LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
ELLA LORENE KUEHL BLOUGH

AT 9:40 O'CLOCK A M
STEVE DUNCAN, CHANCERY CLERK
By: Stanley Hill, DC

I, ELLA LORENE KUEHL BLOUGH, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and an adult resident citizen of Madison County, Mississippi, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament and do hereby revoke any and all other wills and codicils thereto heretofore made by me.

ITEM ONE

I do hereby give and bequeath unto First Baptist Church of Madison, Mississippi, the cash sum of $2,500.00.

ITEM TWO

I do hereby give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved husband, John Herbert Blough, all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate and property, real and personal, and of every kind and character and wheresoever situated, including lapsed legacies and bequests of which I shall die seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death or over which I shall have any power of appointment.

ITEM THREE

In the event that both my said husband and I should die in a common accident, or under such circumstances that it cannot be determined which of us is the survivor, I hereby declare that I shall be deemed to have survived him, and this Will and all of its provisions shall be construed upon that assumption.

ITEM FOUR

Should my beloved husband, John Herbert Blough, predecease me, then in that event, I do hereby give and devise the following described real property lying and being situated in Madison County, Mississippi, to-wit:

W $\frac{1}{2}$  W $\frac{1}{2}$  NW $\frac{1}{4}$  SE $\frac{1}{4}$  and E $\frac{1}{2}$  E $\frac{1}{2}$  NE $\frac{1}{4}$  SW $\frac{1}{4}$  of Section 9, Township 7 North, Range 2 East, Madison County, Mississippi.

LESS AND EXCEPT that certain 1 acre parcel conveyed to Dorothy Blough Cunningham by warranty deed dated September 26, 1975, and recorded in Book 141 at page 853 in the office of the Chancery Clerk of Madison County, Mississippi; and containing 19 acres more or less.

to my four hereinafter named daughters, as tenants in common, and in the fractional interest hereafter set forth, to-wit:

Florence Helena Blough Pickering, an undivided 5/19th interest;

Mamie Lorene Blough Pitts, an undivided 5/19th interest;

Betty Christine Blough Stewart, an undivided 5/19th interest;

Dorothy Ann Blough Cunningham, an undivided 4/19th interest

By way of explanation, my husband and I have previously given our daughter, Dorothy Ann Blough Cunningham, one acre of land and being the same land upon which here residence is situated. My recognition of this prior gift is the only reason that I am devising a lesser interest in my real property to my daughter, Dorothy Ann Blough Cunningham, than to my other three daughters. My testamentary purpose in so doing is to accomplish my desire for each of my four daughters to ultimately acquire and become vested with an equal interest in the twenty acre parcel of land that was formerly owned by my husband's parents and which my husband and I purchased after their death.

ITEM FIVE

Should my beloved husband, John Herbert Blough, predecease me, then in that event, I do hereby give and bequeath unto my four daughters, all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate and property, real and personal, and of every kind and character and wheresoever situated, including lapsed legacies and bequests of which I shall die seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death or over which I shall have any power of appointment.

ITEM SIX

I do hereby name, constitute and appoint my daughter, Dorothy Ann Blough Cunningham, as executrix of this will, to serve without bond and to the fullest extent allowed by law, I do hereby waive the requirement that my said executrix make and file any inventory, appraisal or accounting in connection with the administration of my estate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto affixed my signature on this the 27th day of August, 1987.

Ella Lorene Kuehl Blough
ELLA LORENE KUEHL BLOUGH

The foregoing instrument, consisting of this and one preceeding typewritten page, was signed, published and declared by ELLA LORENE KUEHL BLOUGH to be her Will, in our presence, and we, at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other, subscribed our names hereto as witnesses, all on the date hereinabove set forth.

MARGARET MCCLINTOCK JACKSON

By Karen Suppoc

I, Margaret McClintock Jackson, an adult resident citizen of Ridgeland, Madison County, Mississippi, declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore made by me. My grandchildren Thomas Richard Jackson, III and Robbie Suzanne Jackson are living at the time of the execution of this Will.

