If my said wife is unable or unwilling to serve in such capacity, I then appoint DEPOSIT GUARANTY NATIONAL BANK Executor of my Last Will and Testament. In any event, I direct that no bond, appraisal, inventory or accounting be required of my Executrix or Executor insofar as the same may be legally waived. I hereby direct that my Personal Representative shall, out of the property and estate coming into its hands which is subject to the payment of debts, pay all of my just debts which are properly probated and allowed as claims against my estate and all expenses of my last illness and funeral.

B.

I hereby direct that my Personal Representative shall not be required to reduce any or all of my personal or real property to cash during the administration of my estate, but in its discretion may sell only so much of my property as is necessary to obtain adequate cash (in addition to the cash which I leave at the time of my death) to pay taxes, debts and the costs of the administration of my estate, and after the payment of the said items, my Personal Representative is authorized in its sole discretion to make distribution to my devisees and legatees either in cash or in kind or in both.

C.

I hereby direct that my Personal Representative shall have, with reference to my estate, all of the powers set forth in Article V of the Dr. and Mrs. Richard W. Tyer Family Trust dated the 17th day of July, 1995, as may be amended, and the statutes therein cited, in addition to the powers herein granted and in addition to all inherent, implied and statutory powers of an executor, and without in any manner limiting or restricting such powers.

D.

I hereby direct that, if my wife survives me, all estate and inheritance taxes, together with any interest and penalties thereon, which become due as a result of my death shall be paid from Trust "A" created under Article VII of the Dr. and Mrs. Richard W. Tyler Family Trust dated the 17th day of July, 1995, as may be amended.

E.

I hereby authorize my Personal Representative to acquire any necessary cemetery lot or lots for my burial and any appropriate marker for my grave, the expense of such to be paid for out of my residuary estate.

D.

My personal automobile.

E.

If my said wife should predecease me, then and in that event, all of the property referred to in this Item II shall be and become a part of my residuary estate.

I give, devise and bequeath:

- (1) To JAN CRANE CANTWELL, my granddaughter-in-law, the sum of Five Thousand and 00/100ths Dollars ($5,000.00).

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

JIMMIE FREEMAN BELL

I, JIMMIE FREEMAN BELL, Social Security Number 425-15-0408, of the state of Mississippi, declare that I am a member of the United States Armed Forces and that I am currently living in Georgia pursuant to Military Orders. I declare that this is my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT and I revoke all other wills and codicils previously made by me.

FIRST: I appoint my brother, William Bell, Jr. as my Personal Representative concerning this Will. If my brother, William Bell, Jr. is unable or fails to serve, I then appoint my father, William Bell, Sr. to serve as my Personal Representative.

a. I request that my Personal Representative be permitted to serve without bond or surety thereon and without the intervention of any court, except as required by law. I direct that my Personal Representative act in unsupervised administration so as to administer my estate with a minimum of court supervision. If it becomes necessary to have ancillary administration of my estate in any jurisdiction where my Personal Representative is unable or does not desire to qualify as ancillary legal representative, I appoint as such ancillary legal representative such individual or corporation as my Personal Representative shall designate, in writing.

b. I direct my Personal Representative to pay the expenses of my last illness, the expenses of a funeral appropriate to my station in life and custom of living (including a suitable monument or marker for my grave), and written charitable pledges which I have made. I grant my Personal Representative the power to extend or renew any debt for such time as my Personal Representative shall deem appropriate.

c. All estate, inheritance, succession and other death taxes with respect to all property passing under this my Will shall be paid from and borne by the principal of my residuary estate, without regard to reimbursement, as if such taxes were administration expenses. My Personal Representative may pay such taxes at any time deemed advisable, whether or not then due and payable.

d. My Personal Representative is requested to settle my estate as soon after my death as may be practicable, and to pay or deliver every legacy or bequest to my beneficiaries without waiting any time that may be believed to be customary in probate matters.

Jimmie Freeman Bell

OF 8 PAGES TST AB JGA

e. I have served in the Armed Forces of the United States. Therefore, I direct my Personal Representative to consult with a Legal Assistance Attorney at the nearest military installation and with the Department of Veterans Affairs and the Social Security Administration to ascertain if there are any benefits to which my family members are entitled by virtue of my military service.

SECOND: I give, devise and bequeath, absolutely and forever, all of my estate and property of which I may be seized or possessed, or to which I may be entitled, at the time of my death, wherever situated or of whatever nature, be it real, personal, or mixed, as follows:

a. I give all of the tangible personal property owned by me at the time of my death (except cash), including, without limitation, personal effects, household goods, clothing, jewelry, furniture, furnishings, automobiles and other vehicles, together with all insurance policies relating thereto, to my son, Carsten J. Bell, my daughter, Saddle L. Bell and to any child or children that have been or may be born to or adopted by me, in shares of substantially equal value to be divided as they may agree.

