LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
JAMES A. BUTCHART

THIS DAY,
FILED

BILLY V. COOPER
Chancery Clerk
By [Signature]

27-982

I, James A. Butchart, an adult resident citizen of Canton, Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

ITEM I.

I direct my Executrix to pay all of my just debts and obligations which may be probated, registered and allowed against my estate as soon as may be conveniently done.

ITEM II.

To my wife, Blanche Cook Butchart, if she be living at my death, I devise and bequeath the following:

A. Any interest I may own in our residence which is occupied by us as a family home, but subject to any indebtedness thereon.

B. Any cash, personal bank accounts, automobiles, clothing, books, jewelry, sport equipment and other personal effects which I may own at my death.

If my wife shall not survive me, I devise and bequeath the aforesaid assets to the Trustees of the "James A. Butchart Testamentary Trust," provided for in Item IV. hereof, to be held, administered and disposed of in accordance with the terms of that trust.

ITEM III.

To my wife, Blanche Cook Butchart, I give, devise and bequeath property equivalent in value to one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of my adjusted gross estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes, less the aggregate value of the marital deduction, if any, allowed for such tax purposes by reason of any interest in insurance or in jointly owned property or in other property or interests in property passing under any other Item of this Will, or having passed to my wife other than by this Will. In satisfaction of this bequest I direct my Executrix to distribute to my wife any interest I may own in our residence. The balance of such bequest shall be made up of such assets as my Executrix may determine. However, my Executrix shall not distribute to my wife in satisfaction of this bequest any property which would not qualify for the marital deduction allowable in determining the federal estate tax on my estate.

It is my intention hereby to convey to my wife the maximum value of property, but no more, that when added to other property passing to my wife other than by this Item of my Will, shall result in the maximum marital deduction available under the applicable Internal Revenue Code provisions. In distributing assets to my wife in accordance with the provisions of this Item of my Will my Executrix shall value the assets so distributed at their values current on the date or dates of distribution.

None of the assets herein conveyed to my wife shall be used for the payment of any estate, inheritance or death taxes that shall become payable upon, or by reason of, my death.

ITEM IV.

After setting aside the assets to satisfy the bequests previously made herein my Executrix shall pay all estate and inheritance taxes payable by reason of my death. The rest and residue to my estate I give, devise and bequeath to my son, Thomas B. Butchart and James A. Cook of Canton, Mississippi, as Co-Trustees, under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, for the benefit of my wife, my daughter, Elizabeth Ann Butchart, and my son, Thomas B. Butchart, (and any other children hereafter born of the marriage of my wife and me).

A. From the net income of this trust the Trustee shall pay, in convenient installments, but no less frequently than annually, to my wife, all or any part of such income as the Trustees shall, in their sole discretion, deem necessary or desirable for the comfort, support, education, maintenance, health or welfare of my wife. Such distributions of income shall be made in such proportions, amounts and at such intervals as the Trustees shall determine. Any income of this trust not distributed by the Trustees shall be added to principal and distributed in accordance with the provisions hereof.

B. In addition to the net income, the Trustees in their sole discretion shall pay over to or apply for the benefit of my wife and children, or any of them, so much of the principal of this trust as the Trustees deem needful or desirable to provide for the support, education and maintenance of my wife and my children, any and all medical, nursing, hospital or other related expenses of theirs, or any other expenses of an emergency nature incurred by any of them. In making any such distribution the Trustees shall consider the reasonable needs of my wife and children and the funds available to them from other sources.

C. Upon the death of my wife the Trustees shall continue to hold the then remaining trust estate in trust for the benefit of my children, in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) From the net income of the trust the Trustees shall pay, in convenient installments but no less frequently than quarterly, to and among my children (but not necessarily in equal shares), all or any part of such income as the Trustees shall, in their sole discretion, deem necessary or desirable for the comfort, support, education, maintenance, health and welfare of my children. Such distributions of income shall be made in such proportions, amounts and at such intervals as the Trustees shall determine. Any income of this trust not distributed by the Trustees shall be added to principal and retained in the trust. It is my intention that the funds of this trust be used to provide my children with an education, including college and graduate or professional school. Therefore, when any of my children complete their college education, or cease attending college, the Trustees are to reduce payments of income to that child so that funds will be available for the education of my younger children. In the exercise of their discretion as to distributions of income, the Trustees shall be under no duty to equalize distributions among the beneficiaries, but the Trustees shall be as generous to each beneficiary as possible, following the guidelines herein provided.

