LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
RUTH GAINNEY BRANSCOME

FILED
THIS DATE
OCT 23 1987
BILLY V. COOPER
CHANCERY CLERK
BY [Signature]

I, RUTH GAINNEY BRANSCOME, a resident of Canton, Madison County; Mississippi, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this instrument as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former Wills and Codicils made by me at any time.

ITEM I.

I direct that all my just debts, my funeral expenses, and the costs of administration of my estate be paid as soon as practicable after my death. My Executors in their sole discretion may pay from my domiciliary estate all or any portion of the costs of ancillary administration and similar proceedings in other jurisdictions.

I direct that there shall be paid out of my residuary estate, without apportionment, all estate, inheritance, succession and other taxes, together with any penalty thereon, assessed by reason of my death, imposed by the government of the United States, or any state or territory thereof, or by any foreign government or political subdivision thereof in respect to all property required to be included in my gross estate for estate or like tax purposes by any of such governments, whether the property passes under this Will or otherwise, including property over which I have a power of appointment, without contribution by any recipient of any such property.

ITEM II.A. MARITAL TRUST

If my husband, Dexter A. Branscome, Jr., shall survive me, Dexter A. Branscome, III, and Andrew G. Branscome are named as Co-Trustees, but are hereinafter referred to as "Trustees", of this Marital Trust, for the care, maintenance and support of my husband, Dexter A. Branscome, Jr. If one of the above named trustees cannot serve as co-trustee at any time during the term of this trust, I appoint the remaining co-trustee as sole successor trustee.

My Executors shall pay, transfer, distribute and deliver to the trustees the funds from my estate as provided hereinafter, and the trustees shall hold, manage and control all of the said property as a trust estate. I direct that no bond be required of any of my trustees for the faithful performance of their duties.

The corpus of this trust shall be an amount equal in value to one-half of my adjusted gross estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes, diminished by the value for such purposes of all other items in my gross estate which qualify for the marital deduction and which pass or have passed to my said husband under other provisions of this will or otherwise. In making the computations to determine said amount, the final determinations in the federal estate tax proceedings shall control.

My Executors are authorized to satisfy said bequest in money or in kind or partly in each; and if wholly or partly in kind, to select, transfer and convey to the trustees the specific asset or assets so selected; provided, however, that any assets transferred in kind to satisfy said bequest be valued for that purpose at their fair market values determined as of the dates of their respective transfers; and this bequest shall carry with it (as income and not as principal) its proportionate part of the income of my estate from the date of my death.

Whenever used in this Article, the words "marital deduction", "adjusted gross estate" and "pass" shall have the same meaning as said words have under the provisions of the Federal Internal Revenue Code applicable to my estate.

Only assets which qualify for the marital deduction shall be used to satisfy the foregoing bequest. To the extent, also, that other assets qualifying for the marital deduction are available, said bequest shall not be satisfied by the distribution of: (a) assets with respect to which a credit for foreign taxes paid is allowable under the Internal Revenue Code; (b) assets which may be subject to both income and estate taxes and which may be eligible for a credit or deduction; or (c) United States Treasury bonds eligible for redemption at par in payment of federal estate taxes.

Subject to the foregoing, the decision of my Executors as to which assets shall be distributed in satisfaction of this bequest for the benefit of my husband, as to whether my estate shall be valued under the optional provisions of the federal estate tax law, as to what elections shall be exercised, and as to what proceedings are necessary to complete the ascertainment of the federal estate tax, shall be conclusive and binding on all persons.

In establishing and administering the trust fund created under this Article, the Executors and Trustees shall be vested with all of the powers and authority hereinafter set out; provided, however, that it is my intention that the foregoing trust shall qualify for the marital deduction and said Executors and Trustees shall have no power or authority to allocate receipts and expenses to income and principal (or to exercise any other discretionary power) in any manner which would disqualify this trust for the marital deduction; and accordingly all other provisions of this Will shall be subordinate to this requirement.

The Trustees shall pay the entire net income in quarterly or more frequent installments to my said husband, Dexter A. Branscome, Jr., or apply it for his benefit; so long as he shall live.

