LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

I, DR. JAMES R. HATTEN, a resident of Jackson, Hinds County, Mississippi, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and over the age of eighteen (18) years, make, publish, and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament. I revoke all Wills or Codicils previously made by me.

1. Executor and Successor Executor. I appoint my daughter, KATHRYN H. FULLER, and my son, RICHARD L. HATTEN, as Co-Executors of my Estate under this Will. If either my daughter, KATHRYN H. FULLER, or my son, RICHARD L. HATTEN, are or become unable or unwilling to serve as my Co-Executors, I appoint my daughter, CYNTHIA H. SMITH, to serve as my successor Co-Executor. If only one of the foregoing individuals is able and willing to serve as my Executor, they may serve in such capacity as the sole Executor. For convenience my Co-Executors or Co-Executrixes shall be referred to herein as "Executor".

2. Wife and Children. My wife's name is MARIANNE L. HATTEN, and she is sometimes referred to herein as my wife. I have four children now living, CYNTHIA H. SMITH, KATHRYN H. FULLER, JAMES A. HATTEN and RICHARD L. HATTEN. They are herein referred to as my children. If I have a child or children legally adopted by me subsequent to the date of execution of this Will, I direct that each such child and his or her descendants shall share my estate to the same extent as provided for my children herein named.

3. Payment of Debts, Expenses and Taxes. I direct my Executor to pay all of my just debts and obligations which are probated, registered and allowed against my estate as soon as may be conveniently done, provided, however, that my Executor shall specifically be authorized to pay any debt of my estate which does not exceed $1,000 without the necessity of probating said debt.

I further direct my Executor to pay all of my funeral expenses (including the cost of a suitable monument at my grave), expenses of my last illness, any unpaid charitable pledges (regardless of whether said pledges may be enforceable obligations of my estate), any federal and state estate taxes (including any penalty and interest thereon), and the cost of administration of my estate as soon as practicable after my death; provided, however, my Executor shall not be required to pay any obligation in advance of its maturity. My Executor, in his sole discretion, may pay from my domiciliary estate all or any portion of the costs of ancillary administration and similar proceedings in other jurisdictions.

4. Personal Effects.

A. I give absolutely to my wife, MARIANNE L. HATTEN, if she survives me, all club memberships, automobiles, watches, jewelry, wearing apparel, china, household furniture, furnishings, silverware, and all other personal effects owned by me at the time of my death, together with all policies of insurance relating to these items. If MARIANNE L. HATTEN does not survive me, then I give to my children who may be living at the time of my death all of these items to be divided among them as they may mutually agree. In the absence of mutual agreement within six months from the date of my death, the division of these items shall be made by my Executor in his sole discretion on an equal basis according to value.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraph A of this paragraph 4, I may leave a separate memorandum containing directions for the specific disposition to be made of certain of the tangible personal property bequeathed under this paragraph. In such event, the provisions of that memorandum shall be given the same legal effect as if included in this Will and the assets described therein shall be distributed to the named beneficiaries in accordance with the directions contained therein.

5. Residue. If my wife, MARIANNE L. HATTEN, shall survive me, I give to her outright and free of trust, all the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and wherever situated of which I may die seized and possessed, or to which I may be in any way entitled, including all lapsed legacies and devises, but expressly excluding any property over which I may have a power of appointment at the time of my death.

6. Alternative Disposition and Descendant's Trusts.

A. If my wife, MARIANNE L. HATTEN, does not survive me, then I give, devise, and bequeath all of the rest, residue, and remainder of my property of every kind and wherever situated to my children in equal shares, one share to each of my children then living and one share for the descendants, per stirpes, as a group, of any deceased child leaving descendants surviving at my death. Except as provided in subparagraph B of this paragraph 6, in dividing my residuary estate into shares as herein provided, the Executor is authorized and empowered, in his sole discretion, to make such division in kind or cash or partly in both, and the judgment of the Executor as to value shall be conclusive upon all interested parties. If, however, any living child of mine is under the age of twenty-one (21) years, or if the youngest living child of a deceased child of mine is under the age of twenty-one (21) years at the time of distribution, then I give, devise, and bequeath the share for my child, or the share for the descendants of a deceased child of mine, as the case may be, to the Trustee herein named, in trust, to be held, administered, and distributed in the following manner:

(a) The Trustee may accumulate income and may spend so much of the income as it determines in its sole discretion may be necessary or desirable for the care, health, support and maintenance of the beneficiary. Any income not distributed shall be added to principal and distributed according to the provisions of this paragraph 6.

(b) The Trustee may spend so much of the principal as it determines in its sole discretion may be necessary or desirable for the best interests of the beneficiary.

(c) In the event the beneficiary becomes legally disabled or becomes, in the Trustee's opinion, unable to properly administer the income or principal to be distributed by reason of mental or physical illness or incapacity, then the Trustee may distribute such sums in its discretion to the beneficiary's guardian, conservator, relative or friend, or may apply such sums directly to the benefit of the beneficiary.