(2) In addition to the income, the Trustees in their sole discretion shall pay over to or apply for the benefit of my said children, or any of them (but not necessarily in equal shares), so much of the principal of this trust as the Trustee deems needful or desirable to provide for the comfort, support, education, maintenance and welfare of my children, any and all medical, nursing, hospital or other related expenses of theirs or any other expenses of an emergency nature incurred by any of them. In making any such distribution the Trustees shall consider the reasonable needs of my children and the funds available to them from other sources.

(3) As and when my youngest living child completes his or her college education, or attains the age of Thirty-Five (35) years, if that child shall have ceased attending college, the Trustees shall distribute to and among my then living children, in equal shares, the entire remaining trust estate. In the event of the death of any of my children prior to such final distribution of the trust estate the share my said deceased child would have received had he or she been living shall be distributed, in equal shares, to and among the then living issue of my said deceased child, if any. Upon distribution of the entire trust estate this trust shall terminate.

(D) In the event all of the persons named and classes designated as beneficiaries of any trust hereinabove created shall die prior to the complete distribution of all trust assets, said assets shall be distributed to and among my heirs at law, in accordance with the intestacy laws then in effect in the State of Mississippi.

(E) In making payments for beneficiaries as required herein, and especially where such beneficiaries may be minors, or by reason of illness be incapable of transacting business, the Trustees, in their sole discretion, may make such payments either (a) directly to such beneficiary, (b) to the legal or natural guardian of such beneficiary, (c) to any relative or guardian of the person of such beneficiary who shall have custody and care of the person of such beneficiary, or (d) by applying such payments for the benefit of such beneficiary by paying his or her expenses directly. In any event the Trustees shall require such reports and take such steps as they may deem requisite to assure and enforce the due application of such payments for the exclusive benefit of the said beneficiary.

F. Neither the principal nor the income of this trust, nor any part of same, shall be liable for the debts of any of the beneficiaries hereof, nor shall the same be subject to seizure by any creditors of said beneficiaries. The said beneficiaries shall not have any power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber or in any manner to anticipate or dispose of their interest in the trust funds, or any part of same, or the income produced from said funds or any part of same.

G. This trust shall be designated and known as the "James A. Butchart Testamentary Trust."

ITEM V.

If at any time, in following the directions of this Will, the Trustees are required to distribute all or any part of the principal of any trust herein created outright to a person who is then a minor, the Trustees shall be authorized and directed to continue to hold the share of such minor in trust for that minor's benefit until he or she attains age twenty-one (21). Until such time the Trustees are authorized and directed to expend such part of the income and/or principal of the share belonging to such minor as the Trustees in their sole discretion deem necessary to provide for the proper support, maintenance and education of said minor.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary any trust established pursuant to the provisions of this Will shall terminate upon the expiration of twenty-one (21) years after the death of the last survivor of my wife and my children. Upon such termination any trust property then held by the Trustee shall be paid over forthwith, free and clear of any trust, to the current income beneficiary or beneficiaries of such trust property (or to his or her legal guardian or other personal representative) as though each such current income beneficiary had reached the age at which final distribution to him or to her were required by the provisions hereof.

ITEM VI.

Any trust herein created is a private trust, and the Trustees shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of any court for the exercise of their powers and discretions herein given. The income of any trust herein created shall accrue from the date of my death. During the period of the administration of my estate and until the trust created herein is established, I hereby authorize the Trustees, in their sole discretion, to request of my Executrix, in which case my Executrix shall comply with that request, to pay at least annually out of my general estate to the respective income beneficiaries of such trust, as advanced payments of income, such income as in the judgment of the Trustees and the Executrix jointly, equal the income which such income beneficiaries would receive from the said trust had the same been established.

