BILLY V. COOPER
Notary Public
B. V. Cooper

I, HARRY CAGE ROBERTS, an adult resident citizen of Canton, Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me. 26-623

ITEM I.

I appoint THE CANTON EXCHANGE BANK of Canton, Mississippi, as Executor of my Estate under this Will. I direct my Executor to pay all of my just debts and obligations which may be probated, registered and allowed against my estate as soon as may be conveniently done.

ITEM II.

My wife's name is MARTHA ROANOKE POND ROBERTS, and she is sometimes referred to herein as "my wife."

ITEM III.

After the payment of any debts, obligations and expenses of my estate, my Executor shall pay any and all estate and inheritance taxes payable by my estate. All the rest and residue of my estate I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, MARTHA ROANOKE POND ROBERTS, if she shall survive me. If my wife shall not survive me, then I devise and bequeath the residue of my estate as follows:

A. One-half (1/2) of the residue of my estate, in equal shares, to CARLTON F. MOE, JR., and CAROL MOE YOUNG. If either shall not be living at the time of this distribution, then the share of such decedent shall pass and go to the issue of such decedent, but if such decedent leaves no issue, then to the heirs-at-law of such decedent.

B. One-fourth (1/4) of the residue of my estate to MARTHA ANN JOHNSTON MAY. In the event she is not living at the time of this distribution, then this share shall pass and go to her issue, but if she leaves no issue, then to her heirs-at-law.

C. One-fourth (1/4) of the residue of my estate, in equal shares, to MARTHA ANN JOHNSTON MAY, MALLORY WILKERSON BEARD, CHARLES W. WILKERSON and HUGH JOHNSTON, JR. In the event HUGH JOHNSTON, JR. is not living at the time of this distribution, then his share shall pass and go in equal shares to MARTHA ANN JOHNSTON MAY, MALLORY WILKERSON BEARD, and CHARLES W. WILKERSON. In the event MARTHA ANN JOHNSTON MAY, MALLORY WILKERSON BEARD or CHARLES W. WILKERSON are not living at the time of this distribution, then the share of such decedent shall pass and go to the issue of such decedent, but if such decedent leaves no issue, then to the heirs-at-law of such decedent.

In the event all of the persons designated above die prior to this distribution, the residue of my estate shall be distributed in equal shares to the FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH of Canton, Mississippi, and the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH of Vicksburg, Mississippi.

ITEM IV.

If my wife and I die simultaneously, or under circumstances which make it difficult to determine which of us died first, I direct that my wife be deemed to have survived me for purposes of this Will. I direct that the provisions of this Will be construed upon that assumption, irrespective of any provisions of law establishing a contrary presumption or requiring survivorship as a condition of taking property by inheritance.

ITEM V.

In the event THE CANTON EXCHANGE BANK is or becomes unable or unwilling to serve as Executor, my wife, MARTHA ROANOKE POND ROBERTS, if she is surviving, shall appoint a successor Executor. If my wife is not then surviving or if she shall fail to make such appointment, it will be done by the Chancery Court of Madison County, Mississippi. In any event, my Executor or successor Executor shall be a bank possessing trust powers. All rights, powers, duties and discretions granted to or imposed upon my Executor shall be exercisable by and imposed upon any successor Executor or Administrator. I direct that neither my Executor nor any successor Executor shall be required to make any bond as Executor. To the extent permissible by law, I waive the requirement that my Executor, or any successor Executor, be required to make a formal appraisal, provide an inventory or file an accounting for my estate with any court.

Where used throughout this Will, the terms "Executor" and "Administrator" may be used interchangeably and shall apply to whoever may be serving as personal representative of my estate, whether one or more than one.

My Executor shall have discretion to select property to be distributed in satisfaction of any devise or bequest provided in this Will without respect to the income tax basis of the property. In making a selection, my Executor is excused from any duty of impartiality with respect to the income tax basis of the property. However, my Executor shall not exercise this discretion in any manner that will result in loss of, or decrease in, the marital deduction otherwise allowable in determining the federal estate tax due by my estate.

HCA

My Executor shall have authority to continue any business operations in which I am engaged at my death for the time permitted by law in order to avoid depreciation in value of the interests or losses to my estate or my business associates. My Executor may continue to act as a partner, engage in any partnership, and take all actions with regard to any partnership my Executor deems advisable.