(d) If the property held in trust under this paragraph is found to be unproductive or unlikely to produce income during the life of the beneficiary, the Trustee shall make the property productive, or convert such property, within a reasonable time from the receipt of a written request from the beneficiary to do so. It is my intention that the beneficiary shall have such use of the trust property as is consistent with the value of the trust corpus and with its preservation, and the Trustee shall act according to this intention, notwithstanding any provision of this Will to the contrary.

(e) When the beneficiary who is a child of mine reaches twenty-one (21) years of age, the principal and accumulated income shall be paid to the beneficiary free of trust, and the trust for that child shall terminate.

(f) Any trust for the descendants of a deceased child shall continue for the benefit of such descendants until the youngest surviving child of a deceased child of mine reaches twenty-one (21) years of age, at which time the trust shall terminate and the trust estate shall be distributed per stirpes among such descendants then living.

(g) If at any time prior to its termination as above provided, any trust shall have no living beneficiary, either a child or the descendants of a child, then the assets of that trust shall be equally divided among my children then living and the then living descendants as a group of any deceased child of mine, such descendants to take the share to which my deceased child would have been entitled if living. However, if a share becomes distributable to a child or descendants as a group of a deceased child for whom a share is being held in trust under this Will then that share shall be added to that trust and administered as an integral part thereof.

B. My son, JAMES A. HATTEN, if living at my death shall have the right of first refusal to take as a part of his share of my residuary estate, my Arkansas property located at Hot Springs Village and known as Orense Subdivision. If my son, JAMES A. HATTEN, chooses to receive this property, such amount shall be subtracted from the value of the share of my residuary estate he would otherwise receive. My son, RICHARD L. HATTEN, if living at my death shall have the right of first refusal to take as a part of his share of my residuary estate, my farm and cottage located at Georgetown, Mississippi. If my son, RICHARD L. HATTEN, chooses to receive this property, such amount shall be subtracted from the value of the share of my residuary estate he would otherwise receive.

7. Private Trusts. The trusts herein established are private, and the Trustee shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of any court for the exercise of any power of discretion herein provided. The Trustee shall not be required to enter into any bond to insure faithful performance of its duties, nor shall it be required to return to any court any periodic accounting of its administration of the trusts. No person paying money or delivering property to the Trustee shall be required to see to its application. These trusts are created under and are to be governed by, construed and administered according to the laws of the State of Mississippi.

8. Spendthrift Provision. No interest of any beneficiary in the corpus or income of my estate or in any trust created hereunder shall be subject to assignment, alienation, pledge, sale, attachment, or transfer in any manner; nor shall any beneficiary have the power in any manner to anticipate, charge, or encumber his interest either in income or in principal; nor shall such interest of any beneficiary be liable or subject in any manner for the debts, contracts, liabilities, engagements, or torts of such beneficiary.

9. Fiduciary Powers. I hereby grant to my Executor and also to the Trustee of each trust established hereunder (including any substitute or successor personal representative or Trustee) the continuing, absolute, discretionary power to deal with any property, real or personal, held in my estate or in any trust, as freely as I might in the handling of my own affairs. Such power may be exercised independently without prior or subsequent approval of any judicial authority, and no person dealing with the Executor or Trustee shall be required to inquire into the propriety of any of their actions. I expressly confer upon my Executor and any Trustee hereunder the specific powers set forth in Miss. Code Ann. § 91-9-101 - § 91-9-109 (1972) as now enacted or hereafter amended. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, I hereby grant to my Executor, and to any Trustee hereunder, the following specific powers and authority in addition to and not in substitution of powers conferred by law:

(a) To compromise, settle, or adjust any claim or demand by or against my estate or any trust and to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement.

(b) To retain any security or other property owned by me at the time of my death, so long as such retention appears advisable, to exchange any such security or property for other securities or properties and to retain such items received in exchange. My Trustee may presume any securities owned by me at the time of my death including capital stock of my corporate Trustee or its holding company to be of investment merit and worthy of retention by my Trustee. Such presumption shall not impair the power of sale or exchange or any other powers or discretion given the Trustee, but if said securities or any of them are retained by my Trustee for the duration of the trust or any shorter period of time, my Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any loss or decrease in the value of said securities or any of them, or of the trust, by reason of such retention. My Trustee may also presume that the management of the companies whose securities are held in the trust from time to time should be supported. Such presumption shall not impair the power of voting such securities or any other powers or discretion given my Trustee, but if said securities or any of them are voted by my Trustee in favor of the management of the respective companies issuing them or in favor of any proposals supported by such management, my Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any act of such management or for any loss or decrease in the value of said securities or any of them, or of the trust, by reason of such voting.

(c) To sell, exchange, assign, transfer, and convey any security or property, real or personal, held in my estate or in any trust fund, at public or private sale, at such time and price and upon such terms and conditions (including credit) as it may deem to be advisable and for the best interest of my estate and trusts.

(d) To invest and reinvest (including accumulated income) in any property (real or personal) as it may deem advisable, including stock (whether listed or unlisted) and unsecured obligations, undivided interests, interests in investment trusts, legal and discretionary common trust funds, leases, and property which is outside of my domicile, all without diversification as to kind or amount without being restricted in any way by any statute or court decision. (now or hereafter existing) regulating or limited investments by fiduciaries.

(e) To register and carry any property in its own name or in the name of its nominee or to hold it unregistered, but without thereby increasing or decreasing its liability as fiduciary.