In addition to the payment of income hereinbefore provided, the Trustees may pay to my said husband such amounts or all of the principal of the trust property held for his benefit hereunder as it may from time to time deem advisable, to insure his present standard of living. In making such payments the Trustees may, but need not, take into account other financial resources available to my said husband.

Upon the death of my said husband, the trust property then remaining, including any undistributed and accrued shall be disposed of as he may by his last will and testament and by express reference hereto appoint, including the power to appoint to his estate. The Trustees may rely upon an instrument admitted to probate in any jurisdiction as the last will of my said husband, but if it has no written notice of the existence of such a will within a period of three months after his death it may presume that he died intestate and shall be protected in acting in accordance with such presumption, but this protection of my Trustees shall not limit or qualify said general power of appointment or the right of any person or corporation to pursue the funds affected by the exercise thereof, irrespective of the place of probate or time of discovery of a will. Insofar as my said husband fails validly to exercise such power of appointment, then upon his death, the trust property shall be paid over and distributed as follows:

A. Fifty (50%) percent of the corpus of the trust shall be paid to my son, Dexter A. Branscome III, outright.

B. The remaining fifty (50%) percent of the corpus of the trust shall be paid to my son, Andrew

6. Branscome, outright.

Neither the corpus nor income of this marital trust shall be pledged, assigned, transferred, sold, or in any manner whatsoever accelerated, anticipated, or encumbered, by any beneficiary, nor shall any income or corpus of said trust estate be in any manner subject or liable in the hands of the Trustees for the debts, contracts or engagements of any beneficiary, or be subject to any assignment, or any other voluntary or involuntary alienation or disposition whatever. All distributions of income or corpus shall be paid only upon receipt to the beneficiary entitled, or to others for his use and benefit.

On the death of my husband, the Trustees shall be authorized to withhold distribution of an amount of assets sufficient in said trust account, in their judgment, to cover any liability that may be imposed on the Trustees for estate or other taxes until such liability is finally determined.

The Trustees may use the income from the farm lands of this estate for the purpose of maintenance and improvements, construction of bridges, roads, land leveling, any and all type of construction, or changes which benefit the assets comprising the corpus of this estate, this power being in addition to those other powers given to the Trustees, hereinafter named, which is in the best interest of the beneficiary in maintaining the corpus of this trust.

B. RESIDUARY ESTATE

All the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, I give, devise and bequeath to my sons, DEXTER A. BRANSCOME, III, and ANDREW G. BRANSCOME, equally.

ITEM III.

I authorize my Executors and Co-Trustees (including any substitute or successor personal representative or Trustee) in the exercise of a reasonable discretion with respect to all property, real and personal, at any time forming part of my estate or any trust, to exercise any or all the powers hereinbelow set forth, to-wit:

(1) In behalf of my estate to join my spouse (if living), or the personal representative of the estate of my spouse (if deceased), in the execution and filing of a joint income tax return to the United States, or to the state of Tennessee, or any other governmental taxing authority (or a joint gift tax return, if and when such a joint return is authorized by law), if the fiduciaries, in the exercise of their best judgment, believe such action to be for the best interests of my estate, or will result in a benefit to my spouse (or the estate of my spouse) exceeding in amount any monetary loss to my estate which may be caused thereby.

(2) To continue to the extent and so long as in the exercise of the fiduciaries' best judgment it is advisable and for the best interests of my estate so to do, the operation or participation in the operation of any farming, manufacturing, mercantile and/or other business activity or enterprise in which at the time of my death I am engaged, either alone or in unincorporated association with others.

(3) In behalf of my estate to perform any and all valid executory contracts to which at the time of my death I am a party, and which at the time of my death have not been fully performed by me, and to discharge all obligations of my estate arising under or by reason of such contracts.

(4) Pending the administration of my estate, to permit any beneficiary or beneficiaries of this will to have the use, possession and enjoyment, without charge made therefor (and without the fiduciaries thereby relinquishing control thereof), of any real property or tangible personal property of my estate which, upon completion of the administration of my estate, will be distributable to such beneficiary or beneficiaries when if, and to the extent that such action will not adversely affect the rights and interests of any creditor of my estate, and in the judgment of the fiduciaries it is appropriate that such beneficiary or beneficiaries have the use and enjoyment of such property, notwithstanding that it may be subjected to depreciation in value by reason of such use. The exercise of this power will not constitute a distribution of the property with respect to which it is exercised; and, whether or not exercised, neither the power nor the exercise thereof shall be deemed a constructive or actual distribution of the property to which it relates.