ARTICLE I

I direct that all my debts, all expenses of my last illness, all funeral and burial expenses (including the cost of a suitable monument at my grave) and the cost of the administration of my estate be paid as soon as practicable after my death out of my estate.

It is my intention, however, that nothing in this article of my Will should be construed as creating an express trust or fund for the payment of debts and expenses which would in any way extend the normal statute of limitations for the payment of my debts or enlarge upon my statutory duty to pay debts.

ARTICLE II

I direct that all my estate, inheritance and other taxes in the general nature thereof (together with any interest or penalty thereon), be paid out of my estate.

ARTICLE III

I bequeath, devise and appoint all the residue and remainder of my property and estate of every nature and wheresoever situated (including all property which I may acquire or become entitled to after the execution of this Will) to my grandchildren Thomas Richard Jackson, III, and Robbie Suzanne Jackson share and share alike, per stirpes.

If either of my above named grandchildren, Thomas Richard Jackson, III, or Robbie Suzanne Jackson shall fail to survive me, then, in that event, I give, bequeath and devise his or her share to his or her surviving issue, per stirpes, or if such grandchild shall leave no issue surviving, then to the surviving beneficiary under this Article III of this my Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE IV

I appoint my grandson, Thomas Richard Jackson, III, to be the Executor of this my Last Will and Testament. If he shall fail to survive me or shall fail to qualify or refuse to serve as Executor, then, in that event, I appoint my granddaughter, Robbie Suzanne Jackson, as alternate Executrix. My Executor shall serve without security or any bond required by law or without any accounting, appraisal or inventory to any court and shall have the powers and discretions provided in Article V and others that may be granted by law, all to be exercised without a court order.

Throughout this Will, the word "Executor" is used for simplicity and all such words shall also refer to Executrix and shall in no way be deemed to lessen the powers granted herein.

ARTICLE V

I hereby grant to my Executor (including any substitute or successor, personal representative) the continuing, absolute discretionary power to deal with any property, real or personal, held in my estate or in trust as freely as I might in the handling of my own affairs. Such power may be exercised independently without prior or subsequent approval of any judicial authority and no person dealing with the Executor or Trustee shall be required to inquire into the propriety of any of their actions.

Last Will and Testament

MARJORIE HOLDER FANNING

I, Marjorie Holder Fanning, a resident of Jackson, Hinds County, Mississippi, declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills and codicils heretofore made by me. My husband, William Herbert Fanning, Jr., and my children, Ann Fanning McManus, William Herbert Fanning, III, and Thomas H. Fanning, are living at the time of the execution of this Will.

ARTICLE I

I direct that all my debts, all expenses of my last illness, all funeral and burial expenses (including the cost of a suitable monument at my grave) and the cost of the administration of my estate be paid as soon as practicable after my death out of my estate.

It is my intention, however, that nothing in this article of my Will should be construed as creating an express trust or fund for the payment of debts and expenses which would in any way extend the normal statute of limitations for the payment of my debts or enlarge upon my statutory duty to pay debts.

ARTICLE II

I direct that all my estate, inheritance and other taxes in the general nature thereof (together with any interest or penalty thereon), be paid out of my estate.

ARTICLE III

I hereby give, bequeath and devise all of the furniture, furnishings, household goods, silverware, china and ornaments located in my residence to my husband, William Herbert Fanning, Jr. All of my clothing, jewelry, personal effects, automobiles and all other tangible personal property not otherwise specifically bequeathed (except cash on hand or on deposit and the tangible personal property customarily used in connection with any business or farming operations in which I shall be engaged or interested in at the time of my death) owned by me at the time of my death, I bequeath to my husband, William Herbert Fanning, Jr.

