the value thereof as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes; and provided, further, that my Executrix, in implementing this gift, shall distribute assets, including cash, having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution amounting to no less than the amount of this gift as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes; and provided, further, that there shall not be included in this bequest any asset or the proceeds of any asset which does not qualify for the marital deduction for federal estate tax purposes.

V.

The rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, I leave to my wife, should she survive me, for her lifetime and at her death, to those children of mine who are then surviving to be divided between them in shares of substantially equal value without the necessity of a formal appraisal. All of my estate shall descend under this clause of my Will outright to my children surviving me, if my wife does not survive me.

VI. If my wife and I die under circumstances where it is impossible to determine which of us died last, it shall be presumed for all purposes that she survived me.

Book 18 pg 670

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I the undersigned do hereby make, declare and publish this writing as my Last Will and Testament, this the 10 day of March, 1976.