1. If any of my children shall not survive me, then the share of that deceased child shall go to the descendants of that child, who are to take per stirpes and not per capita. If any of my children shall not survive me and shall not be survived by any descendants, then the share of that deceased child shall be distributed to my surviving children and the descendants of any of my other children who fail to survive me, in the manner set forth above.

2. If they are unable to agree, the division among my children and the descendants of any of my children who fail to survive me shall be made by my Personal Representative, in that person's sole and absolute discretion. I empower my Personal Representative to sell any or all of such property, if such property is not distributed in kind hereunder, and to distribute the proceeds among my said children in substantially equal shares. Any determination of my Personal Representative as to what should pass or be sold under this paragraph and to whom it should pass or be delivered or at what price it should be sold shall be conclusive.

June Freeman Bell

b. I give, devise and bequeath all of the rest and residue of my estate as follows:

1. If none of my surviving children are under the age of Twenty-one (21) years (hereinafter referred to as the "age of distribution"), I direct that all of such rest and residue be divided into equal shares and distributed, in order to provide one share for each of my children surviving at my death, and one share for each of my children who has predeceased me leaving issue surviving at my death, such issue to take per stirpes.

2. If any of my surviving children are under the age of distribution, I give all of such rest and residue to my Trustee, hereinafter named, IN TRUST, to hold and manage in accordance with the provisions of the next paragraph of this document.

THIRD: I nominate and appoint my brother, William Bell, Jr. as my Trustee. If my Trustee shall fail to survive me or for any reason refuse or be unable to serve or to continue serving as my Trustee, then I nominate and appoint my father, William Bell, Sr. as my Trustee. I request that my Trustee be permitted to serve without bond or surety thereon and without the intervention of any court, except as required by law. My Trustee shall hold the property to be administered under this Paragraph for the following uses and purposes:

a. My Trustee shall hold, invest, reinvest and manage the property included in this Trust, whether real, personal, or mixed, and collect the income thereon and pay or apply the property and income for the benefit of the beneficiaries as herein provided until all of my beneficiaries have attained the age of distribution.

b. Without regard for any other provision of this paragraph, or any provision of law requiring my Trustee to make trust property productive, my Trustee may retain any residence, or vacation residence, which may be included in the property to be administered under this Paragraph, for the use and enjoyment of my children.

1. My Trustee may apply the principal or income of this Trust towards any mortgage, tax, insurance, or maintenance payment which my Trustee deems necessary in order to allow the use and enjoyment of the property by my children.

James William Bell

2. My Trustee may retain such residence(s) until the sooner of the youngest beneficiary of this Trust reaching the age of distribution or the death of all of my children, at which time my Trustee may, at my Trustee's discretion, sell such property at fair market value and distribute the proceeds according to the provisions of subparagraphs c and d, below. In selling such residence(s), my Trustee is specifically empowered to sell to any beneficiary or group of beneficiaries of this Trust at a price equal to fair market value less the percentage of the sale price which would normally be paid as real estate brokerage fees. In the event of such a sale to a beneficiary or group of beneficiaries, all other costs of the sale will be borne by the seller (my Trustee) and the buyer(s) (the beneficiary or group of beneficiaries) as is customary with regard to real estate transactions in the location of the property at the time of the transfer.

c. My Trustee, in my Trustee's sole discretion, may pay or apply for the benefit of any beneficiary so much of current income, accumulated income or principal (without regard to principles of equality of distribution amongst beneficiaries but taking into account the size of the trust, other sources of income and support of all beneficiaries and like considerations) for the support, maintenance, and general welfare of the beneficiary, in keeping with the standard of living the beneficiary has enjoyed, as well as for the beneficiary's education (including vocational, collegiate, graduate or professional programs) or in the event of accident, other emergency or extended illness.

d. This trust shall terminate when none of my surviving children are under the age of distribution and the principal then remaining, along with any accumulated income, shall then be divided into as many equal shares and distributed in order to provide:

1. one share for each of my children then surviving,
and

2. one share for each of my children who has predeceased me leaving issue who are then surviving, such issue to take per stirpes.

