

Madison County Board of Supervisors Meeting, January 4, 2021: Quick Notes

- The Madison County Board of Supervisors (the Board) elected Supervisor Karl Banks as its President and Supervisor Paul Griffin as its Vice President for 2021.
- The Board selected Andy Clark as the attorney for the Madison County Planning and Zoning Commission.
- The Board tabled a rezoning request by Mipitou, LLC until the next regularly scheduled meeting on January 19, 2021.
- The Board approved hiring Michael Baker International to perform a Hydrology and Hydraulics study of the Sulphur Springs Lake dam, as required by the Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality.
- The Board approved hiring Mendrop Engineering Resources, LLC., to prepare ditch grades and a field survey for work on Dewees Road.
- The Board voted to accept the site plan for the expansion of Grace Crossing Baptist Church.
- The Board voted to accept the site plan for Lone Wolf.
- The Board voted to accept the site plan for Johnson Commercial Office in Gluckstadt.

The Madison County Board of Supervisors will meet again Tuesday, January 19, 2021, at 5:00 p.m. in the Administrative Building in Canton.

Please download our app, Madison Supervisors