I specifically authorize my Executor to borrow such funds as may be necessary to pay my debts and administration expenses and taxes of my estate and to pledge such of my property, real or personal, as may be necessary to secure such loan; provided, however, that my Executor shall not pledge any property specifically devised or bequeathed herein. My Executor shall not be required to pay or otherwise satisfy such loan prior to the closing of my estate and the discharge of my Executor, but may distribute such property at its value net of such loan in satisfaction of any bequest herein.

My Executor shall not be required to reduce any or all of my personal or real property to cash during the administration of my estate, but in my Executor's discretion may sell only so much of my property that is necessary to obtain cash to pay taxes, debts and costs of the administration of my estate. After the payment of said debts, taxes and costs, in the sole discretion of my Executor, my Executor is authorized to make distributions to devisees and legatees either in cash or in kind or a combination of each.

WILLYN COOPER

I, GARFIELD STOKES, SR. an adult resident of Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I.

I declare that I am the husband of Ida Mae Stokes, to whom all references herein to "my wife" relate. I am the father of James S. Stokes, Garfield Stokes, Jr. and Sallie L. Stokes. All references herein to my children shall include any child or children born or adopted by me after the making of this will, in addition to my named children.

ARTICLE II.

I direct that federal and state estate and inheritance taxes, including interest and penalties thereon, if any, becoming due by reason of my death, shall be paid from my residuary estate passing under this will.

ARTICLE III.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my wife my tangible personal property owned by me at the time of my death including clothing, jewelry, personal automobiles, sporting equipment and articles of personal or household use, but not including money, securities or the like, and all policies of insurance relating to such tangible personal property if she survives me. In the event that my wife does not survive me, I give, devise and bequeath my tangible personal property to my children, share and share alike. I request my Executor to distribute my tangible personal property in such a manner that each of my children receives property having equal monetary and sentimental value to the share received by any other child. My Executor's decision in this regard shall be final and binding upon my children.

ARTICLE IV.

If my wife survives me, I will to her an amount which, together with the total value of other property passing other than under this article of my will which qualifies for the marital deduction, shall equal the maximum marital deduction allowed for federal estate tax purposes under the United States Internal Revenue Code, undiminished by state or federal estate or inheritance taxes. If the application of this formula results in no federal estate tax payable by my estate, my Executor shall increase my taxable estate by reducing the amount of this bequest for my wife to the greatest amount which will still result in no federal estate tax payable by my estate, after taking into account all deductions (other than the marital deduction being computed herein) and credits allowable to my estate for federal estate tax purposes.

My Executor shall have the power and the sole discretion to satisfy this bequest wholly or partly in cash or in kind and to select the assets which shall constitute this gift, provided, however, that all property so selected shall be valued at the value thereof as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes, provided, further, that my Executor in order to implement this bequest shall distribute to my wife assets, including cash, having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution amounting to no less than the amount of this bequest as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes. There shall not be included in this bequest any assets or the proceeds of any assets which do not qualify for the marital deduction for federal estate tax purposes.

In the event of any uncertainty regarding the interpretation of the provisions of this article of my will, it is my intention that the provisions shall be interpreted in a manner which would permit this bequest to qualify for the marital deduction authorized by the United States Internal Revenue Code and none of the powers granted to my executor shall be exercised in such a manner as to disqualify this bequest or any part thereof from the marital deduction allowable in determining the federal estate tax on my estate.

ARTICLE V.

I give, devise and bequeath all of my residuary estate, being all other property, real and personal, wherever situated in which I may have any interest at the time of my death, not otherwise effectively disposed of, after the payment of estate and inheritance taxes, to the Trustee hereinafter named, in trust. This Trust shall be known as the "Stokes Family Trust" created under my will and shall be for the following uses and purposes and shall be administered upon the following terms and conditions.

A. If my wife survives me, the Trustee shall pay all the net income to my said wife in convenient installments periodically, at least as often as annually, during her life. However, the Trustee may in his discretion withhold from my wife so much of the income as the Trustee determines not to be required for her support, welfare and health. The Trustee may in his discretion pay to one or more of my descendants, so much of any withheld income as the Trustee determines to be required or desirable for their support, welfare, health and education, or for any other purpose the Trustee believes to be in their best interests. Any excess income not distributed shall be accumulated and added to principal.

B. If the total income of my said wife is, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, insufficient to enable her to maintain her present standard of living, or if, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, an emergency has arisen, then the Trustee may pay to her out of the principal of the trust such additional sum or sums as the Trustee shall deem proper. In making this determination, the Trustee may take into consideration my said wife's assets and income from sources other than this trust. The Trustee is also authorized to pay any and all medical, nursing, hospital or other related bills which may be incurred by my said wife, out of income or corpus or both.

