I, Fred J. Grant of Marblehead, Essex County, Massachusetts, husband of Letitia U. Grant, declare this to be my Last Will, hereby revoking all prior wills and codicils.

After the payment of my debts and expenses, I give, devise and bequeath as follows:

FIRST: All my estate, real and personal, wherever situated, to my wife Letitia U. Grant, if she survives me.

SECOND: If my said wife does not survive me, or if there is no sufficient evidence which of us survives, then my said estate shall be disposed of as follows:

All my said estate, real and personal, wherever situated, to my sons Fred J. Grant, Jr. and Douglas L. Grant in equal shares.

Fred J. Grant

THIRD: I nominate my wife Letitia U. Grant to be the executrix of this will, and if she fails, ceases or is unable to serve, my said sons, Fred J. Grant, Jr. and Douglas L. Grant to be co-executors in her place. I request that my executrix or executors be exempt from giving surety on her or their bond. I confer upon my executrix or executors or any person who may be appointed to complete the administration of my estate full power to mortgage and to sell any and all real or personal property at public or private sale without order or license from any court and to execute and deliver all deeds and instruments necessary therefor.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereto set my hand and in the presence of three witnesses declare this to be my Last Will this 17th day of November, 1966.

Fred J. Grant

CIVIL ACTION
FILE NO. 27-695

PROOF OF WILL

In the matter of a certain instrument of writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Fred J. Grant, deceased, late of Madison County, Mississippi, a former resident of Essex County, Massachusetts, dated November 17, 1966, having a fixed place of residence in the State of Mississippi, and owning personal property in Madison County, Mississippi.

Personally appeared before me, a Notary Public in and for Essex County, Massachusetts, William D. Crooks, Jr., one of the subscribing witnesses to the said will dated November 17, 1966, of Fred J. Grant, and shown as such subscribing witness on the annexed instrument of writing, purporting to be a certified photostatic copy of the said Will dated November 17, 1966 of Fred J. Grant, deceased, late of Madison County, Mississippi, and a former resident of Essex County, Massachusetts, who having been first duly sworn, says that the said Fred J. Grant signed, published and declared the original of said instrument as his Last Will and Testament on the 17th day of November, 1966, the day of the date of the original of said instrument, in the presence of this deponent, and in the presence of Ralph M. Winslow and Robert L. Barry, the other subscribing witnesses thereto, and that the said testator was then of sound and disposing mind and memory, was more than twenty-one years of age, and that this deponent, Ralph M. Winslow, and Robert L. Barry, the other subscribing witnesses, subscribed and attested the original of said instrument as witnesses to the signature and publication thereof, at the special instance and in the presence of the testator, and in the presence of each other, on the day and year of the date thereof.