The Trustees shall not be required to enter into any bond as Trustees, nor shall they be required to return to any court any periodic formal accounting of its administration of said trust, but said Trustee shall render annual accounts to the various beneficiaries of any trust herein created. No persons paying money or delivering property to the Trustees shall be required to see to its application.

The Trustees or either of them may resign at any time by giving written notice, specifying the effective date of such resignation, by personal delivery or by registered mail, to those persons who are beneficiaries of the trust at that particular date. In the event of such resignation Trustee shall be appointed by the Chancery Court of Madison County, Mississippi, upon Petition brought by the beneficiaries of the trust as of the date of such resignation. Any such resignation shall become effective upon the qualification of the successor Trustee and submission of a full accounting by the Trustee being replaced. Any successor Trustee shall be vested with all the rights, powers, duties and discretions herein conferred upon the original Trustee.

ITEM VII.

Except as otherwise herein expressly provided, the administration and management of any trust herein created, the sale and conveyance of the trust assets, the investment and reinvestment of trust assets and the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Trustees shall be in accordance with and governed by the terms and provisions of the Uniform Trustees' Powers Act of Mississippi as it now exists or may hereafter be amended. However, in addition to the powers contained in that Act the Trustees shall have full power and authority:

A. To permit available trust funds to remain temporarily uninvested, or, in their discretion, to place on time deposit in a savings account in a bank or savings and loan association, cash funds coming into their hands which the Trustees deem it desirable to accumulate for use at a given time in the future in connection with the administration of the trust.

B. To receive additional property conveyed to the trust by any person, and thereafter to hold, administer and dispose of said property in accordance with the terms of the trust.

C. In distributing income of any trust contained herein the Trustees, in their sole discretion, may distribute income of the trust in cash or in kind. In making distributions of both principal and income of any trust contained herein the Trustees, in their sole discretion, may make a non-pro rata distribution of property in kind. The judgment of the Trustees concerning values and purposes of such division or distribution of the property or securities held in the trust shall be binding and conclusive on all parties interested therein.

ITEM VIII.

If my wife and I shall die simultaneously, or under circumstances which make it difficult or impossible to determine which of us died first, I direct that my wife shall be deemed to have survived me for the purposes of this Will and I further direct that the provisions of this Will shall be construed upon that assumption, irrespective of any provisions of law establishing a contrary presumption or requiring survivorship as a condition of taking property by inheritance.

ITEM IX.

And now, having disposed of my entire estate, I hereby nominate and appoint Blanche Cook Butchart, Executrix of my Estate under this my Last Will and Testament. In the event said Executrix shall be or become unable or unwilling to serve as Executrix I hereby nominate and appoint Thomas B. Butchart and James A. Cook to serve as Co-Executors. I direct that neither my Executrix nor any successor Executor shall be required to make any bond as Executrix or Executor. To the extent permissible by Law I waive the requirement that my Executrix or Executors, or any of them, be required to make a formal appraisal of my estate or provide an inventory or an accounting to be filed with any court.

In the administration of my estate my Executrix herein named shall have all the rights, powers and discretions herein granted to the Trustees. Specifically, my Executrix shall have full power and authority to continue any and all business operations in which I may be interested at the time of my death for such time as may be permitted by law, so as to avoid as far as possible any depreciation in value of such assets and interests or losses to my business associates or to my estate. My Executrix may continue to act as partner and engage in any partnership in which I may be interested and to take any and all actions with regard thereto my Executrix may deem necessary or advisable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have executed the foregoing paper-writing and declare the same to be my Last Will and Testament on this the 21 day of April, 1976.

 PARISH OF CADDO)

I, WILLIAM E. WILSON, a resident of Shreveport, Caddo Parish, Louisiana, being of sound mind and disposing memory and realizing the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and constitute this my Last Will and Testament, revoking all others.

I.

I hereby direct that all my debts, including the expenses of my last illness and funeral and the expenses of administration of my estate, be paid by my executor, except that the payment of any installment obligation which I may owe need not be paid before its regular maturity if my executor should so elect. Whenever the term "executor" is used in this Will, same shall mean and include any person who serves as "executrix" hereunder. Whenever the masculine gender is used same shall mean and include the feminine gender where the context permits.