C. The Trustee shall have full power and authority to invest and reinvest the principal of the Trust in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee may see fit for the benefit of the beneficiaries of the Trust, and is hereby granted all powers during administration of the Trust as are granted trustees by the Mississippi Uniform Trustees Powers Law, including but not limited to the following

1. To sell, exchange, pledge, or mortgage or otherwise dispose of any property, real or personal, originally or subsequently acquired.

GARFIELD STOKES, SR.

2. To retain and hold in unchanged form any property, real or personal, coming into its hands.

3. To rent or lease any of the properties embraced within the Trust, upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee deems advisable.

4. To make all determinations respecting division, allotment and distribution of income and principal to the beneficiary.

5. To pay taxes of every kind existing against the trust property.

6. To employ such agents and attorneys as are usual and necessary.

7. To hold investments in the name of a nominee.

8. To operate and maintain any corporation or business that I may own at the time of my death and to appoint, hire, or otherwise allow a person or persons of his choosing to operate and maintain said corporation or business in order to generate income for this trust.

9. And to do all other acts which, in the judgment of the Trustee may be necessary or appropriate for the proper and advantageous management, investment, and distribution of the trust estate to the same extent as though he were the sole owner of the trust property.

No purchaser, mortgagor or any other person, firm or corporation need see to the application of funds paid or advanced to the Trustee in connection with the business or purposes of this Trust, but the receipt of the Trustee therefor shall be a complete acquittance and discharge.

D. Neither the principal nor the income of the trust fund, nor any part of same, shall be liable for the debts of my said wife, or for my children hereinafter mentioned, nor shall same be subject to seizure by any creditor of my said wife or children, and they shall not have any power to sell, assign, transfer, convey, encumber, or in any manner to anticipate or dispose of their interests in the trust fund, or any part of same or the income produced from such fund, or any part of same.

E. This Trust shall exist throughout the lifetime of my wife, and upon her death, the entire remaining corpus and all accrued income in the Trust shall be conveyed, transferred, assigned, delivered and paid over to my children, in equal shares, or if any of my said children should be deceased at the time of my wife's death, to their issue or children, per stirpes, or in default of children, to my other children in equal shares, or their children or issue, per stirpes.

F. This is a private Trust, and the Trustee shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of any court for the exercise of any power or discretion herein given. The Trustee shall not be required to return to any court any periodic formal accounting of his administration of the Trust, but said Trustee shall render annual accounts to my said wife. No person paying money or delivering property to the Trustee shall be required to see to its application. Bond shall not be required of the Trustee.

G. The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice to the beneficiary entitled to participate in the Trust at the time of said resignation, specifying in said notice the effective date of such resignation. The Successor Trustee hereinafter named shall then take the duties and responsibilities of the resigned Trustee and shall have the same title, powers and discretion herein given the original Trustee. If at this time, the Successor Trustee fails to qualify or is otherwise unable to serve, the Alternate Successor Trustee shall take the duties and responsibilities of the resigned Trustee and shall have the same title, power and discretion herein given the original Trustee. If at this time, the Alternate Successor Trustee fails to qualify or is otherwise unable to serve, then a Trustee may be appointed on petition of the beneficiary or beneficiaries by the Chancery Court of Madison County, Mississippi, and the appointed Trustee shall have the same title, powers and discretion herein given the original Trustee.

H. In determining the meaning of the word "descendants" and children for the purposes of this will, adopted children of any person, including myself, shall be treated as though they were natural born children of that person.

ARTICLE VI.

In the event my wife predeceases me, I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, real and personal, of whatsoever kind or character and wheresoever situated to my children, in equal shares, or if any of my children should predecease me, to their children, per stirpes, or in default of children, to my other children in equal shares, or their children, per stirpes.

ARTICLE VII.

In the event that both my said wife and I should die in a common disaster or accident, or under such circumstances that it cannot be determined which of us is the survivor, I hereby declare that she shall be deemed to have survived me, and this will and all of its provisions shall be construed upon that assumption.

ARTICLE VIII.