If my husband, William Herbert Fanning, Jr., shall predecease me, I bequeath so much of the above-described property to my children to be divided among them with such equality and appropriateness as my Executor, in its sole discretion, shall determine. In the division of shares, if any of my children (or surviving issue of deceased children) shall be a minor, such child's share may be delivered to the person with whom such child is residing, or to such child's legal guardian, or directly to such child. The receipt of the guardian, or the person with whom such minor resides, or the receipt of such minor child, shall constitute a full acquittance of my Executor with respect to the legacy so delivered. This authority is given my Executor notwithstanding any statute or rule of law to the contrary. I direct that any expenses incurred in safeguarding or delivering such property be paid from my estate as an administration expense thereof.

ARTICLE IV

I devise to my daughter, Ann Fanning McManus, and to my husband, William Herbert Fanning, Jr., as co-Trustees of the Marjorie Holder Fanning Family Trust, the parcel of real property now occupied by me as my residence with all appurtenances and improvements used in connection therewith, located in the City of Jackson, County of Hinds, and State of Mississippi, and commonly known as 226 Cedarhurst Drive, Jackson, Mississippi, for the use and benefit of my husband, William Herbert Fanning, Jr., during the term of his life. If at the time of my death I shall no longer be using said property as my residence, then this devise shall be void and of no effect; provided, however, that if at the time of my death, I shall own and be using any other real estate as my residence, then and in such event, I devise such other real estate to the aforementioned co-Trustees, in trust, for the use and benefit of my husband during the term of his life.

The Trustees are authorized and directed to retain in the trust any residence which I may own at the time of my death, so long as my husband, William Herbert Fanning, Jr., shall desire to use and occupy it as a home. If my said husband shall advise the Trustees that he no longer desires to occupy such property as a home, then thereafter the Trustees shall sell and convey the same, at public or private sale, at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions, including credit, as the Trustees may determine. Said notification to the Trustees shall be in writing subscribed by my said husband and acknowledged in like manner as is required for a deed to be recorded in the state of Mississippi. If at any time there shall be no property in the trust which my said husband desires to use and occupy as a home, then the Trustees, at their direction, shall purchase and hold in the trust any real property which my husband desires so to use and occupy. However, should the total purchase price of any such property exceed the net sales price of the residence previously held by the trust, my husband shall be required to irrevocably donate the difference in price, in cash, to the trust prior to the purchase of the alternate residence with the result that the alternate residence shall be owned 100% by the trust and my husband's only rights in said residence shall be those set forth in this Article IV.

During the period that any property is so held for the use and occupancy of my said husband, he shall be permitted to use and occupy same free of any rent. However, I direct that my said husband shall pay all charges incident to maintaining said property, including, without limitation, all assessments, insurance premiums, taxes, and ordinary repairs. If my said husband shall fail to pay any of such charges, then any one or more of my issue may pay the same; and in such event such person or persons so paying shall have a lien against said property in the amount so expended with interest thereon at the rate of nine percent (9%) per annum until paid. If the premises are sold to a bona fide purchaser for value, such lien shall be deemed extinguished as to such real property, but shall follow and attach to the proceeds of sale.

The foregoing powers to retain, sell and purchase real property suitable for use and occupancy as a home by my said husband, shall be continuing and shall not be exhausted by the exercise or repeated exercise thereof. Any proceeds of the sale of any such property which are not used in the purchase of other similar real property, shall be invested and reinvested as part of the general trust estate.

No party dealing with the Trustees shall be required to ascertain whether or not any of the requirements relating to the sale or purchase of any real property have been complied with; nor shall any such party be required to look to the application of the proceeds of any sale; and such parties may deal with the Trustees as having full and complete, independent power and authority to consummate any purchase or sale hereunder.

Upon the death of my husband or upon my death, should my husband predecease me, I devise the trust corpus and the trust income, if any, to my children, in equal shares, or to the surviving issue, per stirpes, of my children who shall be deceased at the date of my husband's death or at the date of my death, should my husband predecease me.