(5) During the fiduciaries' administration of the estate, and subject to all the other provisions of this instrument, to receive and receipt for all of the assets of the estate, and to have exclusive possession and control thereof.

(6) By public or private sale or sales, and for such consideration, on such terms and subject to such conditions (if any) as in the judgment of the fiduciaries are for the best interests of the estate and the beneficiaries thereof, to sell, assign, transfer, convey, or exchange any real or personal property of the estate, or the estate's undivided interest in such property, or any specific part of or interest therein (including, but not limited to, standing timber, rock, gravel, sand, growing crops, oil, gas and other minerals or mineral rights or interests), and to grant easements on real property of the estate, and to participate in the partition of real or personal property in which the estate has an undivided interest; and to accomplish any such transactions by contracts, indorsements, assignments, bills of sale, deeds or other appropriate written instruments executed and delivered by the fiduciaries in behalf of the estate, and to acknowledge the execution of such instruments in the manner provided by law for the acknowledgment of the execution of deeds when such acknowledgments are required or appropriate.

(7) For such consideration, on such terms and subject to such conditions (if any) as in the judgment of the fiduciaries are for the best interests of the estate and the beneficiaries thereof, to lease, for terms which may exceed the duration of the estate, any real or tangible personal property of the estate, or any specific parts thereof or interests therein (including, but not limited to, oil, gas and other mineral leases); and to accomplish such leases by appropriate written instruments executed and delivered by the fiduciaries in behalf of the estate, and to acknowledge the execution of such instruments in the manner provided by law for the acknowledgment of the execution of deeds when such acknowledgments are required or appropriate.

(8) In behalf of the estate to borrow money; to evidence such loans by promissory notes or other evidences of indebtedness signed by the fiduciaries in their fiduciary capacity, to be binding upon the assets of the estate but not upon the fiduciaries in their individual capacities; to secure such loans by assigning or pledging personal property of the estate, or by mortgages or deeds of trust or other appropriate instruments imposing liens upon real property or tangible personal property of the estate; and to repay such loans, including principal and interest due thereon.

(9) In behalf of the estate to borrow money from the fiduciaries in their individual capacities and to secure such loans in the same manner as though they were made by a third person.

(10) To enter into contracts binding upon the estate (but not upon the fiduciaries in their individual capacities) which are reasonably incident to the administration of the estate, and which the fiduciaries in the exercise of their best judgment believe to be for the best interests of the estate.

(11) To settle, by compromise or otherwise, claims or demands against the estate, or held in behalf of the estate.

(12) To release and satisfy of record, in whole or in part, and to enter of record credits upon, any mortgage or other lien constituting an asset of the estate.

(13) To abandon and charge off as worthless, in whole or in part, claims or demands held by or in behalf of the estate which, in the judgment of the fiduciaries are in whole or in part uncollectible.

(14) To pay taxes and excises lawfully chargeable against the assets of the estate which are in the possession or under the control of the fiduciaries, including but not limited to ad valorem taxes upon real and personal property of the estate which became due and payable prior to such property coming into the hands of the fiduciaries, or which become due and payable while such property remains in their possession or under their control; excluding, however, income taxes payable by distributees, assessed with respect to income which has been distributed by the fiduciaries pursuant to the provisions of this instrument.

(15) To repair and maintain in good condition real and tangible personal property of the estate so long as such property remains in the possession or under the control of the fiduciaries.

(16) To invest liquid assets of the estate, and from time to time exchange or liquidate and reinvest such assets, pending distribution thereof, if and when such investments in the judgment of the fiduciaries will not impede or delay distribution thereof pursuant to the provisions of this instrument or as otherwise by law required, and in the judgment of the fiduciaries are advisable and for the best interests of the estate and the beneficiaries thereof. In making such investments the fiduciaries shall be guided by the "Prudent Man Rule"; and the investments thus authorized shall be understood to include (but not be limited to) loans secured by mortgages, or liens otherwise imposed, upon real or personal property.