(f) To sell or exercise any rights issued on any securities held in my estate or in any trust fund hereunder.

(g) Unless inconsistent with other provisions of this instrument, to consider and treat as principal all dividends payable in stock of the issuing corporation, all dividends in liquidation and all rights to subscribe to securities of the issuing corporation, and to consider and treat as income all other dividends and rights received (except those declared and payable as of a record date preceding my death, which shall be considered and treated as principal).

(h) To charge or credit to principal any premiums and discounts on securities purchased at more or less than par.

(i) To vote in person or by proxy any stock or securities held, and to grant such proxies and powers of attorney to such person or persons that it may deem proper.

(j) To consent to and participate in any plan for the liquidation, reorganization, consolidation or merger of any corporation, any security of which is held.

(k) To borrow money from itself individually or from others upon such terms and conditions as it may determine and to mortgage and pledge estate and trust assets as security for the repayment thereof.

(l) To lease any real estate for such term or terms and upon such conditions and rentals and in such manner as it may deem advisable (with or without privilege of purchase), and any lease so made shall be valid and binding for the full term thereof even though same shall extend beyond the duration of the trust; to insure against fire or other risk; to make repairs, replacements and improvements, structural or otherwise, to any such real estate; to subdivide real estate, to dedicate same to public use and to grant easements as it may deem proper.

(m) Whenever required or permitted to divide and distribute my estate or any trust created hereunder, to make such distribution, including the satisfaction of any pecuniary bequests, in cash or in specific property, real or personal, or an undivided interest therein or partly in cash and partly in such property, and to do so without regard to the income tax basis of specific property allocated to any beneficiary, including any trust.

(n) To employ accountants, attorneys and such agents as it may deem advisable; to pay reasonable compensation for their services and to charge same to, or apportion same between, income and principal as it may deem proper.

(o) Unless inconsistent with other provisions of this instrument, to hold two or more trusts or other funds in one or more consolidated funds, in which the separate trusts or funds shall have undivided interests.

(p) My Trustee shall not be required to file in any court or with any public official any reports or accounts relating to the administration of the trusts created by this will, except to the extent that I have no power to excuse the filing of such reports or accounts; provided, however, my Trustee shall furnish annually, or at more frequent intervals, reports and accounts thereof to the beneficiary then entitled to the income therefrom. The receipt of the Trustee shall operate as full acquittance and discharge of my Executor for the property turned over to my Trustee.

(q) Wherever authorized by this instrument to accumulate or distribute income, to make such decision free from attack or question by any person, it being intended that the Trustee may feel free to make such decisions on the basis of the facts as they exist at the time any such decision is made.

(r) With respect to any trust governed by this instrument, to distribute to any one or more of its beneficiaries from the principal thereof such sums as in the sole discretion of the Trustee shall be sufficient to ensure such trust being created under the federal income tax laws as one having no undistributed net income for a given taxable year, as that term is defined in the federal Internal Revenue Code, § 665, if the Trustee, in its sole discretion, shall deem such treatment desirable for any reason.

(s) Abandon, in any way, property which it determines not to be worth protecting.

(t) To buy or sell any stock or security options including but not limited to calls, puts, straddles, spreads, strips or straps, whether over any recognized exchange or over-the-counter market and whether covered or uncovered.

10. Mortgages and Liens. All property bequeathed or devised hereunder, either outright or in trust, is bequeathed or devised subject to existing mortgages, liens, or encumbrances thereon.

11. Protection from Rule Against Perpetuities. If any trust created hereunder shall violate any applicable rule against perpetuities, accumulations, or any similar rule of law, my Trustee is hereby directed to terminate the trust on the date limited by the rule of law. The property held in the trust shall be distributed to the persons then entitled to share its income in the proportions in which they are then entitled to share income, notwithstanding any provision of this Will to the contrary. No power of appointment granted hereunder shall be so exercised as to violate any applicable rule of law, and any attempt at exercising any power which violates the rule of law shall be void, notwithstanding any provision of this Will to the contrary.

12. After-born Children. The terms of this Will shall apply to any child or children hereafter adopted by me, and all of the terms hereof shall be fully effective whether or not there shall be a child or children hereafter adopted by me.

13. Independence of Provisions. In the event any provision of this Will should be held invalid, the invalidity of the provision or provisions shall not affect any of the other provisions. It is my intention that each provision shall be independent of each of the others, so that all valid provisions shall be strictly enforced, irrespective of the invalidity of any of the other provisions.

14. Simultaneous Deaths. If any legatee or devisee under this Will shall die simultaneously with me or under circumstances which render it difficult or impossible to determine who predeceased the other, it shall be conclusively presumed for all purposes of this Will that I predeceased that legatee or devisee.

15. Disclaimer. In the event that my wife, MARIANNE L. HATTEN, shall disclaim all or any part of any devise or bequest under this Will, the disclaimed portion shall pass to my children and descendants pursuant to paragraph 6 of this Will.