I appoint my son, Garfield Stokes, Jr. as Executor of my estate and as Trustee of the Trust created in Article V, or if he fails to qualify or ceases to act, I appoint my other son, James S. Stokes as Successor Executor and Trustee, and if he then fails to qualify or ceases to act, I appoint my daughter, Sallie L. Stokes as Alternate Successor Executrix and Trustee, and direct that any one of them serve in both capacities without the necessity of making bond or accounting to any court. I direct that my Executor in the administration of my estate shall have all of the powers granted to the Trustee with respect to the trust property, including specifically the right to sell real or personal property at public or private sale without court order. I direct that my Trustee and Executor make a full report to the beneficiaries of my estate annually.

ARTICLE IX.

I presently own as sole proprietor a construction business operated in the Jackson, Mississippi area. I anticipate that at the time of my death I will own stock in said company or in a successor thereto, or that I will own a controlling interest in another business enterprise (whether operated in the form of a corporation, a partnership or a sole proprietorship), hereinafter referred to as the business, and consequently I expect that some such business enterprise will be in my estate at the time of my death. Since I desire that my Executor and Trustee shall continue to hold and operate each such business as a part of my estate and the trust funds herein created, I hereby vest my said Executor and Trustee, including any successors to either, with the following powers and authority as supplemental to the ones contained in Articles V and VIII, the applicability of which to the business I confirm, without limitation by reason of specification, and in addition to powers conferred by law, all of which may be exercised with respect to every such business, whether a corporation, a partnership or a sole proprietorship:

A. To retain and continue to operate the business for such period as the Executor or Trustee, as the case may be, may deem advisable.

B. To control, direct and manage the business. In this connection, the Executor or Trustee in its sole discretion, shall determine the manner and extent of its active participation in the operation, and the Executor or the Trustee may delegate all or any part of its power to supervise and operate, to such person or persons as it may select, including any associate, partner, officer or employee of the business.

C. To hire and discharge officers and employees, fix their compensation and define their duties; and similarly to employ, compensate and discharge agents, attorneys, consultants, accountants and such other representatives as the Executor or Trustee may deem appropriate; including the right to employ any beneficiary (or individual Trustee) in any of the foregoing capacities.

D To invest other estate or trust funds in such business, to pledge other assets of the estate or trust as security for loans made to such business; and to loan funds from the trust to such business.

GARFIELD STOKES, SR.

E. To organize a corporation under the laws of this or any other state or country and to transfer thereto all or any part of the business or other property held in the estate or trust, and to receive in exchange therefor such stocks, bonds and other securities as the Executor or Trustee may deem advisable.

F. To take any action required to convert any corporation into a partnership or sole proprietorship.

G. To retain in the business such amount of the net earnings for working capital and other purposes of the business as the Executor or Trustee may deem advisable in conformity with sound business practice.

H. To purchase, process and sell merchandise of every kind and description, and to purchase and sell machinery and equipment, furniture and fixtures and supplies of all kinds.

I. To sell or liquidate all or any part of any business at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as the Executor or Trustee may determine. The Executor or the Trustee is specifically authorized and empowered to make such sale to any partner, officer or employee of the business (or to any individual Executor or Trustee) or to any beneficiary hereunder.

K. To exercise any of the rights and powers herein conferred in conjunction with another or others.

L. To diminish, enlarge or change the scope or nature of any business.

GARFIELD STORES, SR.

I am aware that certain risks are inherent in the operation of any business. Therefore, I direct that my Executor and Trustee shall not be held liable for any loss resulting from the retention and operation of any business unless such loss shall result directly from the Executor's or Trustee's gross negligence or wilful misconduct. In determining any question of liability for losses, it should be considered that the Executor or Trustee, as the case may be, is engaging in a speculative enterprise at my express request.

If any business operated by my Executor or Trustee pursuant to the authorization contained in this will shall be unincorporated, then I direct that all liabilities arising therefrom shall be satisfied first from the business itself and second out of the estate or trust estates. It is my intention that in no event shall any such liability be enforced against the Executor or Trustee personally. If the Executor or Trustee shall be held personally liable, it shall be entitled to indemnity first from the business and second from the estate or trust estates.

I, Garfield Stokes, Sr. have signed this will which consists of twelve pages this the 29th day of November 1879 in the presence of Willie H. K..., Dorothy C. Davis, and _____, Henry B. Burton, who attested at my request.

I, Margaret Thomas McMullen, a resident of Madison County, Mississippi, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills or Codicils heretofore made by me.

ONE

I request and direct a decent funeral that will be satisfactory to my family and friends. In case of any dispute, the decision shall be made by my son, Frank W. McMullen.

TWO

A. I give and bequeath all of my tangible personal property in equal shares to my children, or if they shall be unable to agree upon such shares, my Executors shall have sole discretion to decide.