(17) Subject to the making and keeping of appropriate records with respect thereto, which will at all times clearly identify the equitable rights and interests of the estate therein, to invest funds of the estate in undivided interests in negotiable or non-negotiable securities, or other assets, the remaining undivided interests in which are held by the fiduciaries in a fiduciary capacity for the use and benefit of other beneficiaries.

(18) To retain investments which initially come into the hands of the fiduciaries among the assets of the estate, without liability for loss or depreciation or diminution in value resulting from such retention, so long as in the judgment of the fiduciaries it is not clearly for the best interests of the estate, and the distributees thereof, that such investments be liquidated, although such investments may not be productive of income or otherwise may not be such as the fiduciaries would be authorized to make.

(19) At any time and from time to time to keep all or any portion of the estate in liquid form, uninvested, for such time as the fiduciaries may deem advisable, without liability for any loss of income occasioned by so doing.

(20) To deposit funds of the trust in one (1) or more accounts carried by the fiduciaries, in a clearly specified fiduciary capacity, in any one (1) or more banks and/or trust companies whose deposits are insured under the provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act as now constituted or as the same may be hereafter amended; and if the fiduciaries be a bank or a trust company, and are otherwise qualified, they may serve as such depository.

(21) To deposit for safekeeping with any bank or trust company (including the fiduciary himself if he be such a bank or trust company) any negotiable or nonnegotiable securities or other documents constituting assets or records of the estate.

(22) To bring and prosecute or to defend actions at law or in equity for the protection of the assets or interests of the estate or for the protection or enforcement of the provisions of this instrument.

(23) To employ attorneys, accountants, or other persons whose services may be necessary or advisable, in the judgment of the fiduciaries, to advise or assist them in the discharge of their duties, or in the conduct of any business constituting an asset of the estate, or in the management, maintenance, improvement, preservation or protection of any property of the estate, or otherwise in the exercise of any powers vested in the fiduciaries.

(24) To procure and pay premiums on policies of insurance to protect the estate, or any of the assets thereof, against liability for personal injuries or property damage, or against loss or damage by reason of fire, windstorm, collision, theft, embezzlement or other hazards against which such insurance is normally carried in connection with activities or on properties such as those with respect to which the fiduciaries procure such insurance.

(25) To allocate items of receipts or disbursements to either corpus or income of the estate, as the fiduciaries in the exercise of their best judgment and discretion deem to be proper, without thereby doing violence to clearly established and generally recognized principles of accounting.

(26) In behalf of the estate purchase or otherwise lawfully acquire real or personal property, or undivided interests therein, the ownership of which, in the judgment of the fiduciaries, will be advantageous to the estate, and the beneficiary or beneficiaries thereof.

(27) To construct improvements on real property of the estate, or to remove or otherwise dispose of such improvements, when such action is in the judgment of the fiduciaries advisable and for the best interests of the estate.

(28) To exercise in person or by proxy (with or without a power of substitution vested in the proxy) all voting rights incident to the ownership of corporate stock or other securities constituting assets of the estate; and to exercise all other rights and privileges incident to the ownership of such securities, including but not limited to the right to sell, exchange, indorse or otherwise transfer such securities to consent to (or oppose) reorganizations, consolidations, mergers or other proposed corporate actions by the issuer of such securities, to exercise or decline to exercise options to purchase additional shares or units of such securities or of related securities, and to pay all assessments or other expenses necessary (in the judgment of the fiduciaries) for the protection of such securities or of the value thereof.

(29) To employ any bank or trust company to serve as custodian of any securities constituting assets of the estate, and to cause such securities (if they be nonassessable) to be registered in the name of such custodian or of its nominee, without disclosure that they are held in a fiduciary capacity; to authorize such bank or trust company, as agent and in behalf of the fiduciaries, to collect, receive and receipt for income derived from such securities, or the proceeds of sales, assignments or exchanges thereof made by authority and under the direction of the fiduciaries, and to remit to the fiduciaries such income or other proceeds derived from the securities; and to pay to such custodian reasonable and customary charges made by it for the performance of such services; provided that any such action taken by the fiduciaries shall not increase, decrease or otherwise affect their liability, responsibility of accountability with respect to such securities.