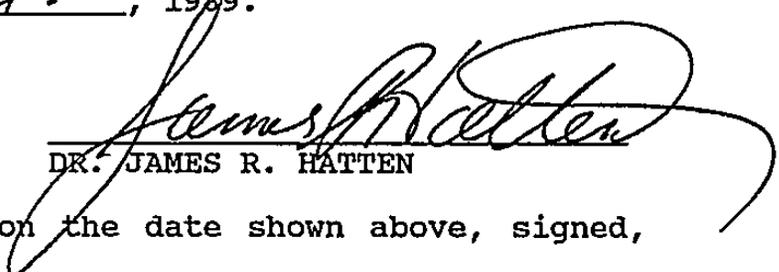

16. No-Contest Provision. If any beneficiary hereunder shall contest the probate or validity of this Will or any provision thereof, or shall institute or join in (except as a party defendant) any proceeding to contest the validity of this Will or to prevent any provision thereof from being carried out in accordance with its terms (regardless of whether or not such proceedings are instituted in good faith and with probable cause), then all benefits provided for such beneficiary are revoked and such benefits shall pass to the residuary beneficiaries of this Will (other than such beneficiary) in the proportion that the share of each such residuary beneficiary bears to the aggregate of the effective shares of the residuary. If all of the residuary beneficiaries join in such contest or proceedings, then such benefits shall pass to those persons (other than the persons joining in such contest) who are living at my death and who would have been my distributees had I died intestate a resident of the State of Mississippi and had the person or persons contesting my Will died immediately before me. Each benefit conferred herein is made on the condition that the beneficiary shall accept and agree to all of the provisions of this Will and the provisions of this Article are an essential part of each and every benefit.

17. Guardian. In the event that my wife predeceases or dies simultaneously with me, I nominate and appoint my daughter, KATHRYN H. FULLER, of Jackson, Mississippi, as guardian of my minor children.

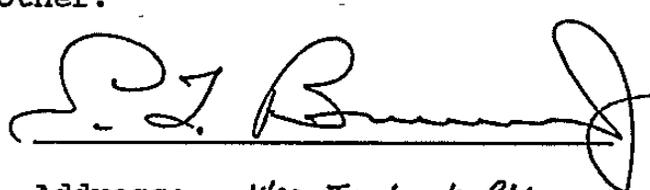

18. Executor Provisions. I waive the necessity of my Executor's (or any successor's) posting bond to serve as Executor and to the fullest extent possible under law, I waive the necessity of a formal appraisal, inventory, or accounting to any court. I expressly confer upon my Executor all powers and discretion given to the Trustee of the trusts herein created. I give and confer upon the successor Executor all powers and privileges which I have given to my Executor.

19. Appointment of Trustee. I nominate and appoint my daughter, KATHRYN H. FULLER, and my son, RICHARD L. HATTEN, as Co-Trustees of all trusts created under this Will. In the event either my daughter, KATHRYN H. FULLER, or my son, RICHARD L. HATTEN, is or becomes unable or unwilling to serve, then I nominate and appoint my daughter, CYNTHIA H. SMITH, to serve as successor Co-Trustee hereunder. For convenience, my Co-Trustees are herein referred to as Trustee.

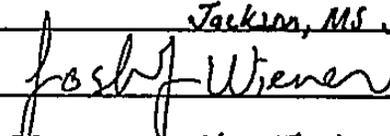

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name, this the 11th day of Oct., 1989.

INA F. DOSSETT

I, INA F. DOSSETT, an adult resident of Jackson, Hinds County, Mississippi, make this my Will and revoke all prior Wills and Codicils.

ITEM I.

My husband's name is J. KEARNEY DOSSETT, and he is herein referred to as "my husband." I have three (3) children now living, JAMES K. DOSSETT, JR., ANITA D. JONES and WILLIAM E. DOSSETT.

The words "child," "children," "grandchild," or "grandchildren" as used herein shall include any children hereafter born to any of my children and "descendants" shall include any person hereafter born to any of my descendants. Each of the words "child," "children," and "descendants" shall be deemed to include an adopted child or adopted children, irrespective of any provisions of law establishing a contrary presumption.

ITEM II.

I appoint JAMES K. DOSSETT, JR. and WILLIAM E. DOSSETT, to serve jointly as Executor of my estate under this Will. In the event either of JAMES K. DOSSETT, JR. or WILLIAM E. DOSSETT is or becomes unable or unwilling to serve, the other shall serve alone as Executor of my estate.

ITEM III.

My Executor shall pay all funeral expenses, costs of administration and other proper claims against my estate. My Executor may, in my Executor's discretion, pay all or any portion of the administration expenses out of the income and/or principal of the estate during the period of administration and may elect in accordance with applicable federal tax laws, to deduct such expenses either for federal estate tax purposes or federal income tax purposes, or partly for one and partly for the other, irrespective of the source of payment, and without reimbursement or adjustment of the estate accounts or the amounts to which the beneficiaries of my estate may otherwise be entitled. However, my Executor shall not exercise this discretion in a manner that will result in loss of, or decrease in, the marital deduction otherwise allowable in determining the federal estate tax due by my estate.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ina F. Dossett

ITEM IV.

All Section references, as used in this Will, refer to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any corresponding provisions of future laws.

Unless otherwise provided, in referring to the Trustee, any neuter terminology also includes the masculine and feminine or vice versa and any reference in the singular shall also include the plural or vice versa.