I direct my executor to pay all estate, inheritance, transfer, succession and other taxes, whether state or federal, which may be assessed as a result of my death, with respect to the value of any property, whether or not passing under my Will, including the taxable value of all policies of insurance on my life and of all transfers, powers, rights or interests includible in my estate for the purpose of such taxes. Payments for such taxes shall be made out of my estate as an expense of administration and without apportionment or collection from any other party. My executor may, in my executor's discretion, take advantage of any privileges which may be provided by state or federal law or regulation permitting extensions of time in which to pay such taxes or permitting the same to be paid on an installment basis.

II.

I appoint my wife, Lodo May Ligon Wilson (hereinafter sometimes called "Billie"), as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament and of my estate, giving unto her full seizin of my property, and to serve without giving bond. In the event my wife, Billie, should fail to qualify as my Executor, or if after qualifying she should cease to serve as such for any reason, then I appoint my daughter-in-law Harriet M. Wilson (hereinafter sometimes called "Harriet") as Executor hereunder with full seizin and without bond:

III.

1. I will and bequeath unto my wife Lodo May Wilson ("Billie") the following:

a. All my interest in all personal automobiles, clothes and other items of personal use or adornment, also all furniture, furnishings, household equipment and movable property (other than stocks, bonds, securities and cash) used in or in connection with the place in which my wife Billie and I are living as our home at the time of my death;

b. All my interest in our home at Municipal Number 623 Ockley Drive, Shreveport, Louisiana, and the lands and lots on which it is situated, and if I no longer own an interest in the home at 623 Ockley Drive, Shreveport, Louisiana, at the time of my death, then I will to my wife Billie all my interest in the place in which I am living as my home at such time, and

2. I hereby will and confirm unto my wife Lodo May Ligon Wilson, without bond or other security and without formal inventory, the usufruct for her lifetime over all of my property of every nature and kind except the property willed to her in full ownership

IV.

If any property in my estate shall be subject to administration under the laws of any State other than Louisiana, then my Executor shall to the fullest extent permissible under such laws be Independent Executor without bond, with the most authority I can vest in said Independent Executor, and no action shall be had in any court therein with relation to the settlement of my estate, other than the probating and recording of this Will and the return of such inventory, appraisement and list of claims and payment of taxes as may be required by the law of such State. If my Executor for any reason does not desire to qualify in such State, then I appoint as my Executor therein such executor as may be designated by my Executor under this Will.

V.

Subject to the foregoing, I will all the remainder of my property of whatever nature and kind and wherever situated unto Harriet M. Wilson as Trustee, and her lawful successors in trust, in trust for the beneficiaries hereinafter named, and said property, together with all additions and accruals thereto shall be held by Trustee subject to the terms, conditions and stipulations hereinafter set forth:

A. The name of this trust shall be The W. E. Wilson Testamentary Trust.

B. The income beneficiaries of the net income from the trust are the following persons in the proportions indicated:

Harriet M. Wilson	2/3
William Edward Wilson, III	1/12
Bettina P. Wilson	1/12
Anne P. Wilson	1/12
Irene Wilson Hodges	1/12

Should any income beneficiary demand that the income beneficiary interest of Harriet M. Wilson be reduced and the amount of such reduction be added to the income beneficiary interest of the complainant, same shall be effected if and to the extent required by law.

The principal beneficiaries of the trust are the following persons in the proportions indicated:

William Edward Wilson, III	1/4
Bettina P. Wilson	1/4
Anne P. Wilson	1/4
Irene Wilson Hodges	1/4

William E. Wilson

The share of each principal beneficiary shall be considered a separate trust. The term of each trust shall be for the longer of (1) the lifetime of Harriet M. Wilson, or (2) a term ending on the fortieth birthday of the principal beneficiary.

If any of said principal beneficiaries (who are my grandchildren) should predecease me, the interest as beneficiary of the Trust bequeathed to such predeceased grandchild shall go to his descendants, per stirpes, and if such predeceased grandchild has no descendants, then his interest in the Trust shall go to my other grandchildren, and if such other grandchildren also be deceased, to their descendants, per stirpes.

If a principal beneficiary should die intestate and without descendants during the term of a trust or at its termination, his interest as beneficiary shall go to my surviving grandchildren, and if any or all such other grandchildren also be deceased to their descendants per stirpes.