B. All expenses incurred by my Executors during the period of the administration of my estate in storing, packing, shipping or insuring any article of tangible personal property bequeathed by any provision of this Will shall be charged against the principal of my residuary estate and treated as an expense of administering my estate.

THREE

All of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real or personal, of whatever nature and wherever located, including any legacy which may for any reason fail to take effect, shall be divided into two equal shares and I give devise and bequeath such equal shares as follows:

A. One such equal share to my son, Frank W. McMullen, or if he shall not survive me, per stirpes among such of his issue as shall survive me, or if there shall be no such issue, to my said son's wife if she shall survive me and shall have been married to my said son at the time of his death and shall not have remarried at the time of my death, or if she shall not meet all of the foregoing conditions, such equal share shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of paragraph B of this Article.

B. The other equal share to be held in trust by my Trustees and I direct that the entire net income therefrom shall be paid to my son, Luther Herbert McMullen, Jr. (Herbert) in annual or more frequent installments so long as he shall live. Upon the death of my said son, Herbert, or upon my death if he shall not survive me, the entire then principal of the trust or such other equal share, as the case may be, shall be distributed per stirpes among such of the issue of my said son, Herbert, as shall survive the survivor of my said son and myself, or if there shall be no such issue, to my said son's wife if she shall survive the survivor of my said son and myself and shall have been married to my said son at the time of his death and shall not have remarried at the time of the death of the survivor of us, or if she shall not meet all of the foregoing conditions, to my son, Frank W. McMullen, or if he shall not then be living, per stirpes among such of his issue as shall survive the survivor of my said son, Herbert and myself.

C. I authorize my Trustees in their absolute discretion, at any time or from time to time, to pay or apply any or all of the principal of the trust created by paragraph B hereof to or for the support, maintenance, education, or health of my said son, Herbert, or his children. The term "health" would include, without limitation, medical and dental services, hospital or nursing home services, nursing services, medical and dental prostheses and any other expenses relating to the health of my said son or his children.

Whenever any property, whether income or principal, shall be payable or distributable pursuant to any provision of this Will to a minor or incompetent, I direct that such property shall be held in trust by my Trustee with the power, in my Trustee's absolute discretion:

To hold and invest the same (with all of the powers given by this Will) during minority or incompetency, and to accumulate any part or all of the income from any such property, and to pay or apply any or all of such income or principal for the maintenance, support, health, or education of such minor or incompetent or to pay any such property to any guardian or parent of such minor or incompetent or to any person with whom such minor or incompetent resides, to be used for any of such purposes, or to permit such minor or incompetent to have the possession and use of any of such property, and any property not so paid or applied shall be distributed outright to such minor upon such minor reaching the age of twenty-one years or to such incompetent at any time or in the case of death of such minor or incompetent, per stirpes among the issue then living of such minor or incompetent, or if there shall be no such issue, per stirpes among my other then living issue. My Trustee shall exercise the discretion granted herein without regard to the duty of any other person to furnish support for such minor or incompetent and shall not be under any duty or obligation to see to the application of any such property by any person to whom any such property has been paid, and no person paying money or delivering property to my Trustee shall be required to see to its application.

FIVE

A. For purposes of this Will: "minor" shall mean any person who has not reached twenty-one years of age; "child" and "children" shall not include grandchildren; "issue" shall include children and more remote descendants, and a person legally adopted shall be considered in all respects to be a natural and legal issue.

Margaret Thomas M. Muller-3-

B. Any trust created under any article of this Will is a private trust, and the fiduciary shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of any Court for the exercise of any power or discretion herein given, nor to enter into any bond as Trustee, nor to return to any Court any periodic formal accounting of his administration of any of said trusts, but said fiduciary, upon the request of the beneficiaries, shall render annual accounts to the various beneficiaries of said trusts.

C. Any Executor or Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice to the beneficiaries entitled to participate in the estate or trust at the time of said resignation, specifying in said notice the effective date of such resignation. In the event an Executor or Trustee dies, resigns or fails to act for any reason, the successor Executor or Trustee shall have the same title, powers, and discretion herein given the original fiduciary.

C. Neither the principal nor the income of the trust funds nor any part of same, shall be liable for the debts of any beneficiary hereunder, nor shall the same be subject to seizure by any creditor of any beneficiary hereunder nor be transferred, assigned, or encumbered in any way.