In dividing the Trust property into equal shares among the beneficiaries pursuant to this subparagraph, my Trustee may but need not take into consideration prior distributions of income and principal from the Trust.

e. No beneficiary of any trust created under this Will shall have the power to anticipate, alienate, or encumber either the income or principal thereof. No disposition, charge or encumbrance of such income or principal by way of anticipation shall be of any legal effect or be recognized by my Trustee. No such income or principal or any part thereof shall in any way be subjected to any legal or equitable claim of any creditors of any of my legatees.

f. If, in the opinion of my Trustee, this trust shall at any time be of a size which, in the discretion of my Trustee, shall make it inadvisable or uneconomic or unnecessary to continue this trust, then anything contained in this Will to the contrary notwithstanding, my said Trustee may pay over and distribute the entire principal and accumulated income of such trust outright and free of trust to the beneficiaries who would have received such distribution on termination as specified above.

g. Anything in this Will to the contrary notwithstanding, no trust herein created or herein authorized (by power of appointment or otherwise) shall continue beyond twenty-one (21) years after the death of the last to die of those beneficiaries, contingent or otherwise, who were living or conceived at the time of my death. Any trusts still in effect at the expiration of such maximum period shall then terminate and the trust assets shall be distributed, outright, to the person or persons for whom such trust was continued.

h. If, at the time of the final distribution of principal and accumulated income under this trust, there shall be living no beneficiary or beneficiaries above mentioned who are entitled to receive such distribution then I direct my Trustee to pay over the principal and accumulated income to my heirs determined at the time of my death, pursuant to the Statutes of Descent and Distribution in effect in the state of my last domicile at the time of my death.

FOURTH: In the event that none of my children and none of their descendants shall survive me, I give and bequeath, absolutely and forever, all of my estate and property of which I may be seized or possessed, or to which I may be entitled, at the time of my death, wherever situated or of whatever nature, be it real, personal, or mixed, to my brother, William Bell, Jr. as his sole and absolute property if he shall survive me.

FIFTH: In the event that all previously named takers under this will shall not survive me, I give, devise and bequeath, absolutely and forever, all of my estate and property of which I may be seized or possessed, or to which I may be entitled, at the time of my death, wherever situated or of whatever nature, be it real, personal, or mixed, to my father, William Bell, Sr. as his sole and absolute property if he shall survive me.

William Freeman Bell

TJA PC D.C.A.

SIXTH: Except as otherwise provided in this Will, I have intentionally failed to provide for any other relatives or other persons, whether claiming to be an heir of mine or not. Insofar as I have failed to provide in this Will for any of my issue now living or later born or adopted, such failure is intentional and not occasioned by accident or mistake. I specifically intend to omit my wife Nicole S. Bell. She is to inherit nothing from my estate.

SEVENTH: Any beneficiary who fails to survive until one hundred twenty (120) hours after my death shall be deemed to have predeceased me, and the gift to that beneficiary shall be disposed of accordingly.

EIGHTH: Definitions:

a. The term "children" as used in this Will includes adopted and afterborn persons. The term "children" as used in this Will shall not include step-children, the natural born or adopted children of a person's spouse who are not the natural born or adopted children of the person. A relationship by or through legal adoption shall be treated the same as a relationship by or through blood for purpose of succession to property under this Will.

b. The term "descendants" as used in this Will means the immediate and remote lawful, lineal descendants by blood or adoption of the person referred to who are in being at the time they must be ascertained in order to give effect to the reference to them.

c. The term "Personal Representative" as used in this Will means Executor, Executrix, Independent Executor, or any other title of like import which is used to describe such a fiduciary.

d. The term "per stirpes" as used in this Will means that whenever a distribution is to be made to the descendants of any person, the property to be distributed shall be divided into as many shares as there are (1) living children of the person, and (2) deceased children, who left descendants who are then living, of the person. Each living child (if any) shall take one share and the share of each deceased child shall be divided among his then living descendants in the same manner.

NINTH: In the event that I shall die leaving a minor child or children surviving me, and my Wife, Nicole S. Bell shall not survive me, then I hereby appoint my brother, William Bell, Jr. as Guardian of each minor child of mine, during his or her minority. The Guardian shall serve without bond or surety and without the intervention of any court or courts, except as required by law. If the above named Guardian should predecease me or be unable or unwilling to act as Guardian, then I hereby appoint my father, William Bell, Sr. as Guardian of each minor child of mine, to serve without bond or surety and with the same powers and authority.

TENTH: In addition to any powers granted by the laws of the state in which this Will is probated, I hereby authorize and empower the fiduciaries named in this Will, to the extent of the discretion herein granted, to sell, exchange, convey, transfer, assign, mortgage, pledge, lease or rent the whole or any part of my real or personal estate, to invest, reinvest, or retain investments of my estate, to perform all acts and to execute all documents which my fiduciaries may deem necessary or proper in regard to my property. If any of my fiduciaries elect to receive compensation for services, such compensation will be that allowed by law.

ELEVENTH: If any part of this Will shall be invalid, illegal, or inoperative for any reason, it is my intention that the remaining parts, so far as possible and reasonable, shall be effective and fully operative. My Personal Representative may seek and obtain court instructions for the purpose of carrying out as nearly as may be possible the intention of this Will as shown by the terms hereof, including any terms held invalid, illegal, or inoperative.