C. Trustee shall not be required to furnish bond. Subject to the other provisions hereof, any person or entity serving as Trustee may designate another person or entity to serve as Successor Trustee. If no successor Trustee has been so designated and there is a vacancy in the office of Trustee, then First National Bank of Shreveport shall be Trustee.

D. I direct that neither the principal nor income of the trust herein created shall be subject to assignment or other anticipation by the beneficiary for whom the same is intended, nor to attachment, execution, garnishment, sequestration or other seizure under any legal, equitable or other process, it being expressly stipulated that the interest of each beneficiary shall be held subject to a "spendthrift trust";

E. Trustee shall have all of the powers and discretion provided or permitted to trustees by the laws of Louisiana, including any amendments to such laws hereafter made, and particularly the Louisiana

William E. Wilson

Trust Code, and specifically including (without limitation) the following powers and absolute discretion:

(1) To sell, mortgage, pledge, lease, assign, transfer and convey or contract in any manner with respect to all or any part of the property of any nature which belongs to the trust herein created in such manner as the Trustee in its absolute discretion shall seem meet;

(2) To retain as part of the investments of the trust herein created any securities or other property I may leave, and to buy or make new investments in any securities or other property as Trustee shall in Trustee's absolute discretion deem desirable, regardless of whether or not such investments retained or new investments made are legal for trust funds:

(3) To sell, exchange, partition or otherwise dispose of trust property, at public or private sale, for such purposes and upon such terms, including sales on credit, with security, in such manner, and at such price as Trustee may determine;

(4) To borrow money by obligation either secured or unsecured, in such amounts, on such terms, and in such manner as Trustee may think desirable, by mortgage, pawn, pledge or otherwise, and to mortgage or pledge property held in trust for any period of time Trustee shall think desirable, even beyond the term of the trust, for any purpose in connection with the administration of the trust;

(5) To make loans to any person, firm, or corporation on a secured basis, in such amounts, at such rates of interest, upon such terms and in such manner as Trustee may in its discretion determine;

(6) To determine what shall be charged or credited to income and what to principal in any manner that fairly and equitably reflects a proper allocation between principal and income and to treat as income the whole of the interest, dividends, rent,

royalties, or similar receipts from trust property, whether wasting or not, and although bought or taken at a value above par; to treat as income or principal or to apportion between them stock dividends, extraordinary dividends, rights to take stock or securities and the proceeds from the sale of immovable property, although such immovable property may have been partly or wholly unproductive, to charge to income or principal or to apportion between them any expense of making and changing investments, brokers' commissions, agents' compensation, attorney fees, repairs or improvements, taxes, depreciation charges, and Trustee's compensation; and generally to determine all questions as between principal and income and to credit or charge to either or to apportion between them any receipt or gain and any charge, disbursement or loss as it deemed advisable in the circumstances of each case as it arises, notwithstanding any statute or rule of law for distinguishing income from principal or any determination of the Courts;

(7) Should Trustee be required to act under the laws of any other State, the powers, duties and responsibilities of trustees as stated under the Louisiana Trust Code, as the same may be amended from time to time, and as supplemented and modified herein, are to be the specific powers, duties and responsibilities of Trustee in the foreign State insofar as they do not directly conflict with the laws of that State or are not prohibited by the laws of that State, and Trustee shall further have the use of and enjoy all such other and further powers, duties and responsibilities as may be provided or permitted by the laws of such State;

(8) The powers granted to Trustee shall apply both to property originally in the trust and to property later acquired in trust and all property of every description;

F. Trustee shall be responsible only for due diligence in the administration of the trust herein created and shall not be responsible for any loss which shall occur except by reason of Trustee's own misconduct. Trustee shall invest and reinvest the assets of the trust so as to preserve and protect principal and to obtain a reasonable income therefrom;

G. Trustee shall distribute net income at least quarterly to the beneficiary entitled thereto.

VI.

All gifts made during my life to persons named herein as my heirs and legatees or beneficiaries of the trusts herein established shall be considered extra portions and no collation thereof shall be required.

William E. Wilson