SIX

If any beneficiary hereunder and I shall die under such circumstances as to render it difficult or impractical to determine who survived the other, I direct that I shall be deemed to have survived such beneficiary.

SEVEN

All estate, inheritance, or other death taxes imposed under the provisions of any tax law of the United States or any state thereof or any foreign country, which may be payable upon or with respect to any property passing under or outside of any provision of this Will, shall be paid by my Executor out of the principal of my residuary estate and treated as an expense of administering my estate and shall not be apportioned; provided, however, that in all events my residuary estate shall obtain the full amount of estate tax credit permitted it by the Federal estate tax laws.

EIGHT

A. I appoint my son, Frank W. McMullen, and Walter G. Mize, and the survivor of them, as Executors and Trustees hereunder.

B. Any Executor or Trustee action hereunder shall serve without any bond or any accounting or inventory to any Court and shall have all of the powers and authorities as if originally appointed.

NINE

In addition to all powers conferred upon my Executors and Trustees by law, and not by way of limitation, my Executors and Trustees:

A. Shall have all of the powers granted by the Mississippi Uniform Trustees Powers Act as amended from time to time but I request that investments be of a type that will return the highest income consistent with safety.

B. Are authorized to exercise any and all powers of any kind with respect to any closely held corporation or partnership in which I may have been a principal, or any agreements relating thereto, as if I were acting for myself.

C. May allot any property or an undivided interest therein to any trust or share under this Will without being required physically to divide any investments or other property.

TEN

Throughout this Will, and unless provided to the contrary, the masculine gender shall include the feminine, the singular, the plural, and vice versa.

THOMAS O. MC DONALD, SR., AND IRENE V. MC DONALD

WE, THOMAS O. MC DONALD SR., and IRENE V. MC DONALD, both being above the age of twenty-one (21) years and of sound and disposing mind and memory, and both being adult resident citizens of Madison County, State of Mississippi, hereby make and publish this our Last Will And Testament jointly.

I.

We specifically declare this to be our Joint Will. Each of us may, insofar as his or her estate is concerned revoke, alter, modify, or amend this Will, either during the lifetime of both of us or thereafter by the subsequent execution of a new will.

II.

Each of us hereby revokes all wills and codicils to will at any time heretofore made by us, or either of us, whether such former wills were joint or separate.

III.

All of our estate presently consists of property acquired during our marriage. It is our intention by this Will to dispose of all property over which each of us has power of disposition by will, including each person's share of our joint property, and any separate property hereby acquired by either of us.

IV.

As each of us dies, all of the estate of the person so dying, of every kind and character, both real and personal, and wheresoever situated, is hereby given, devised, and bequeathed to the surviving spouse. Upon the death of the survivor of us, all of our property, real, personal, and mixed, is by this Will given, devised, and bequeathed to the children born of our marriage as follows:

(a) After both our deaths, the house and three and one-half acres (3½) which constituted our homestead during our marriage together with all household furniture and furnishings, shall go to our daughter, BETTY ROUSE.

(b) Any money actually on hand at the time of both our deaths shall be divided in four (4) equal parts among our daughters, EL MARIE BROONER, BETTY ROUSE, JO ANNA CREEL, and PATRICIA WALDROP.

(c) All other personal property, which was acquired by us during our marriage, and which any of the aforementioned daughters desires to have for herself, shall be given to that daughter by agreement with the other daughters born of our marriage.

(d) It is our specific intent under the provisions of this our Last Will and Testament that our son, THOMAS O. MC DONALD, JR., shall receive the sum of One Dollar ($1.00), adequate provision having been made for him during our lifetime.

V.

Upon the first of us to die, the Executor of that person's estate shall be the survivor of us. If the survivor of us does not qualify as Executor, or, having qualified should die, resign, or otherwise fail to continue as Executor, we hereby designate our daughter, PATRICIA WALDROP as the Executrix. We specifically direct that no bond be required of any person herein named as an Executor or Executrix.

VI.

This Document shall be construed and interpreted according to the laws of the State of Mississippi, where this Will is executed, and its validity and the validity of any of its provisions shall be determined by and in accordance with the laws of such State.

VII.

We have, except as otherwise specified in this Will, intentionally, and with full knowledge, omitted to provide for any of our heirs living at the time of our death, or any other person who would be entitled to share in our estate through inheritance or intestate succession, and, should any such person contest any provision of this

Will, we specifically give, devise, and bequeath to such person contesting this Will, or any provision thereof, the sum of One Dollar ($1.00) only.