Where used throughout this Will, the terms "Executor," "Executrix," and "Administrator" may be used interchangeably and shall apply to whoever may be serving as personal representative of my estate, whether one or more than one, and to any successor Executor or Administrator.

ITEM V.

To my husband, J. KEARNEY DOSSETT, if he survives me, I devise and bequeath the following:

A. My interest in our family residence, subject to any indebtedness thereon.

B. My automobiles and other vehicles, club memberships, clothing, jewelry, sport equipment and other personal effects.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ina J. Dossett

C. My interest in the furniture, furnishings, decorations, silverware, china, pictures, linens, glassware and the like located in our home.

If my husband does not survive me, I devise and bequeath my interest in the family residence to the Trustee of the "Ina F. Dossett Family Trust," provided in this Will, to be held, administered and distributed under the provisions of that trust; and the assets described in Paragraphs B and C, to my children in substantially equal shares, to be divided among them as they agree, or in the absence of such agreement, as the Chancery Court administering my estate may determine.

ITEM VI.

If my husband survives me, I give, devise and bequeath to my husband, outright, an amount of property determined as follows:

First, ascertain the maximum marital deduction allowable in determining the federal estate tax payable by reason of my death.

Second, deduct therefrom the value of any insurance and other property which passes or has passed to my husband either outside of this Will or under another ITEM of this Will in such manner as to qualify as a part of the marital deduction under the federal estate tax law.

Third, compute the amount of my taxable estate, which will result in no federal estate tax liability on my estate, after allowing the unified credit and the state death tax credit allowable to my estate, which does not cause an increase in state death taxes. The amount of this bequest to my husband shall be reduced by the amount necessary to leave my taxable estate at the amount that results in zero federal estate tax liability in order to fully utilize these credits in determining the federal estate tax on my estate.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ina F. Dossett

Fourth, the amount then remaining shall be the amount bequeathed to my husband in this ITEM.

In computing the dollar amount of property constituting this pecuniary bequest, the values used in finally determining the federal estate tax on my estate shall be used.

My Executor shall have full power and discretion to satisfy this bequest wholly or partly in cash or in kind and to select the assets which shall constitute this bequest. All property so selected shall be valued at the value thereof as of the date or dates of distribution to my husband.

ITEM VII.

I give, devise and bequeath to JAMES K. DOSSETT, JR. and WILLIAM E. DOSSETT, to serve jointly as Trustee under the terms set forth in this Will, the rest and residue of my estate, real and personal, of whatsoever kind or character and wheresoever situated, including any bequest that may lapse or be renounced or disclaimed or that may otherwise be ineffective for any reason. This trust shall be for the benefit of my husband, my children, and my grandchildren. If property passes to this trust which any beneficiary (other than my husband) has disclaimed under Section 2518 that beneficiary shall be treated as if deceased on the day before the date of my death and shall not be a beneficiary of this trust, but the children of that beneficiary shall continue as beneficiaries.

The assets devised and bequeathed under this ITEM of my Will shall be charged with the payment of any estate, inheritance or other death taxes payable by reason of my death, any expenses of my estate not deducted for federal estate tax purposes and any other expenses deducted but not allowed as deductions in finally determining the Federal estate taxes payable by reason of my death. I recognize the possibility that the amount so disposed of may be affected by the action of my Executor in exercising certain tax elections. As provided in Sections 2206, 2207, 2207A, and 2207B, my Executor shall have the right to recover the appropriate amount of estate taxes from the recipient or recipients of property which is included in my gross estate for federal estate tax purposes, and no provision herein shall be construed to waive such right of recovery.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ana J. Dossett

The Trustee shall hold, administer and distribute the assets of the trust under the following provisions.

A. The Trustee shall pay to and among my husband, my children, and my grandchildren (but not necessarily in equal shares) as much of the net income as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, deems advisable for the education, support, maintenance, and health, including any hospital or other institutional care, of these beneficiaries, and for the maintenance of their accustomed standard of living. These distributions shall be made in proportions and amounts and at such intervals as the Trustee determines. Any income not distributed shall be added to principal and distributed in accordance with subsequent provisions.

B. In addition to the income distributions the Trustee shall pay to or for the benefit of these beneficiaries, or any of them, (but not necessarily in equal shares) as much principal as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, deems advisable for the education, support, maintenance and health, including any hospital or other institutional care, of my beneficiaries or for the maintenance of their accustomed standard of living at the time of my death. In making principal distributions, the Trustee shall consider the needs of the beneficiaries and the funds available to them from other sources.

In making distributions of income and principal, I direct the Trustee to consider my husband as the primary beneficiary and consider his needs above those of my children and my grandchildren. The Trustee shall see that my husband has sufficient funds to enable him to continue, if possible, his accustomed standard of living at the time of my death. Before making distributions of income or principal to my children or my grandchildren, the Trustee shall counsel with my husband to determine the needs of these beneficiaries, but the decision of the Trustee shall be final as to the amounts and recipients of such distributions.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ana F. Dossett

C. Upon my husband's death, or upon my death if my husband predeceases me, the Trustee shall divide this trust into separate equal shares, one share for each of my then living children and one share for the then living children, collectively, of each deceased child of mine (being my grandchildren by that deceased child). The share for my then living children shall be distributed to them outright at this time. The shares for the then living children of a deceased child of mine shall remain in trust and each share shall be managed and invested as a separate and distinct trust. The Trustee shall hold, administer and distribute the funds of each trust under the following provisions.