(30) To register non-assessable securities constituting assets of the estate in the name of the fiduciaries or of their nominee, without disclosure that such securities are held in a fiduciary capacity, or to hold such securities unregistered or otherwise in such form that the title thereto will pass by delivery, without, in any such case, increasing, decreasing or otherwise affecting the fiduciaries' liability, responsibility or accountability with respect to such securities.

(31) In making distribution of capital assets of the estate to distributees thereof under the provisions of this instrument, except when otherwise required by other provisions of this instrument, to make such distribution in kind or in cash, or partially in kind and partially in cash, as the fiduciaries find to be most practicable and for the best interests of the distributees; to distribute real property to two (2) or more distributees thereof in indivision, or to partition such real property for the purpose of distribution thereof, as the fiduciaries in the exercise of their best judgment find to be most practicable and for the best interests of the distributees; and to determine the value of capital assets for the purpose of making distribution thereof if and when there be more than one (1) distributee thereof, which determination shall be binding upon the distributees unless clearly capricious, erroneous and inequitable.

(32) To do any and all other things, not in violation of any other terms of this instrument, which, in the judgment of the fiduciaries, are necessary or appropriate for the proper management, investment, and distribution of the assets of the estate in accordance with the provisions of this instrument, and in their judgment are for the best interests of the estate and its beneficiaries.

ITEM IV.

If my husband predeceases me, I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate outright and absolutely as follows:

A. Fifty (50%) percent of all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate to my son, Dexter A. Branscome III.

B. The remaining fifty (50%) percent of my estate I give, devise and bequeath to my son, Andrew G. Branscome.

CHANCERY CLERKBY *B. Cooper*LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MARY C. LOVELL

I, MARY C. LOVELL, an adult resident citizen of the City of Canton, Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby specifically revoking any and all former wills and codicils heretofore executed by me.

ARTICLE I.

1. I give and bequeath unto my sister, Marguerite Caviness Ray, the cash sum of $5,000.00.

2. I give and bequeath unto my daughter, Geilda Lovell Brister, any three dolls of her choosing from my doll collection except for the Jumeau doll circa 1880.

3. I give and bequeath unto my granddaughter, Laura Lovell Alderson, all of my jewelry, all of my flat silverware, the portrait of me which belonged to my late husband, Russell Lovell, and all of the dolls of my antique doll collection, including the Jumeau doll, except the three dolls devised and bequeathed to my daughter, Geilda Lovell Brister, hereinabove.

4. I give and bequeath unto my sister-in-law, Mary Lovell Smith, the six-legged ornamental table which is rectangular in shape.

5. I give and bequeath unto my grandson, Jeff Bullen, my late husband's army medals.

6. I give and bequeath unto my grandson, Sammy Bullen the bow and arrow.

7. I give and bequeath unto my grandson, Glenn Alderson, Jr., the United States flag given to me after my husband's death and which was used at his funeral.

8. I give and bequeath unto my faithful maid, Sarah Jackson, the cash sum of $8,000.00

ARTICLE II.

I direct that my Executor hereafter named sell my residence and all real property of my estate and convert the same into cash. After payment of the above specific bequests in Article I all cash realized from the sale of my residence and real property shall be combined and co-mingled with all other cash that I may have whether it be in the form of cash, savings accounts, checking accounts or certificates of deposit. One-half of the total cash sum of my estate, less the specific bequests in Article I, I give and bequeath unto my Trustee hereinafter named in trust for the use and benefit of my grandchildren, Laura Lovell Alderson, Glenn Alderson, Jr., Jeff Bullen and Sammy Bullen, and for the following purposes:

(1) I direct that upon receiving the cash sum herein designated the Trustee shall divide such cash into four equal parts with one share being placed in trust for each of my said grandchildren, it being my desire that my grandchildren share equally in my estate so that initially all of the trusts shall be equal in assets.

(2) Calculated from the date of my death, the Trustee shall pay over to or apply for the sole benefit of my grandchildren, in monthly installments as nearly equal as practical, so much of the net income of this trust as the Trustee, in its sole discretion shall determine adequate for the support and maintenance of my grandchildren in accordance with the terms and conditions of this trust. In the event the Trustee deems it necessary, and in its sole discretion, the Trustee may invade the corpus of these trusts to such an extent and so often as may be necessary to supplement the net annual income distributed to my grandchildren, as may be deemed necessary and appropriate by the Trustee.