ARTICLE V

I bequeath, give, devise and appoint all the residue and remainder of my property and estate of every nature and wheresoever situated (including all property which I may acquire or become entitled to after the execution of this Will, all lapsed legacies and devises and other gifts made by this Will which fail for any reason) unto my husband.

If my husband shall fail to survive me, then I give, bequeath, devise and appoint my estate to my children in equal shares. If any of them shall predecease me without issue, then the deceased child's share I give, bequeath and devise to the surviving child.

If neither my husband nor my children shall survive me, then in that event I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate to my parents and my husband's parents in equal shares. If only one parent is living, then that parent shall receive the equal share.

ARTICLE VI

I hereby grant to my Executor and also to the Trustees of each Trust established hereunder (including any substitute or successor, personal representative of Trustee or ancillary Trustee), the continuing, absolute discretionary power to deal with any property, real or personal, held in my estate or in trust as freely as I might in the handling of my own affairs. Such power may be exercised independently without prior or subsequent approval of any judicial authority and no person dealing with the Executor or Trustees shall be required to inquire into the propriety of any of their actions. I specifically grant to my Executor and Trustees the power to make distributions (including the satisfaction of any pecuniary bequests) in cash or in specific property, real or personal, or an undivided interest therein or partly in cash and partly in such property, and to do so without regard to the income tax basis for federal tax purposes of specific property allocated to any beneficiary (including any trust). In making distributions I request (but do not direct) that my Executor or Trustees do so in a manner which will result in the property to be sold to satisfy obligations of my Estate or any Trust having the aggregate income basis as close as possible to the aggregate fair market value and to the extent consistent with this primary objective to do so in a manner which will result in the maximization of the increase in basis for federal and state estate and succession taxes attributable to appreciation.

Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing and subject to MISS. CODE ANN. §§ 91-9-101 through 91-9-109 (1972), I hereby grant to my Executor and also to any Trustee hereunder all the powers set forth in MISS. CODE ANN. §§ 91-9-101 through 91-9-109 (1972), and those powers are hereby incorporated by reference and made a part of this instrument. Such powers are intended to be in addition to and not in substitution of the powers conferred by law.

ARTICLE VII

I appoint my husband, William Herbert Fanning, Jr., to be the Executor of this my Last Will and Testament. If he shall fail to survive me or shall fail to qualify as Executor, then in that event I appoint my daughter, Ann Fanning McManus, as my secondary Executor. If both she and my husband shall fail to survive me or shall fail to qualify as Executor, then in that event, I appoint my son, William Herbert Fanning, III, as my Executor. Should each person mentioned above fail to survive me or fail to qualify as Executor, then in that event, I appoint my son, Thomas H. Fanning, as Executor. My Executor shall serve without security or any bond required by law and without any accounting or inventory to any court and shall have the powers and discretions provided in Article VI and any others that may be granted by law, all to be exercised without a court order.

Throughout this Will, the word "Executor" is used for simplicity and all such words shall also refer to Executrix and shall in no way deem to lessen the powers granted herein.

I hereby appoint my daughter, Ann Fanning McManus, and my husband, William Herbert Fanning, Jr., as co-Trustees of all the trusts created hereunder. Should either my husband or my daughter, or both of them, be unable for any reason to serve as a co-Trustee, then in that event, I appoint my son, William Herbert Fanning, III, as co-Trustee or sole Trustee, as the case may be.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I sign, seal, publish and declare this instrument to be my Last Will and Testament, this the 11th day of June, 1985.

I, GARY BUCHANAN TAYLOR, having a fixed place of residence in Madison County, Mississippi, being over the age of 21 years and of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this, my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all previous Wills, Codicils and testamentary instruments which by me heretofore may have been made.

ITEM I

I direct that my Executrix, hereinafter named, shall pay out of my estate all of my just debts which may be probated, registered and allowed against my estate, including expenses of my last illness and funeral expenses, as soon as may be conveniently done.

ITEM II

I do hereby give, devise and bequeath all of my property, real, personal and mixed, of whatever kind and description, and wheresoever located, or to which I may be entitled at the time of my death, to my wife, Sylvia Phillips Taylor.