(1) The Trustee shall distribute, at least annually, to each beneficiary of each trust (but not necessarily in equal shares) as much of the net income of that trust as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, deems advisable for the beneficiary's education, support, maintenance and health, including any hospital or other institutional care, and for the maintenance of the beneficiary's accustomed standard of living. Any income not distributed shall be added to principal and distributed in accordance with subsequent provisions.

(2) In addition to the income distributions, the Trustee may distribute to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, as much principal as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, deems advisable for the beneficiary's education, support, maintenance and health, including any hospital or other institutional care, and for the maintenance of the beneficiary's accustomed standard of living. In making principal distributions, the Trustee shall consider the needs of the beneficiaries and the funds available to them from other sources.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ana F. Dossitt

(3) The assets of a trust for the children of a deceased child of mine (being my grandchildren by that deceased child) shall be distributed, in equal shares, to the children of such deceased child when the oldest living child of a deceased child of mine attains the age of forty (40) years, except that the then living descendants of a deceased grandchild of mine shall take, per stirpes, the share the grandchild would have taken if living.

(4) In the event a child of mine is deceased with no children surviving, his or her share shall be distributed, in equal shares, to my other children then living or to the separate trusts for the benefit of the children of a deceased child of mine.

D. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, the Trustee shall retain in trust for the benefit of any beneficiary, any distribution otherwise required to be made to such beneficiary, if in the Trustee's sole discretion such beneficiary is, at the time the distribution would otherwise be required, involved in a lawsuit, addicted to alcohol, drugs, or other chemical substances, is a party to a pending divorce or marital separation proceeding, is in bankruptcy, or is currently under suit or collection proceedings by creditors, whether or not such beneficiary is in bankruptcy proceedings. The Trustee shall make reasonable inquiries before making distributions of principal to the beneficiaries to ascertain whether any beneficiary is then under any of the above described conditions. In making a determination that a beneficiary is addicted to alcohol, drugs, or other chemical substances, the Trustee may rely upon the opinion of a physician who has examined the beneficiary. The Trustee may request that the beneficiary be examined by a physician designated by the Trustee and if the beneficiary refuses to be examined by such physician, the Trustee shall not make any distributions to the beneficiary until such time as the beneficiary agrees to be examined by such physician. As and when the beneficiary whose distribution was delayed has recovered from, has resolved, or has been relieved of such condition, the Trustee may then make distribution to such beneficiary of the distribution which was delayed by the Trustee in accordance with this provision.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ana J. Dossett

E. The Trustee shall permit each beneficiary to elect by written direction to the Trustee, at the time all or any portion of his or her trust is to be distributed to him or her, to have such property remain in trust under the terms and provisions hereof for the balance of his or her life or until such time as such beneficiary shall request that the trust assets, or any part thereof, be distributed to him or her outright. In the event of the death of a beneficiary during the period in which the trust is so continued, the Trustee shall make immediate distribution of that beneficiary's trust assets to his or her estate.

F. If at any time, in following the provisions this Will, the Trustee is required to distribute all or any part of the principal of any trust herein created outright to a person who has not attained forty (40) years of age, the trust principal shall vest in such person but the Trustee shall be authorized to continue to hold the share of such person in trust for that person's benefit until he or she attains age forty (40). Until such time the Trustee is authorized and directed to expend such part of the income and/or principal of the trust belonging to such person as the Trustee in the Trustee's discretion deems necessary to provide for the proper education, support, maintenance and health of said person.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ana J. Dorsett

G. Upon distribution of the entire trust estate to the beneficiary or beneficiaries of any trust created under this ITEM of my Will, such Trust shall terminate.

H. My husband shall continue as a beneficiary of this trust, notwithstanding his remarriage subsequent to my death.

I. This trust shall be designated and known as the "Ina F. Dossett Family Trust."

ITEM VIII.

In making distributions for beneficiaries from any trust created under this Will and especially where such beneficiaries are minors, or incapable of transacting business due to illness, the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, may make distributions either (a) directly to the beneficiary, (b) to the legal or natural guardian of the beneficiary, (c) to a relative or guardian of the person of the beneficiary who has custody and care of the beneficiary, or (d) by applying the distributions for the benefit of the beneficiary by paying expenses directly. In any event the Trustee shall require such reports and take such steps as the Trustee deems requisite to assure and enforce the application of such distributions for the exclusive benefit of the beneficiary.

None of the principal or income of any trust created under this Will or any part of same, shall be liable for debts of any beneficiary or be subject to seizure by creditors of any beneficiary. No beneficiary shall have the power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber or in any manner to anticipate or dispose of any part of his or her interest in the trust assets or the income produced from the assets.

ITEM IX.