(3) In addition to the distribution provided in (2) above, the Trustee, in the exercise of its uncontrolled discretion, shall pay over to or apply for the sole benefit of my grandchildren so much of the principal in each trust as it may deem needful or desirable for the comfortable support and maintenance, including medical, surgical, hospital or other care, having in mind both the standard of living to which they have been accustomed and their total income from other sources.

(4) As each of my grandchildren attains the age of 25 years the trust which is hereby established for that child shall terminate and any and all property remaining in that respective trust shall be distributed to the beneficiary. It is my intention that the trust for each one of my grandchildren remain in full force and effect until each one of my grandchildren attains the age of 25 years, at which time the trust will terminate and each of my grandchildren shall receive the remaining assets in his or her trust.

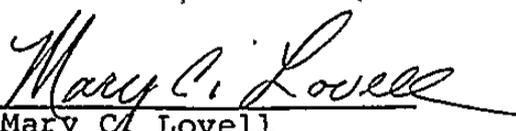

(5) In the event of the death of any beneficiary hereunder, the assets of the deceased beneficiary shall be divided equally among the surviving beneficiaries of these trusts.

ARTICLE III.

All of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate I give, devise and bequeath unto my Trustee hereinafter named in trust for the use and benefit of my daughters, Geilda Lovell Brister and Amber Jo Lovell Alderson, and for the following purposes:

(1) I direct that upon receiving the assets herein designated that the Trustee shall divide them into two equal parts with one share being placed in trust for each of my said daughters, it being my desire that my daughters share equally in this portion of my estate so that initially both of the trusts created under this Article shall be equal in assets.

(2) Inasmuch as my daughters are both married, have adequate income and resources from other sources, any specified portion of the income or corpus of these trusts and the sole purpose of these trusts is merely to supplement the income and assets which my daughters already have and is to provide primarily in the event the income and assets they have from other sources are deemed by the Trustee to be inadequate to properly provide the necessities of life for my daughters. The Trustee shall pay over to or apply for the sole benefit of my daughters, either periodically or at such times as the Trustee may deem it appropriate, so much of the net income of these trusts as the Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall determine to be adequate for the support and maintenance of my daughters in accordance with the terms and conditions of these trusts. In the event the Trustee deems it necessary and in its sole discretion, the Trustee may invade the corpus of these trusts to such an extent and so often as may be necessary to supplement the income and assets of my daughters, but only to the extent that the Trustee deems it necessary and appropriate.

(3) In addition to the distribution provided in Paragraph (2) above, the Trustee in the exercise of its uncontrolled discretion, shall pay over to or apply for the sole benefit of my daughters so much of the principal of these trusts as it may deem needful or desirable for their comfortable support and maintenance, including medical, surgical, hospital or other care, having in mind both the standard of living to which they have become accustomed and their total income from other sources.

(4) At the death of each of my daughters, the trust established for that daughter shall terminate and any and all property remaining in that trust shall be distributed to the children of that daughter, in equal shares, share and share alike. Provided, however, that in the event any of the deceased daughter's children are under 25 years of age that child's share of the trust shall be delivered to the Trustee for that particular child's trust as is established hereinabove in Article II. Any children of a deceased daughter who are over 25 years of age at the time of the death of my daughter shall receive their proportionate share of the trust assets free and unencumbered by the trust. It is my intention that the trust for each of my daughters remain in full force and effect during the lifetime of each daughter and upon the death of each of my daughters all remaining principal and interest, if any, in the respective trusts shall be delivered to the children of the deceased daughter, in equal shares, or to the Trustee for any child who is under 25 years of age at the time. However, the Trustee is herein granted the authority to withhold so much of the trust assets upon distribution as may be necessary to pay all accrued administration cost and any taxes which may be owed by the trust.

ARTICLE IV.

In addition to any inherent or implied powers it may now or hereinafter acquire, I specifically direct that my Trustee be clothed with all of the statutory powers as included in the Uniform Trustees Powers Act as it now is or as it may be amended.