ITEM III

In the event my wife, Sylvia Phillips Taylor, should predecease me, or we should die as the result of a common disaster, in which event it shall be conclusively presumed that she predeceased me, then I will, devise and bequeath all of my property, real, personal and mixed wheresoever situated, or to which I may be entitled at the time of my death, unto Catherine W. Lee, Attorney, as TRUSTEE IN TRUST for the use and benefit of my children, Lisa Suzanne Taylor, David Yancy Taylor and all other children born to or adopted by me, and for the following purposes:

A. The Trustee shall divide the trust property in to equal parts, one part for each of my children living, and one part for the issue, as a group, of each deceased child and each part shall be a separate trust.

B. The Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and from time to time reinvest the trust estate and shall collect the annual income therefrom, and the Trustee shall distribute for the benefit of my children, so much of the income and/or corpus as the Trustee, in exercise of her sole discretion, may deem to be necessary for the maintenance, education and general welfare of my said children, and the Trustee is hereby authorized to accumulate any of the net income which is not needed for the above purpose, and such accumulated income shall become and be treated as a portion of the corpus.

C. The trust for each child who shall survive me shall continue until that child reaches the age of twenty-five (25) years or until said child's death, whichever is the sooner. Upon the termination of the trust as above provided, any remaining corpus or undistributed income shall be turned over to my said child, or if such child shall have died, same shall be distributed equally among the then living children, if any, of my child; and if there be no surviving issue of my said child, then any remaining corpus and undistributed income in said child's trust estate shall be turned over to my other children, per stirpes.

D. For those trusts for my grandchildren where any one or more of my children has predeceased me, and left issue, such trust shall terminate ten (10) years after my death, at which time any remaining corpus and undistributed income shall be paid to such grandchildren if they be twenty-one (21) years of age or over, and if they be not twenty-one (21) years of age or over, then to either the natural or legal guardian of them.

ITEM IV

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my wife, Sylvia Phillips Taylor, to be the Executrix of this, my Last Will and Testament, and I do hereby exempt her from giving bond as such, or from filing any inventory or accounting to any court for her actions hereunder. If my said wife does not survive me, or surviving, shall be incapacitated to serve as Executrix, then, in either of such events, I appoint, nominate and constitute Catherine W. Lee to be the Executrix of this, my Last Will and Testament, and I do hereby exempt her from giving any bond as such, or from giving any accounting, other than a final account, or filing any inventory to any court for her actions hereunder.

ITEM V

In the event my wife, Sylvia Phillips Taylor, predeceases me, or we should die as the result of a common disaster, in which event it shall be conclusively presumed that she predeceased me, I hereby nominate and appoint Mrs. Suzanne Phillips Gallimore as Guardian of my children, knowing that she will take care of their every need.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto affixed my signature on this, the 5th day of September, 1984.

I, BARBARA RUTH MC NEILL GONSOULIN, being of sound mind and knowing that life is precarious, do make this my last will and testament, revoking all others.

I have been married but twice; first to Raymond McEanney, from whom I was divorced in 1944, and second to Gilman Joseph Gonsoulin, with whom I am now living and residing. I have but one (1) and only one (1) child, namely Barbara Gene Gonsoulin, wife of Howard J. I desire that all of my just debts be paid.

I leave the property, both personal and real, of which I die possessed, including the home at 2216 Jacob Drive, Chalmette, Louisiana; the lot designated as Unit #2, Lot 9, Block 11, of Pine Point Shores in Harrison County, Mississippi; the household furnishings; the family automobiles, and all other property, rights and effects, in the following manner:

1. I leave the entire disposable portion of my estate (two-thirds) to my loving husband, Gilman Joseph Gonsoulin, and I confirm the usufruct allowed to him by law on any forced portion of my estate. I leave the forced portion of my estate (one-third) to my only living child Barbara Ann Gonsoulin Ray, subject to the usufruct of my husband.