The Trustee of any trust created herein shall have the authority to distribute income or principal of the trust in cash or in kind. In making distributions of both principal and income, the Trustee may make a non pro rata distribution of property in kind. The judgment of the Trustee concerning values and purposes of such division or distribution of the property or securities held in the trust shall be binding and conclusive on all interested parties. In making a division or distribution, the Trustee is specifically excused from a duty of impartiality with respect to the income tax basis of the property distributed and may select assets to be allocated or distributed without regard to the income tax basis of the property.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ina F. Dossett

The Trustee shall not be required to make physical division of the trust property comprising the "Ina F. Dossett Family Trust," except when necessary for the purposes of distribution, but may, in the Trustee's discretion, keep the trusts in one or more consolidated funds. As to each consolidated fund, the division into the various shares comprising such fund need be made only on the Trustee's books of account, in which case each trust shall be allotted its proportionate part of the principal and income of the fund and charged with its proportionate part of expenses thereof.

ITEM X.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Will to the contrary, the interest of every beneficiary of any trust created by this Will shall vest within the period prescribed by the Rule against Perpetuities. Upon such vesting, any trust property held by the Trustee shall be distributed to the income beneficiary or beneficiaries of the trust as though such beneficiary had reached the date at which final distribution is required by this Will.

ITEM XI.

During the administration of my estate and until a trust created herein is funded, I authorize the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, to request that my Executor, in which case my Executor may comply with that request, make payments out of my estate to the beneficiaries of such trust. These payments shall be an amount which in the judgment of the Trustee and the Executor, jointly, equals the distributions which the beneficiaries would receive from the trust had it been established and funded at my death.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ina F. Dossett

ITEM XII.

Any trust created by this Will is a private trust. The Trustee shall not be required to obtain the order or approval of any court for the exercise of the Trustee's powers and discretions.

No Trustee hereunder shall be required to enter into any bond or to file with any court a formal accounting of the Trustee's administration. The Trustee shall render annual accounts to the income beneficiaries of each trust. No persons paying money or delivering property to the Trustee shall be required to see to its application.

ITEM XIII.

A Trustee may resign and cease to act at any time by giving written notice specifying the effective date of such resignation, by personal delivery or by registered mail, to those persons who are income beneficiaries of each trust at that particular time.

In the event either of JAMES K. DOSSETT, JR. or WILLIAM E. DOSSETT is or becomes unable or unwilling to serve as Trustee, the other shall serve alone as Trustee. However, if only one person is serving as Trustee, any distributions to or for the benefit of that person or his children can be made only with the approval of ANITA D. JONES.

The resigning Trustee shall deliver all trust assets to the successor Trustee on the effective date of the resignation, and shall, within sixty (60) days of such date, submit a full and final accounting to the successor Trustee and to the income beneficiaries of the trust. Any successor Trustee shall be vested with all the rights, powers, duties and discretions conferred on the original Trustee.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ana F. Dossett

Unless otherwise provided, the administration and management of any trust created herein, the sale and conveyance of the trust assets, the investment and reinvestment of trust assets and the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Trustee shall be governed by the terms and provisions of the Uniform Trustees' Powers Law of Mississippi as it now exists or may hereafter be amended. In addition to the powers contained in that Law, the Trustee shall have full power and authority:

A. To determine the allocation of receipts and expenses between income and principal. However, such allocation shall not be inconsistent with the beneficial enjoyment of trust property accorded to a life tenant or remainderman under the general principles of the laws of trusts. Further, all rights to subscribe to new or additional stocks or securities and all liquidating dividends shall be deemed to be principal.

B. To place, in the discretion of the Trustee, trust funds in a checking, savings or other types of accounts or certificates of deposit in any successor Trustee bank.

C. To receive, invest in, and retain in the trust all types of property and, especially, to receive, invest in, and retain in the trust shares of stock in closely held corporations, partnership interests in general and limited partnerships, oil, gas, and other mineral interests, standing timber, and unimproved real estate regardless of where it may be situated, without liability and without regard to the proportion such property or property of a similar character so held may bear to the entire amount of the trust estate and whether or not such property is of the class in which Trustees generally are authorized to invest by trust law.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ina F. Dossett

D. To consolidate and merge any trust created hereunder with any other trust created by me or any other person, whether inter vivos or by Will, if the beneficiaries are the same and the terms of that other trust are substantially the same as this trust.

E. To invest trust assets in a common fund established by a corporate Trustee pursuant to the Uniform Common Trust Fund Law of Mississippi.

F. To surrender, disclaim, release, relinquish or amend, after providing written notice to the income beneficiaries, all or any portion of any administrative provision of any trust created herein which causes or may cause adverse or unanticipated tax liability to my estate, the trust, the Trustee, or the beneficiaries.

G. To take out, apply for, and maintain, paying premiums from income or principal, health, hospitalization, medical or similar insurance covering any beneficiary of the trust.