ARTICLE V.

(1) Any Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice specifying the effective date of such resignation, to the beneficiary entitled to participate in the trusts at the time of said resignation. Any Successor Trustee may be appointed, on Petition of any beneficiary, or any other interested party, by the Chancery Court of Madison County, Mississippi, or any other Court of competent jurisdiction, and the Successor Trustee shall have the same title, powers and discretions herein given to the original Trustee.

Mary C. Lovell

(2) To the extent that such requirements can be legally waived, no Trustee or Executor hereunder, nor Successor Trustee nor Successor Executor shall be required to give any bond to serve in such capacity or capacities and such Trustee or Executor shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of the Court to exercise any power or discretion herein given.

ARTICLE VI.

I hereby appoint The Sunburst Bank, Jackson Branch, located in Jackson, Mississippi, as Executor of my Last Will and Testament and also designate The Sunburst Bank as the Trustee in the trust provisions herein, and said Executor is hereby granted all of the powers and discretions with respect to my estate during administration that are herein given to the Trustee with respect to the trust property, including the power to sell real or personal property at public or private sale, to be exercised without Court order and to serve as both Executor and Trustee without the requirement of bond. ARTICLE III.

In addition to any inherent or implied powers they may hereafter acquire, I specifically direct that my Trustees be clothed with all of the statutory powers as included in the Uniform Trustee's Powers Act as it now is or as it may be amended.

ARTICLE IV.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF PEARL FLEMING

I, Pearl Fleming, an adult resident citizen of Madison County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, and I hereby specifically revoke any and all former wills and codicils heretofore executed by me.

ARTICLE I.

I give and devise the real property which I own in Madison County as follows:

1. I give and devise 5 1/2 acres of the property I inherited from my father, Priestley Tucker, to my sister, Clotee Butler.
2. I give and devise 2 acres upon which is situated my house on the Priestley Tucker estate property to my sons, Tyrone Fleming and Gary Davis, in equal shares, share and share alike.
3. I give and devise the remainder of the property I inherited from my father, Priestley Tucker, unto my brother, Percy Tucker.
4. I give and devise my residence and the land which I own located on Highway 16 West of Canton to my son, Gary Davis and I direct that he should be charged with the payment of any indebtedness which is owed against said property and that the debt so owed shall not be paid from the other assets of my estate.

ARTICLE II.

I give and bequeath the wooden bedroom suite which I have in my bedroom to my sister, Clotee Butler, to be disposed of as I have previously directed her.

ARTICLE III.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, of whatsoever kind or character and wheresoever situated, I give, devise and bequeath unto my sons, Tyrone Fleming and Gary Davis, in equal shares, share and share alike, per stirpes.

ARTICLE IV.

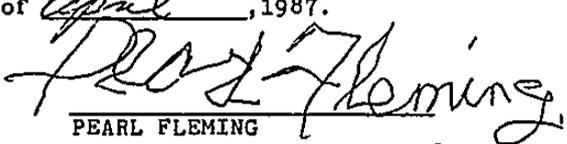

I hereby nominate, appoint and constitute Clotee Butler as Executrix of my Last Will and Testament. My Executrix shall have full and plenary power and authority to do and perform any act deemed by her to be to the best interest of my estate, without any limitation whatsoever and to serve without bond. Said authority shall include, but shall not be limited to the right to take possession, hold, manage, invest and reinvest the same, and to collect the income, dividends, rents, interest and profits therefrom, and to employ and to pay any attorneys, agents and accountants that she may deem necessary for the best interest of my estate.

In addition, my Executrix shall have full authority to sell any real or personal property of my estate, either at a public or private sale, in her sole discretion, for cash or upon such other conditions as she may deem appropriate, with said sale to be made without the necessity of my Executrix first securing a Court order approving said sale.

ARTICLE V.

In the event that Clotee Butler shall predecease me, become disqualified or otherwise fails to qualify as Executrix of my will and estate, then I nominate and appoint Gary Davis to serve as Executor of my Last Will and Testament and direct that he shall not be required to enter into any bond as such Executor and direct that he shall have the same authority and powers as set forth for my Executor in the above and foregoing Article.