H. To hold for the benefit of any minor beneficiary of a trust or for an adult beneficiary who is incapable of handling his or her property, any personal effects, automobiles, jewelry and other objects, particularly household contents, antiques, silver, crystal and the like, that are bequeathed to any such beneficiary of a trust until the beneficiary attains the age of twenty-one (21) years or in the case of an adult beneficiary incapable of handling his or her property until such time as, in the sole discretion of the Trustee, that beneficiary is capable of handling his or her property. The Trustee may permit such items to remain in the residence in which the beneficiary resides or in such other storage facility as the Trustee deems appropriate for such items and shall pay all costs of maintaining, storing and insuring the items. The Trustee shall have the authority to give the Executor or other personal representative of the estate of a decedent a receipt for such objects on behalf of such beneficiary.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ina F. Dorsett

I. To retain any interest in oil, gas or other mineral resources received from any source and to acquire and retain other interests in oil, gas or mineral resources; to execute as to those interests any agreements, assignments, contracts, deeds, grants, leases for any term (even though the term may extend beyond the termination of the trust) and any other instruments or documents; to manage, control, operate, explore, mine, develop or take any action for the production, recovery, sale, treatment, storage or transportation of any interest in oil, gas or other mineral resources; to drill, rework or recomplete wells of any type; to conduct or participate in secondary recovery operation; to enter into agreements for pooling or unitization; and to install, operate or participate in the operation of any plant, mine or other facilities. Interests in oil, gas and other mineral resources may be retained and acquired without liability for any loss and without application to any court.

ITEM XV.

If my husband and I die simultaneously, or under circumstances which make it difficult to determine which died first, I direct that I shall be deemed to have survived my husband for purposes of this Will. I direct that the provisions of this Will be construed upon that assumption, irrespective of any provisions of law establishing a contrary presumption or requiring survivorship as a condition of taking property by inheritance.

ITEM XVI.

Any recipient of property or beneficiary of a trust hereunder, or the Executor or other personal representative of the estate of any of them who may be deceased, shall have the right to disclaim all or any part of his or her interest in any property which I have devised or bequeathed to him or her whether outright

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ana J. Dossett

or in trust or all or any part of his or her interest in any trust created herein. Any disclaimer shall be made within the time period and in a manner required for the disclaimer to qualify under Section 2518. Any such disclaimer shall be made in writing, stating specifically the property or interest disclaimed, and may be filed with the Chancery Court in which my Will is probated and shall also be delivered to my Executor. If my husband or any other person or a Trustee disclaims any portion of a bequest, I give, devise and bequeath the property disclaimed to the Trustee of the "Ina F. Dossett Family Trust" created by ITEM VII of this Will, to be held, administered and distributed as provided therein.

ITEM XVII.

In addition to the powers and authorities specifically granted to my Executor under this Will, I expressly confer upon my Executor all rights, powers, duties, and authorities conferred upon a Trustee under the Uniform Trustees' Powers Law of Mississippi as it now exists or may hereafter be amended. I authorize my Executor to exercise any such powers and authorities granted in this Will or by the Uniform Trustees' Powers Law of Mississippi without the necessity of obtaining court approval. All rights, powers, duties and discretion granted to or imposed upon my Executor shall be exercisable by and imposed upon any successor Executor or Administrator. I direct that neither my Executor nor any successor Executor or Administrator shall be required to make any bond as Executor or Administrator. To the extent permissible by law, I waive the requirement that my Executor, or any successor Executor or Administrator, be required to make a formal appraisal, provide an inventory, or file an accounting for my estate with any court.

Except where specific property is devised or bequeathed, my Executor shall have discretion to select property to be distributed in satisfaction of any devise or bequest provided in this Will. In making a selection, my Executor is excused from any duty of impartiality with respect to the income tax basis of the property. However, my Executor shall not exercise this discretion or any other discretion in a manner that will result in loss of, or decrease in, the marital deduction otherwise allowable in determining the federal estate tax due by my estate. I authorize my Executor to exercise, at such times and in such manner as my Executor shall deem appropriate, any rights of election or other rights which are available to me or my estate in respect of the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code or of any other tax law.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ina F. Dossett

My Executor shall have the authority to disclaim or renounce any interest in property, in whole or in part, including any power with respect to property and including an undivided interest in property transferred to me or to my estate. Any disclaimer by my Executor shall be made in writing stating specifically the property or interest disclaimed and shall be delivered to the transferor of the property, the transferor's legal representative, or the holder of the legal title to the property to which the interest relates. Any disclaimer shall be made within the time period and in the manner required for the disclaimer to qualify under Section 2518.

My Executor shall have authority to continue all business operations in which I am interested at my death for the time permitted by law in order to avoid depreciation in value of the interests or losses to my estate or associates. My Executor may continue to act as partner, engage in any partnership, and take all actions with regard to any partnership my Executor deems advisable. I specifically authorize my Executor to sell, without the necessity of court approval, any stock or partnership interest held by my estate under the terms of any stock agreement or partnership agreement to which I was a party during my lifetime.

I specifically authorize my Executor to borrow such funds as may be necessary to pay my debts and administration expenses and taxes of my estate and to pledge such of my property, real or personal, as may be necessary to secure such loan; provided, however, that my Executor shall not pledge any property specifically devised or bequeathed herein. My Executor shall not be required to pay or otherwise satisfy such loan prior to the closing of my estate and the discharge of my Executor, but may distribute such property at its value net of such loan in satisfaction of any bequest herein.

FOR IDENTIFICATION:

Ana F. Dossett

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed and declared this to be my Last Will and Testament on this the 7 day of June, 1993.
